PENDLETON WILL CLOSE UP SHOP OVER JULY 4

Pendleton will celebrate the Fourth largely by closing up shop and leaving for other towns and for the hills and mountains on fishing trips. Business will be suspended for the day and there will be no effort at a celebration so far as the city is concerned.

A large number of people have planned to attend the monster celebration at Milton-Freewater where two days of fun and frolic will be enjoyed under the auspices of the Commercial Associations of the two towns. The celebration will be held at Milton.

Others will go to Ukiah where the Camas Prairie Cowboys' Convention will be held July 4 and 5. A little bit everything in the way of riding, roping and races will be enjoyed. Many cars were in Pendleton today en route to Ukiah for the event. Those who attend the convention will have to take their own beds.

Still other folks from Pendleton will go to the Knights of Pythias celebration at Weston Mountain. Others will take fishing trips.

Billy Loday of Pendleton was in Adams today.
Mr. and Mrs. Alex McKenzie motored to their ranch today.
Mrs. F. O. Hendricks, wife of F. O. Hendricks, young Echo farmer and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Rhode of 309 Logan street, died at St. Anthony's Hospital at 5 o'clock this morning. Death was due to illness following the birth of a little daughter two weeks ago, the child dying at birth.
Mrs. Hendricks was formerly Elsie Marie Rhode and was born at Francisville, Indiana 25 years ago. With her parents she came to Oregon 16 years ago. She was married to Mr. Hendricks on October 2, 1919, and until her illness lived with her husband on their ranch near Echo. Mrs. Ralph Reese and Mrs. Henry Weltzine are sisters and Jacob Rhode, Fred Rhode, Edward Rhode and Adolph Rhode are all brothers of the deceased.
Mrs. Hendricks was confirmed in the Lutheran church and the funeral service will be conducted by Rev. Blasberg and the Lutheran minister from Walla Walla. The funeral will be held from the Christian church, Pendleton, at 2 p. m. next Tuesday. The pallbearers will be John Lorenzen, William Lorenzen, John Peters, Dewey Davis, Lloyd Thompson, Gastford Madison.
LOAFERS WHO ANNOY PLAY TO BE JAILED
Loafers who have been making embarrassing and some times insulting remarks toward children and teachers at the public playgrounds will stop the practice or go to jail. If some citizens who have heard of recent complaints have their way any future annoyances will proceed to the city bastille without ceremony. A regular or special officers will see to that.
City Superintendent Inlow yesterday laid the subject before the parks committee of the council and asked for aid. It appears that loafers have been a particular source of trouble at Pioneer park which is made a resting place by many during the evening. So serious had the situation become that the city superintendent fears he will lose his volunteer playground instructors unless there is an end to the above.
Another suggestion made by the city superintendent is that parents cooperate by seeing that their children return home immediately after playground instruction closes at 8:30 each evening. It is considered very desirable that no children remain at the parks after the supervised play has been concluded.
