TRACTOR OWNED BY SIM CULLEY CATCHES FIRE

(East Oregonian Special)
WESTON, July 22.—R. L. Reynold has sold his barber shop on Main street to Robert Hargwood. The deal was completed on Wednesday and Mr. Hargwood took immediate possession of the shop. It is understood that Mr. Reynold will move to Portland where he will enter a chiropractic college. Mr. Reynold has been barbering in Weston for quite a number of years and has made many friends here who will regret to see him and his estimable family leave us.

Sim J. Culley, who is a wheat grower in various places in this section of the county, is contemplating his run of hard luck. Last winter a new machine shed which he had built on the DeGraw ranch south of Weston, burned, together with nearly all of his farm machinery, which included a large best tractor. Last spring he bought another tractor. About two weeks ago while this new tractor was being driven along the county road near Blue Mountain station, it turned over, badly wrecking the tractor and seriously hurting Harry Schief, the engineer. Last Monday Mr. Culley got his outfit repaired and started thrashing when a back-fire from the engine on the combine set fire to the machine and before they were able to extinguish the flames it had burned most of the workable parts of the inside of the combine. The frame of the machine escaping any serious damage, he expects to soon be operating again as if nothing had happened.

A. W. Lundell of Pendleton, is visiting his son, Leon Lundell, on north Water street. Mr. Lundell, on north J. H. Key and M. W. Harnell, two farmers who operate a few miles northwest of Weston, both began harvesting last Monday. The exact yield that they are getting has not yet been ascertained. They are both harvesting white hybrid No. 128 samples of which weighs nearly 61 pounds to the bushel.

Mayor H. A. Barrett of Athena, was transacting business in Weston Wednesday.

S. A. Barnes, agent of the Pacific Coast Elevator company, was a business visitor to Pendleton Tuesday afternoon.

Reynold M. Jerry, who recently sold his hand Liddings on the Walla Walla river, has purchased a beef residence on North Water street from the heirs of the late Mr. Handy.

John Hansen, Jr., who farms near Sault ste Marie, was in town Tuesday for the purpose of hiring some harvest hands.

HORSE-SENSE TO RESCUE
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 22.—(U. N. S.)—Tired and exhausted from hauling a dray wagon for many a day Old Dublin dropped his weary bones in a heap across a public park drive here and refused to breathe any more. Stretched in full length across the drive, he blocked traffic via the road he had selected for his demise. Being outside the city limits, local authorities refused to remove the carcass and it remained there three days. Then spurred by the decomposition of the quadruped's body, citizens in the vicinity prevailed upon the owner of the draying concern to remove the obstruction and give it proper burial. Traffic has been resumed as usual in the park.

STILL STROLLER, SEEK SNEAKS
POPULAR BLUFF, Mo., July 22.—(U. N. S.)—Turn about is fair play. Stoddard county officers have been defied by persons who believe that axiom. The officers confiscated a large copper still from the Ozark hills. The booze-brewing paraphernalia was too bulky for entrance into the jail building. It was placed on the porch of the "jonesing." Quite pleased, the officers are searching for the parties who stole it.

4 PERSONS DIE IN WHAT IS THOUGHT TO HAVE BEEN SUICIDE PACT

CLEVELAND, July 22.—(U. N. S.)—Mrs. Eliza Mosman, 70 years of age, her daughter, Thelma aged 27 and two children which had been left in their care, were found burned to death in their home. The women are believed to have entered into a suicide pact.

JAP PICTURE BRIDE SUES FOR DIVORCE

SACRAMENTO, Cal., July 22.—(U. N. S.)—The disillusioned ending of a picture bride's romance was revealed here when Mrs. Toyo Kamuro filed suit for divorce from her husband, S. Kamuro.

Mrs. Kamuro's complaint tells the story of her marital relations from the day she met her husband, whom she had never seen before, at the immigration station in San Francisco until February of last year, when her husband told her "to get out in the fields and earn a living."

Mrs. Kamuro alleges that her husband drove her from her home "so that he could marry a woman who would work and bear children who could work later."

SALVAGE TROPHY SCHOONER
HALIFAX, N. B., July 22.—(U. N. S.)—Work is being continued in the attempt to salvage the trophy winning schooner Esperanto, which foundered off Sable Island. The vessel had been partly raised when she slipped back onto her resting place on the bed of the ocean.

Matutinal France of Paris Police
PARIS, July 22.—(U. N. S.)—The Paris police have taken up basketball as a sport best fitted to keep them in physical trim. Dressed only in laughing tracks and slippers, one contingent of "accents" exercises an hour every morning.

