KING GEORGE IS CHIEF MEDIATOR IN IRISH PEACE

British Rulers Held Conference With Ulster Premier; May Meet Republican President.

CONFERENCE OF IRISH PARTIES IS RESUMED

Procession is Organized as People Awaited News From the Peace Deliberations.

LONDON, July 8.—(Ed L. Keen, U. P. Staff Correspondent)—King George apparently assuming the role as chief mediator of the Irish negotiations, received Ulster Premier Craig, following his conference with Smuts yesterday. This was considered significant news.

DUBLIN, July 8.—(Ed L. Keen, U. P. Staff Correspondent)—Sinn Fein and Ulster conferences, attempting to reach an agreement, preliminary to the London-Lloyd George conference, continued their negotiations. Great crowds assembled outside the building and gave the arriving conference tremendous ovations.

DUBLIN, July 8.—(A. P.)—The conference between the Irish republicans and southern unionists was resumed today. Crowds on the streets at intervals recited the rosary and litany and joined in the prayers. Only two policemen were seen and the crowd was regulated by volunteers wearing small American flags in their button holes.

ENGINEER IS MURDERED, FIREMAN IS INJURED

EL PASO, July 8.—(A. P.)—Engineer William Bohman, of Sanderson, Texas, was murdered and thrown from a train and after four miles of uncontrolled speeding the engine of the freight train blew up at Alpine, Texas, seriously injuring the fireman, Charles Robertson, of Valentine, Texas, according to a report received by the railroad here.

PRETTY PEGGY JOYCE GETS $1450 MONTH FOR TEMPORARY ALIMONY

CHICAGO, July 8.—(U. N. S.)—Pretty Peggy Joyce, a former "Follies" chorus girl, defendant in what has been styled the "most expensive divorce suit in history," failed in her attempt to obtain from J. Stanley Joyce, her multi-millionaire husband, $125,000 yearly alimony she asked. Instead, the superior court granted her a little more than a tenth that amount—$1450 a month temporary alimony, $27,000 in solicitor fees and $12,500 as expenses in her suit.

IRISH VIOLENCE SHIFTS INTO ULSTER PROVINCE

BELFAST, July 8 (U. N. S.)—The seat of Irish violence has apparently shifted into the Ulster province where many casualties are reported in battles. Firing also broke out in Belfast province while the crowd forces were searching for arms.

FORMER WHITE SOX MUST PAY EXTREME PENALTY

CHICAGO, July 8 (U. P.)—The state is demanding the extreme penalty in the case of the former White Sox players and alleged gamblers, charged with throwing the 1919 world's series. The penalty is five years in prison and a $2000 fine.

FORDNEY TARIFF BILL DISCUSSED IN SENATE

WASHINGTON, July 8.—(A. P.)—The discussion of the Fordney tariff bill got into the senate hearings today on the "truth in fabrics" bill. Former Representative Rueter, of Colorado, representing the American National Livestock Association, described the plight of the wool growers, who he said, relying on the republican party for protection from foreign wool, had received only a "monstrous" price for the wool.

MINING ENGINEER SAYS GREAT BRITAIN OR JAPAN SHOULD DISARM

SAN FRANCISCO, July 8.—(U. P.)—John Hammond, a mining engineer, enroute to the orient, declared that either Great Britain or Japan must disarm. He does not believe a renewal of the Anglo-Japanese pact would necessarily affect the United States and be detrimental as he believes Great Britain would share with the United States the dispute for Japanese trade monopoly with the orient.

Well, the tariff bill will be over on the senate side in two weeks," said Senator Watson of Indiana, a republican member of the senate finance committee. "Then the days of reconstruction will begin."

JACK JOHNSON WILL BE FREED SATURDAY

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., July 8 (U. P.)—Jack Johnson, former heavyweight champion, is preparing for tomorrow's prison release. His white wife paid the $1000 fine accompanying the sentence. His early release is due to good behavior.

STEER'S TAIL WORTH ONE MAN'S LIFE IS ZURCHER'S NARRATIVE

What is a steer's tail worth? Whether considered from the point of view of the leather it would yield, or the ox-tail soup one could make from it, it would not be worth a great deal. J. D. Zurcher, newly elected president of the Umatilla County Commercial Club Federation, knows of one time when one man's life was worth a lot to him. He was driving across the Snake River at Ballard's Landing in the early days. The river was high, and his horse was drowned. "I got the last steer's tail, and he carried me across to safety," Zurcher said last night in telling of the incident. "Otherwise, the chances are the horse and I would both have been lost."
