Possible Railroad Embargo Causes Wheat to Slacken.

CHICAGO, July 21 .- (A. P.)-Big Bulls were the only exception, and they ularity at the close. There were no embargo against grain shipments to indications that shorts had materially Chicago led to downward swings to receipts and possibility of a railroad embargo against grain shipments to like advance.

With estimates current that 2000 carloads of wheat were on tracks here unloaded and with new arrivals today totaling 654 cars, the wheat market was on the decline during the greater part of the session. Continuance of elevator labor troubles was a factor in making the storage situation acute and in raising the quotation whether a temporary embargo might be required to relieve the congestion. On the other hand, exporters bought $800,000 bushels here and New York advised of 250,000 bushels sold for export to Germany. Suport was lacking, however, and the close was near the bottom. Auspicious crop reports had a bear ish effect on the corn market. Oats declined with corn, although firm for a while, owing to exaggerated reports of export basiness.

Provisions were steaded by asser-tions that Germany had purchased 3,-000,000 pounds of lard.

Oregon Tomatoes Offered On Market

PORTLAND, July 21 .- (A. P.)-Oregon tomatoes are now coming into the market in large quantities and in a short time now there will be an ample supply to take care of all demands. The quotation on Oregons is now $2.50 @ 2.75 and it is expected that these prices will drop shortly as the tomatoes scome more plentiful.

Shipments of melons yesterday included a quantity of honey dews. They wont readily at $2.25.

Dinuba and Turlock cantaloupes are now on the market in quantities and ere supplanting in a large measure the Imperial valley melons, the supply of hich is rapidly becoming exhausted. Receipts yesterday included one car of Turlocks. They went at $1.75 for flats to $3,50 for ponies and $4 for 45s.

New apples are now coming in in small quantities. Early cooking varie-ties from The Dalles were quoted on $3.50. It was announced that a shipment of California Gravensteins is due to get in tomorrow. They are expected to go at around $3 to $3.50 a box.

"SHE LOVES AND LIES" Does a woman lie when she loves? She certainly does, and Norma Tal-madge proves it in "She Loves and Lies," a Select special in which the popular star is appearing at the Arcade theatre today. True, Miss Talmadge has a good ex cuse for her fibs, for she must win a fortune and in order to do this she must marry a man, while she is masquerading as a woman of fifty-two, who happens to be the man she really loves and he really believes she is the age she represents, Some task, but Miss Talmadge is a versatile that she not only makes the aged woman convincingly levely, but compels her youthful husband to become so wrapped up in her that when he has a chance to escape what to some would prove a distasteful marriage, he will not let her go.

Then comes the surprise when the young man finds out that his bride is a girl full of the buoyancy of youth and the joy of living.
