GERMANS CUT PRICES

BUENOS AIRES. (By Mail to T P.)—German electrical goods, every-thing from light globes to generators to this port and at a cost, laid down lower than prices quoted by American firms for the same kind of goods. Germans are able to deliver anything in Cates, Meacham, Ore the electrical and steel line, from small hardware to becometive, at a price from 20 to 50 per cent lower than British or American bouses.

American importers say they are not alarmed at the influx of cheap German goods. They attribute the prices at which the Germans are 1019-W. able to do business to the surplus FOR SALE-$225.00-Ford Runabout stock and the low value of steel formerly intended for war purposes and which has now been turned into peace time machinery. If the deliar were at FOR SALE CHEAP—Chandler car in par in Argentine, Americans say, they fine mechanical condition—Lowell uld compete successfully with the Germans, despite their low prices, CLERIC SAYS BUSINESS MAN IS EARTH'S RULER Casy terms on balance. Oldsmobile Co. 403 E.: Webb.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, July 27 .- (I. N. S.)-"The business executive is, in B peculiar sense, the help of the modern age," declared the Rev. James L. Mursell, pastor of First Congregational Church here, discussing "The Business The business man has to deal with the manifold perplexities of the mod-ern age in their most congent form," continued the Rev. Mr. Mursell. "Although he is a ruler be has n yet as a class, developed the phychology of the ruler. This lack of psychological development is due to the ra-pidity with which the business man has been thrust into the saddle.

The business man, also, has no perceived that, as a ruler of men, he also is a servant of men. This state of affairs is unfortunate for society.

The American business man seldom has been deaf to appeals for justice and fair dealing for the highest and best things in life. This is an augury that the future may look to him to use his great powers as a ruler to bring about a better and happier world. "It he up to him.

HUSBAND, 60, SUED BY WIFE, 68. BIRMINGHAM, Ala. July 27 .- Al leging that her sixty-year-old husband Gilbert Beauregard Jones, has beater and otherwise mistreated her by actual violence, Mrs. Martha Jones, sixtyeight has asked the circuit court for an absolute divorce and temporary al imony pending the outcome of the suit. The allegation states the couple was married in 1969 and separated in May
