Is New Employee.
 Raymond (Toots) Garrity, of La Grande, is a new employee at the Charles Company. He is a former high school athletic star.

Frank Keys Appointed.
 Frank Keys of Walla Walla, who is well known in Pendleton, has been appointed U. S. marshal. He will move from Walla Walla to Spokane where he will have his headquarters in future.

C. W. Lassen Appointed.
 Dr. C. W. Lassen, veterinarian of this city, was yesterday appointed a member of the state veterinary medical examining board. He succeeds Dr.

F. T. Notz of Baker. The appointment was made by Governor Ben W. Osoff.

Art Acord in Film.
 Art Acord, well known to Pendleton Round-Up fans as a performer at the big show, is appearing on the screen at the Pastime theater as the star in "The White Horseman." The picture is a western drama and Acord plays his part well.

Harvest to Begin.
 Harvesting of the wheat grown in the Cabbage Hill region will not begin before two weeks time because of the lateness of the season in that locality. While the acreage at Cabbage Hill is not large the wheat growers report that yields will be excellent.

Furlong To Make Address
 Lt. Col. Charles Wellington Furlong will make the chief address next Monday at the regular forum luncheon of the Portland Chamber of Commerce. He has been in Portland and Salem for the past ten days looking after business connected with the sale of the "Let 'er Buck" book. He will return to Pendleton next week.

To Build Bungalow
 Dr. J. A. Best secured a building permit this morning at the office of the city recorder for the construction of a bungalow at 908 East Bluff. The estimated cost of the house will be $3,000.

Demonstration to Be Held.
 A paper dress form demonstration will be held tomorrow at 1:30 p. m. in the office of Mrs. Edith G. Van Deussen, home demonstration agent in the federal building. The demonstration which will be given by Mrs. Van Deussen and trained leaders, is open to the public.

Statistics Given.
 Umatilla county's bond issues since 1913 total $1,650,000, the money being for highway work, according to a recent report made by Henry M. Hazen, financial editor of the Portland Telegram. The road levies in this county have decreased from $75,368 to $49,425 during the period from 1913 to 1921, the report shows.

Look For Runaway Boy
 The police are looking for a runaway boy from Baker who is supposed to have come to Pendleton following his disappearance from his home at Baker yesterday. He is 12 years old, has black hair, light gray eyes and wore a black hat, old shoes, new blue overalls and a light shirt, according to the description furnished the police. The officers are searching for the lad.

Parsons Are Good Carpenters
 That preachers can do good carpentry work on a pinch is graphically illustrated in a picture that appeared in Tuesday's Portland Telegram. The picture shows a number of Baptist preachers of Oregon busily engaged in building a mission house in Portland. An inset in the big picture shows Rev. J. W. Stockton of Helix holding boards which are being sawed by Dr. O. C. Wright.

To Plan Outing
 When the two troops of Pendleton Boy scouts meet tonight the attendance will undoubtedly be a record breaker because tonight is the time for making definite plans concerning the trip to the mountains that the boys are to enjoy this summer. The scoutmasters, H. J. Kirby and Rev. J. M. Cornelson, will assist in the planning. The meetings are held in the old city library room in the municipal building.

Books Ready For Shipment
 That the "Let 'er Buck" book by Charles W. Furlong is about ready for shipment to Pendleton where it will be distributed is assumed to be true following the receipt of a request from George Palmer Putnam in which he asks for instructions about shipping the books. The Pendleton Commercial Association will have charge of the distribution of the books to the Round-Up boosters who guaranteed their sale.

Fields Being Certified.
 Fields of wheat in this county meeting the necessary requirements are being certified by George Hyslop, crop expert from Oregon Agricultural College. Mr. Hyslop, with Fred Bennion, county agent, is visiting fields near Pendleton today. The two are much pleased with the fields of pure Jenkins Club, a variety not grown extensively in this county but one which Mr. Bennion hopes will win popularity with wheat growers.

Publicity Man in La Grande.
 Pendleton is trying something new in the way of Round-Up publicity this year by staging what they call a "personal publicity campaign," according to Arthur Rudd, of the University of Oregon school of journalism, who is doing publicity work for the show, the dates of which are September 22, 23 and 24. Rudd passed through La Grande last night on his way to the branch line towns, where he plans to spend about two weeks. He expects to spend the last part of August in and around La Grande in the same work. "It's going to be some show," said Rudd in discussing the Round-Up with an Observer reporter last night. Good crop prospects probably mean a big-

Back From Seattle
 Charles Nelson has returned from Seattle where he recently took four carloads of cattle which were loaded at Pilot Rock. The cattle went to Portland and were then forwarded to Seattle, and he declares that he received a better price at the Seattle market than he could have received at Portland. He feels very well satisfied with the sale.

Visit Not Assured Yet.
 That no further plans for the expected visit of Secretary of the Interior Albert Fall to the West have been made is the information that has been received here in a letter from Representative N. J. Sinnott. It is known that the secretary expects to be in Washington until August, but whether he will be able to make his trip through the Northwest is not known.

And It Tests High, Too
 Representative Frank Sloan of Stanfield was here today on a business mission. Not only is the west end harvesting one of the biggest wheat crops it has ever known, but the tests show that the grain is weighing exceptionally high, many tests showing weights of 62 pounds to the bushel. Mr. Sloan is also in the sheep business, and he has a shipment of lambs on the road to eastern markets now. He is running about 16,000 sheep this year, not quite as many as he usually has.

In Big Directory
 The Pendleton Commercial Association will be listed in the big directory of the American Bureau of Trade Extension which is soon to be published at New York according to information that has been received at the office of the association. Names of officers, the number of members and whether the local organization is affiliated with the United States Chamber of Commerce is the information sought which will be listed in the directory which is circulated in business circles all over the world.
