CAMBRIDGE-OXFORD FAIL TO BRING STAR MEN FOR MEET WITH HARVARD-YALE JULY 23

Americans Expect to Have Easy Time Defeating British Lads; Harmony on Yank Side Need

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., July 21.—(I. N. S.)—The Cambridge-Oxford track team, which arrived in this country recently for the purpose of meeting Harvard and Yale July 23, likewise Princeton and Cornell, did not bring its full strength, and therefore is unlikely to defeat the first American combination. Mountain, the British champion over the half mile; Butler, the great sprinter, and Montague, the crack distance star, are among the absentees.

Montague is a keen runner and should have scored first place in the 880-yard event. Captain Basil Rudd, while admittedly a sweet performer, is not expected to run both the quarter and half mile and win them. If Tommie Campbell is right Rudd is not very likely to win the shorter event, despite the Olympic games showing where he won the 400 meters. The Yale man collapsed in that race just as he did in the intercollegiate this year.

Butler is the English college's premier 440 man, a member of the Cambridge track team, and always a close rival of Captain Rudd, of Oxford. Last year they ran a dead heat in the dual meet between the two colleges, but this year Butler put over a win on the clever South African. Butler is also a fine 100-yard man.

Montague's best distance is three miles, but he was listed for the two-mile race here. He is easily the best runner at his distance overseas.

Perfect Harmony Necessary

The Harvard and Yale team may iron out their troubles now that the Britons are here. The same antipathy that Yale holds for Harvard when they meet in the regular season seems unattested even now, despite the fact they are to be team mates against Cambridge and Oxford. Perfect harmony is necessary if the meet is to be won. Despite Harvard's invitation the Yale men have come to the stadium for very few workouts with their Harvard stablemates. The Elis have chosen to make the trip from their beach quarters when the Harvard team was apt to be engaged elsewhere.

The trial race to determine the pair that will compete against the British hurdlers will be held shortly. It is not determined whether Whitney, of Harvard, will be allowed to take part.

Yale objects to his doing so, believing that either Shedd or Hulman, of their staff, should share the honor with Krogness, the great Harvard star, who looks like a sure winner with Trowbridge, of Oxford, out of the meet. Harvard holds that the first and second place man in this trial heat be chosen for the big games prospect of their college. This should cause a merry row if each aggregation sticks to its belief.

Eleven in Yale Squad

Eleven men, including Captain Truman Gardiner, whose event is not on the international programme, are in the Yale squad—P. B. Crakshank, hammer thrower; E. W. Siemena, M. K. Douglas, E. V. Vanderpyle and F. W. Hills, distance runners; Andon Hyman and Robert Shodden, hurdlers; S. H. Feldman, dash man, and G. W. Chapman and Tench Coxie, quarter milers.

Captain Dennis P. O'Connell will not be handicapped by a slight back injury which he received a few days ago. Coach William Bingham believes. On the shoulders of the two-times Harvard leader and Tom Campbell, of Yale, in the half mile and the mile, lies much of the responsibility if the Englishmen are to be sent home defeated. O'Connell, although defeated in the inter-collegiate, ran the best mile of his career in finishing a shade over 4 minutes 21 seconds.

PATRONS PROVE HONEST.

HORNELL, N. Y., July 21.—Ninety-nine out of every hundred in the United States and everybody in Hornell is honest, according to Charles S. Smith, manager of a local moving picture theater.

A new policy has been inaugurated at the theatre Smith manages. There are no ticket sellers or takers in the lobby. All persons are admitted free. After visiting the show they walk to the door where a box with a slot in it has been installed. If they liked the performance they drop thirty cents in the box. There is no attendant to stop the patrons if they don't care to drop the money in the box. There is a girl stationed in a little booth just inside the lobby to provide change for the patrons who want the correct amount.

Manager Smith says that practically all the theatre patrons pay. The only ones who don't drop their money into the box, according to Smith, are the ones dissatisfied with the show.

Patrons' wives in Japan rear silk worms, just as women on our farms in this country keep poultry.

