ARCADE TODAY

The Arcade Theatre will have as its feature attraction today, "Habit". This is a story of unusual dramatic power and further notable for a scene in an atelier of a Fifth Avenue importer and designer, where models wearing over a hundred thousand dollars worth of furs and furbelows parade. The extent and richness of the fashions shown will interest all women in that these styles are the actual ones that will be worn this winter by the leaders of fashion. They are given sufficient footage, so that every detail can be apprehended by patrons. It is even said that even the furs devoted exclusively to fashions hardly furnish such forecast of coming modes. The play deals with the tremendous grip habit can acquire. Mildred Harris, the character of Irene Fletcher, finds herself clinging to her extravagant habit, although her father is a bankrupt.

She dreams she has married the poorer of her two suitors and the plot revolves around the efforts of the discarded one to possess her. The latter gets her in his power when she is lured to his apartment and a terrific struggle ensues. This is said to be one of the most daring scenes ever enacted on the screen. How her husband arrives on the scene and kills Munson and how the hero and heroine finally find happiness is told with rare skill.

This cast is notable. William Lawrence plays the part of the successful suitor and Walter McGrall the role of the venturesome one, while Ethel Grey Terry, as Mary Gharret, appeals as

ALTA TODAY

Hobart Bosworth, the Sea Dog. Hobart Bosworth, the Cowpuncher. Hobart Bosworth, the Two-Fisted. Those three Hobart Bosworths are famous to the public. But yesterday at the Alta Theatre we saw a still different Hobart Bosworth in his first Associated Producers vehicle made by J. Parker Read, Jr. It is called "A Thousand To One" and in it we see big, virile, likeable Hobart as a waster, a dilettante, if you please—in short, a rascal.

Imagine Bosworth as a rotter! But isn't for long, folks—this characterization exists only for about two reels when a terrific train wreck brings this episode in the star's screen life to an end and out of the wreckage emerges the new man. From this point onward the story becomes absorbing. The character development is superb, adding further laurels to Bosworth's historic crown. The production is as faultless as we have ever seen in an outdoor production and there are some interior that make us wish to see more of brawny Hobart Bosworth in dress clothes "putting on the dog."

Ethel Grey Terry plays opposite the star and gives a capable performance as the girl who has been tricked into marriage for the sake of her fortune but who ultimately finds love and happiness in the arms of the star. Which you all will agree is eminently proper and satisfactory.

Altogether a very happy Associated Producers release.

KABER ATTORNEYS DO NOT WANT WOMAN JUROR

CLEVELAND, July 6.—(U. P.)—Mrs. Kaber's attorneys are campaigning vigorously to prevent women from serving on jury duty. Mrs. Kaber is charged with killing her husband, Daniel Kaber, a wealthy publisher. The jury box was filled twice, and each time Kaber attorneys used a peremptory challenge to remove a woman juror. Should the trial go forward with a woman on the jury, the Kaber attorneys will appeal to the supreme court of the United States, using as a basis that women are ineligible to serve on jury duty in the United States.

Millions of army worms or caterpillars in New Brunswick have stripped the trees of foliage in many places. The railroad tracks are covered with these worms on certain sections and they graze the rails so badly that freight trains are having difficulty getting over the road and passenger trains are run in two sections.

A Thousand to One

The story of a strong man's fight for love.

Comedy:
NEAT BUT NOT GAUDY

No wonder the fat man chuckled

I SWELLED with pride.
THE FAT man next to me.
WAS READING one.
OF MY cigarette ads.
AND I felt him chuckle.
NOW NO one had evar.
PRAISED THAT ad.
SO I had to ask.
IF HE liked it.
AND HE said, "Sure."
AND LAUGHED some more.
THEN HE said.
"LOOK HERE" and pointed.
AND WHERE I'd written.
"PURE TOBACCO."
THE PRINTER had set.
"PURE TABASCO."
AND THAT'S why the man.
THOUGHT MY ad.

With acknowledgments to K. G. B.

WAS HOT stuff.
BUT THEN he said.
"FORGET THE ads.
I NEVER read 'em.
BUT LEMME tell you.
SOMETHING DIFFERENT.
THEY OUGHT to say.
ABOUT THAT cigarette.
AND THAT is this.
THEY SATISFY."
AND DARNED if I don't think.
HE REALLY believed.
HE WAS giving me.
SOMETHING NEW!

YOU can blame it on the printer if you don't see "They Satisfy" in a Chesterfield advertisement. But be sure of this—you'll find it in the cigarette every time. Wonderful Turkish and Domestic tobaccos, wonderfully blended—it sounds easy. But you'll find nothing else like Chesterfields. That blend can't be copied.

RAILROAD UNION HEADS CONTINUE DISCUSSION

CHICAGO, July 6.—(U. P.)—Thousand of leaders of the railroad unions continue the discussion of the 12 per cent wage reduction which the United States railroad labor board ordered for July first. They expect the unions to issue a statement accepting the wage cut, which means $400,000,000 yearly. They expected a demand to keep the working agreements intact.

Who says that "bargain" tires are what the people want

THE U. S. CHAIN TREAD
One of the few tires of which it may be said that they deliver economy year in and year out and tire after tire.
The U. S. Chain Tread gives sufficient traction on all ordinary road surfaces. It is probably the handsomest, and by all odds the most popular, of the whole U. S. Fabric Tire line.

Most everybody knows the easy-going sort of man who never takes a tire seriously until he gets a blow-out.
How long he will resist universal tire education is a question.
But this is sure—
More people are finding out every day that between leaving things to luck and getting real economy there is a big difference.
Many a car-owner has come to U. S. Tires because he couldn't afford to keep on paying that difference.
Probably seven out of ten users of U. S. Tires came to them only after they'd had enough of "discounts," "bargain offers," "clearance sales of surplus stocks" and other similar appeals.
They have found economy—and they stick to it.

They pay a net price—not "something off list" that may not mean anything in the first place.
They get fresh, live tires, being made and shipped while this message is being written.
No matter where they live there's a nearby U. S. Dealer with his nearby U. S. Factory Branch.
U. S. Tires keep moving.
No opportunity to get old and dried out. No shifting here and there trying to find a market.
Every U. S. Tire a good tire, wherever you find it anywhere in the country.
Because the U. S. policy is a good policy that serves the car-owner all the time.
Doing the very best for him that human good faith can do.
