ALTA SUNDAY AND MONDAY

MAY McAVOY SCORES AGAIN

When Realart determined to celebrate their second anniversary with a special production, they combed the industry for someone to fittingly occupy the star part in the story which was written by Hector Turnbull. It was not mere chance that Miss McAvoy was chosen to play the role of the petite French maid, Jeanne Millette, in "A Private Scandal," coming to the Alta Theatre Sunday and Monday.

"PROXIES" UNUSUAL PHOTOPLAY

Unusual, novel and appealing is "Proxies," the new Cosmopolitan-Paramount picture, which will be shown at the Arcade Theatre today. The story has to do with a former convict who lives straight, but finds it hard to do so and who actually commits a hold-up and risks imprisonment to save his benefactor from falling victim to the wily schemes of another man to simultaneously make a fortune and to break into society.

There are many thrills throughout the action which takes place in a palatial home in which Peter, the hero, is the butler. As a result of highly dramatic circumstances, Peter proves himself a real man despite his prison record which is raked up for the purpose of ruining him. This role is played by Norman Kerry, who has appeared in support of numerous stars and who is well known to Paramount picture audiences. Zena Keefe as the leading woman, has a highly sympathetic role. The picture was directed by George D. Baker from his own scenario based upon the story by Frank R. Adams.

WHY IS A CAVE MAN? ANSWERED IN NEW FILM

Can man fight against the tendencies of heredity and environment? That is the question Jacques Jaccard seeks to answer in "Honor Bound"—the story he wrote and produced starring Frank Mayo—and his answer is "No."

The story deals with two types of men who are lifted out of civilization and dropped into savagery, and shows their reactions when face to face with primitive emotions to which only the instincts of forgotten ancestors could respond.

Just what this "throwback" is Jacques Jaccard explains at the proper time, but concerned in it are three women. First there is the vivacious little fiance of the younger man; she is portrayed by Helen Lynch. Then there is the business man's wife, played by Irene Blackwell. Finally comes the most disturbing element—the half-breed Koree, as savage and unashamed in her passions as an animal, and very beautiful.

Nick de Ruiz plays the brutal master and "husband" of the half-breed girl. Gordon Sackville is seen as "the rubber king," and Max Willing as an effeminate young English nobleman. "Honor Bound" will be seen at the Pastime theatre today.

The Old Oregon Trail construction between Nelson and Huntington in the extreme east of the state is being rushed to early completion.

Ozark Pirates

CONWAY, Ark., July 9 (I. N. S.)—Moonshiners have come down from the hills in a sort of a piratical effort to escape the provisory penalties for non-observance of Volsteadism. The latest is a complete liquor-making device on a floating raft, securely chained to a cypress "knee" in a dense canebrake on Grassy lake, 18 miles south of here.

Revenue officers rowed far out into the canebrake and confiscated the booze plant, along with 40 gallons of mash, while the thirsty patrons of the cache-owner are awaiting delivery of the "next consignment."

"HONOR BOUND"

IN a land where nature mocks at civilized conventions, two men, both loved by noble women, found themselves face to face with primitive emotions to which only instincts of forgotten ancestors could respond. Yet there was a third woman—as beautiful as the tropic jungle that gave her birth—and as fatal to the two men of the North. See how she tangled five lives to the point of catastrophe and you'll see a marvelous picture-story. NOW PLAYING.

Played "Exodus" Without Keys

CADIZ, Ohio, July 9 (I. N. S.)—Walter Scott, of Alliance, played steadily for several days on an organ placed in the corridor of the county jail by the Salvation Army.

One morning Scott and George Reed of Bryesville were not to be found.

An investigation by the prison officials disclosed that the organ had been utilized to deaden the noise created by using a section of a radiator in digging through the jail wall. The missing prisoners escaped through the hole in the wall.
