TWO ARE HONORED

Honoring the sixtieth birthday anniversary of both Mrs. Sarah Savage and Mrs. S. A. Blue, the Loyal Workers Class of the Christian Church entertained with a party last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Draper, 405 Garfield street. Hostesses were Mrs. E. O. Draper and Mrs. J. M. Harrison, daughters of Mrs. Blue, and Mrs. F. G. Heitz, daughter of Mrs. Savage. A charming color scheme of lavender, pink and white was used, the effect being carried out with roses, sweet peas and dahlias. There were two birthday cakes, one with sixty lavender candles and another with sixty pink candles. Music and games were enjoyed and later refreshments were served.

WILL VISIT HERE

Mrs. J. W. Fitzgerald, of Port Angeles, Washington, arrived this morning in Pendleton and is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. L. H. Livermore. Mr. and Mrs. Livermore and little daughter, Barbara, are spending a few days at the home of Mr. Livermore's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lot Livermore but expect to be in their own home soon.

WILL RETURN TOMORROW

Mrs. Henry Dixon Jones and daughter, Mrs. Harold J. Warner, will return tomorrow from Lake Pend Oreille where they have been for the past week.

GUESTS AT HANSCOM HOME

Mrs. A. F. Manley and two daughters, Frances and Helen, arrived today from Ellensburg, Washington, to visit Mrs. Manley's sister, Mrs. Will Hanscom.

BIRTHDAY PARTY TONIGHT

In honor of the sixth birthday of little Miss Mary Bond, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bond, her grandmother, Mrs. Ellen G. Bond, will entertain this evening with a party at her home, 712 West Court street. Thirty little boys and girls have been invited and will spend the hours between 4:30 and 8:30 in playing games on the lawn. Refreshments will be served and there will be a candle-light birthday cake, favors and other features to bring pleasure to the youngsters.

WILL GO TO PORTLAND

Mrs. Nona LaFontaine will leave in a few days for Portland to be with her mother, Mrs. Winn Johnson, who was recently operated upon for appendicitis in Portland. Mrs. E. O. Parker, who has been at the bedside of her mother, will return to Pendleton.

RECEIVES TO LEAVE

For E. C. Reeves, who has been in charge of vocational work in the Pendleton high school under the Smith-Hughes act, has resigned his position to accept a position in Oregon Agricultural College where he will have supervision of the training of teachers in vocational work. To succeed him, Louis B. Travers of Everett, Washington. He is an experienced man and comes highly recommended for the place. He is married and has a baby.

WILL RETURN FROM TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bond and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Raley are expected to return on Tuesday after an extended motor trip to California.

W. C. T. U. TO MEET

The Women's Christian Temperance Union will meet on Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 in the library club rooms for a brief business session.

HOME DEMONSTRATION IDEAS FOR HOUSEWIVES

The value of milk in the diet has been shown very strikingly in the milk-feeding demonstrations carried on in the schools. In Kansas City, for instance, a survey in a certain school district in May, 1919, disclosed that 37 per cent of the children were undernourished. They were given a school lunch of milk and Graham crackers, and by September the percentage of undernutrition had fallen to 25 per cent. The following March only 3.7 per cent were below weight, and it was expected that all would be brought up to normal in a short time. Similar results have been obtained in other cities. The value of milk for older children and grown-ups is brought out in a tribute to milk from the president of a women's college in the South: "For 67 years we have never had a death of a boarding school student. We have our own herd of dairy cows. What milk we can not use we sell. We went through the 'flu' epidemic safely by keeping the dormitories heated evenly and then feeding milk." —E. V. D.

The supreme court of New York has decided that a suit by a young man to recover a ring given during courtship should not be dismissed because of a claim in behalf of the defendant that she was not of age and could not be sued. The court ruled that infancy could not be pleaded as a shield to prevent the return of another's property.

OREGON EDITORIAL MEN MEET TODAY IN BEND

BEND, July 22.—(A. P.)—E. E. Brodie, president of the national editorial association, told the Oregon editorial association today what the national association is trying to do in welding all the newspapers of the nation into one functioning association. A. Whisman, of Bend, read a paper by B. F. Irvine of Portland, on "The People's Column," in which Irvine said much of Upton Sinclair's "The Brass Check" was "hysterical and false." D. H. Batford of Portland, discussed foreign advertising.

Election of officers will be held at a banquet at Elk Lake this evening. Officers Are Elected.

BEND, July 22.—(A. P.)—Officers elected on the report of the nominating committee were: Elbert Bede, president; Lloyd Ritches of Vale, vice president; Hale Ross of the Oregon City Enterprise, secretary and treasurer; and Douglas Mullarky of the Redmond Spokesman, a member of the executive committee.

Resolutions adopted include, thanking City of Bend; changing the term of president from two years to one; increasing dues to five dollars a year; advocating a monument to Homer Davenport; and urging that the typographical union relax their rules as to the number of apprentices allowed.

Hall's Catarrh Medicine

Those who are in a "run down" condition will notice that Catarrh bothers them much more than when they are in good health. This fact proves that while Catarrh is a local disease, it is greatly influenced by constitutional conditions. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE is a Tonic and Blood Purifier, and acts through the blood upon the mucous surfaces of the body, thus reducing the inflammation and restoring normal conditions. All druggists. Elbert Hubbard's Little Journeys

TO THE HOMES OF THE GREAT

WHAT SOME CRITICS SAY

Elbert Hubbard's "Little Journeys" have given delight to tens of thousands. I shall always count myself his debtor for the wisdom and sense of his philosophy.

FRANKLIN K. LANE

The greatest legacy Elbert Hubbard left to the world is his "Little Journeys to the Homes of the Great."

CHARLES M. SCHWAB

Centuries may elapse before such a mind may appear again. His loss is a world wide calamity.

LUTHER HURBANK

Elbert Hubbard's "Little Journeys" mark an epoch in literature.

JUDGE BEN LINDSEY

Elbert Hubbard's "Little Journeys" were the masterpiece of a master mind.

DR. FRANK CRANE

There certainly was a thinker let loose when Elbert Hubbard was born. I feel I am greatly indebted to him. He has been an inspiration to me for many years.

DR. ORSON SWETT MAHLEN, Editor Success Magazine.

W. HOWE, HOWE'S MONTHLY.

"Little Journeys" are a boon and a blessing to the busy man.

HENRY FORD.

Elbert Hubbard stands today as America's ablest writer and "Little Journeys" his best work.

W. HOWE, HOWE'S MONTHLY.

"Little Journeys" are a boon and a blessing to the busy man.

HENRY FORD.

Elbert Hubbard is the greatest writer, vocabulary and range of ideas considered, that the world has ever seen, ancient or modern.

ROBERT BARR.

Hubbard was a mountain spirit, free, strong and utterly untrammeled in this very complicated world of ours. We can ill afford to lose his voice.

JAMES WHITCOMB RILEY.

I regard Elbert Hubbard's "Little Journeys" to the Homes of the Great as great masterpieces.

WILLIAM A. (BILLY) SUNDAY.

I have read "Little Journeys" for fifteen years—and I still read "Little Journeys."

JULIUS ROSENWALD.

(President, Sears, Roebuck Co.) "Little Journeys"—I would not take $2000 for the set if I could not get another.

STODDARD JESS.

Perhaps the chiefest loss of all was the drowning of the brilliant intellect of Elbert Hubbard. Neither the Atlantic ocean, the Pacific nor all time can mind the work of this great mind. "Loud and Peaceful" be thy sleep. Blessed in the Cradle of the Deep."