SON WINS BOUT; FATHER DIES FROM EXCITEMENT

(U. P.)—Deputy Marshal John Inman is dead as the result of extreme excitement induced at a boxing match when his son, Jack Inman, defeated Jack Moore of Los Angeles, in a four round bout.

Unknown Friends
There are many who have used Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy, with the best results, but who are unknown, because they have not written to the manufacturers to tell them of their experience in the use of this remedy. These people, however, are none the less friends and it is to their personal recommendations that this preparation owes its popularity and extensive sale and use. It is a good medicine to have in the house. It is widely known for its cures of pain in the stomach, colic and diarrhoea.

How to Avoid Trouble
You may save yourself a lot of trouble and suffering by obtaining a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy, at once. It is almost certain to be needed before the summer is over and when needed, is worth many times its cost. It is thoroughly reliable.

Took a Neighbor's Advice
"Two or three years ago, whatever I ate distressed me. My liver was torpid and I lacked energy and ambition. A neighbor advised me to take Chamberlain's Tablets. I was wonderfully benefited by their use and have since enjoyed the best of health," writes Mrs. Frank Pellett, Hamblin, N. Y. If troubled with indigestion why not take these tablets? Get well and stay well.

How to Reach a Riped Old Age
If you would reach a ripe old age, do not worry, take out-door exercise daily, adopt a diet suited to your age and occupation, keep your bowels regular. When medicine is necessary to move the bowels, take Chamberlain's Tablets. They are mild and gentle.

MANY MOTOR TOURISTS NOW SWARMING IN WEST

PORTLAND, Ore., July 22.—(U. P.)—Gone are the slow-moving vans, the moth-eaten steeds, with their worn motor-enters, the canvas-covered prairie schooners. The tourist of yesterday has been relegated to the limbo of oblivion with the advent of the rigvay and the paved highway. The modern rigvay is here! Portland is the clearing house for hundreds of tourists each day at this time of the year. And these tourists are in a class by themselves. California or Canada bound, they are pouring over the highways of the Northwest—an animated, good-natured, Goth-like horde, roving of eye, cheerful of countenance and amiable of disposition.

In vehicles of all sorts they come from touring cars with neatly arranged cases containing baggage to big lumberlike bodies mounted on "flyer" chassis, in which whole families live day in and day out, and from whose windows the eager faces of children peer and from whose sides float strings-loads of varicolored "wash."

No weather can deter them, no hardships can cast them down. They are out for a good time. Some parties have been on the road for months, others have just started.
In the auto camp here license tags from as many as thirty states have mingled their colors and their combinations of numerals. Along the highways drifting smoke betokens the presence of campers along meandering creeks and beside cool rivers. They are going somewhere. Where? They don't know.
"We're seeing the country," they say. "We've worked hard for years and now we're taking our vacation. It's a great life."

It is no uncommon sight to see the puny radiator of a cheap car puffing steam through the water vent as the puny engine beneath the hood battles valiantly to hurry along a barn-like tonneau with a family of a dozen.

The carmaraderie of it all! "Oh, dad, look, there's the people we saw near Yosemite," a youngster will cry. Or, "Hello, folks. Haven't seen you since we pulled through Fourth of July canyon. How's tricks?" Or, "By George, we'd sure been out of luck if you folks hadn't loaned us that gasoline there in the desert."
The whole northwest is pervaded with the spirit of the modern eyes. And here, where their Mecca seems to be the long lines of them stretch back into the Middle Western plain, up into the mountains of Canada, or down into the river bottoms of California.

"Make way for the migratory American," mutters the traffic cop, as he swings his semaphore to watch them chug past.
MISSOURIAN, 145. DIES POOR
POPULAR BLUFF, Mo., July 22.—(U. N. S.)—William Almer Bishop, Missouri's oldest resident, is dead at the age of 115. He lived long enough to attend the funeral of his wife and all his children, though he himself passed his last days on a poor farm.

New York's fast-growing prestige as a fashion center is justified in the advance glimpse of fall fashions by Hickey, Fifth Avenue. The street costume is of brick wool velour trimmed in bands of skunk. A novel skirt is curved upward in front and at the back center. The skirt and the large bell sleeves—also curved—are outlined by two rows of skunk. The "skunk" collar is also of this fur which is used to catch the snaf effect at the sides. The large black velvet hat, slightly turned back in front, is outlined with jet at the sides. A large black jet ornament falls to the right shoulder from beneath the brim.