GERMANY PUTS 'YELLOW STREAK' IN HER FLAG

BERLIN, July 21.—(By Frank E. Mason, I. N. S. Staff Correspondent.)—Germany is advertising herself as a nation with a "yellow streak" is the bitter complaint of E. G. Got in the Hamburger Fremdenblatt. "Do you know the English expression 'yellow streak'?" demands Herr Got. "You can readily find it in the English-German dictionary. It means a coward at heart."

The German national assembly decreed that upon the demand of any foreign warship the German seaman must hoist a flag with a broad yellow streak through the middle. He must not only show the yellow streak to every foreign warship, but raise it before every foreign fortification when he comes into the harbor.

The national assembly changed the imperial black-white-red flag to the republican black-gold-red banner. The change in the national colors has been the subject of bitter comment by the royalists, who explain: "Gold is for the past, red for the present and black for the future." Herr Got sees in the gold stripe a yellow streak. "Our flag will be 'the flag with the yellow streak' to everyone who understands the English language, which means most of the marine world. It will be considered the symbol of a people who are cowards at heart. The stripe stares the world in the eye, the stripe which from every flagstaff proclaims that Germany is a democratic and incidentally a cowardly folk. How long will it be until this cowardly people tear the yellow stripe from their flag and from their hearts?"

SAYS U. S. IS UNDER OBLIGATIONS.

WASHINGTON, July 21.—(U. P.)—Secretary Mellon told the senate finance committee that the United States government considers itself "under obligations" to the foreign nations to defer interest payments of their debt.

Father says — "I'll go along as I am."

"Of course I'll go to the movies if I can be comfortable. These Casco summer shoes are as light and comfortable as any house shoe, but they are smart enough in appearance to wear anywhere in vacation. They look good, feel good and I don't have to fuss with changing."

Every member of the family can get a lot more real enjoyment out of the summer afternoons and evenings with Hood Casco Bats. They are light, easy and cool, stylish in appearance, and give excellent wear. Note their superior construction and examine the Hood patented pneumatic heel — "You walk on air."

Ask any dealer or write us.

The Hood Athletic is a prime favorite with active, real boys in city, town and country. Suction soles that prevent slipping. Sport trimmed and made to wear. The Hood Process puts all parts together to stay. Make your boy happy with a pair of Hood Athletics.

Big men and little men want sport trimming on their play shoes. The Sportshu is red trimmed, red corrugated sole — a splendid shoe at a moderate price. And how the little folks like their looks. Ask for Hood Sportshu.

SEISMOLOGICAL WARNS OF DANGER FROM STORMS

WASHINGTON, July 21.—(I. N. S.)—When the lightning flashes and the thunder booms your chance of being struck is just one in a million.

That is the expert opinion expressed by W. J. Humphreys of the Seismological department of the weather bureau. Figure it out—one hundred million people in the country had an annual lightning death roll of not more than 100. Does it make any difference whether you live in one part of the country or another? Get this:

On the Pacific coast, records show that the annual thunderstorm schedule provides for rarely more than two or three performances. In the south, Florida especially, thunder storms are much more frequent, but less dangerous, because of the fact that the clouds usually travel higher in that section.

The chances one runs of being struck, Mr. Humphreys observes, are not as great as those taken by daily riders on street cars. There are more than one hundred accidents on street cars during a year, but the total number of rides per year by the country's population reduces the percentage of chance.

"There is actual danger in thunderstorms," declares Humphreys, "enough to warrant the individual taking ordinary precautions. But there is no justification for the fear experienced by the average person when the flash and noise of the storms come."

He advises seeking shelter, preferably in a steel-frame building. If in the open, keep away from barbed-wire fences, isolated trees and hilltops.

BUFFALO BANKS ARE VERY HEAVILY ARMED

BUFFALO, July 21.—(U. P.)—Due to the number of increasing bank robberies throughout the United States, Buffalo banking institutions have installed many safety devices to insure against robbery.

Sharpshooters armed with automatic rifles, barricaded in an armor plate cage above the corridor of the federal reserve bank, are on guard to frustrate possible attacks by armed bandits.

The "bill box" contains seven loop holes and looks like a world war fortification. Any point in the bank is a target for the man in the cage.

Additional night guards have been placed in banks and they are now armed with swivel-off shot guns.

Besides visible means of warding off attacks the banks have installed secret appliances that would bring police instantly to the bank where an attack was made and other appliances that would trap the robbers.
