WOMAN ACQUITTED FOR KILLING SWEETHEART

LOS ANGELES, July 28.—(U. P.)—Sitting beside Edith Lundberg, charged with killing her sweetheart, Eric Mullikane heard Miss Lundberg pronounced innocent and then today stood trial herself for killing her baby. The state charges Miss Mullikane strangled her newly born infant with a lace handkerchief and placed it in a trunk which she had stored. Miss Mullikane's plea is the same as was Miss Lundberg's, temporary insanity.

PRESIDENTIAL MATERIAL.
LYDIA, Ohio, July 28.—(U. P.)—Although a bolt of lightning, hitting Frank Clark, tore his cap, short and pants to pieces, Clark was not seriously hurt.

Hall's Catarrh Medicine
Those who are in a "run down" condition will notice that Catarrh bothers them much more than when they are in good health. This fact proves that while Catarrh is a local disease, it is greatly influenced by constitutional conditions. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE is a Tonic and Blood Purifier, and acts through the blood upon the mucous surfaces of the body, thus reducing life inflammation and restoring normal conditions. All druggists. MOTION PICTURE NEWS

ALTA TODAY
MEIGHAN GREAT TRAVELER

Thomas Meighan tore two more tickets out of his coast-to-coast computation book when he made a trip to New York and back to the Lasky studio in Hollywood, to film scenes for his latest Paramount picture, "The City of Silent Men," which will be shown at the Alta Theatre today. This was Mr. Meighan's fourth round trip from coast to coast in 1920. The opening scenes of the new picture were filmed in the east, and then the company, directed by Tom Fortman, returned to Hollywood for several weeks work on western scenes. The scenes of the story are laid in New York and California, and the picture presents the exact locales. Dainty Lois Wilson plays opposite the star.

BUCK JONES COMING IN "SUNSET SPRAGUE"

William Fox's noted cowboy star Buck Jones will be seen at the Pastime Theatre beginning today in a lively Western picture called "Sunset Sprague." The author of the story is Clyde C. Westover, who is forcing to the front as a writer for the screen.

Jones has made a big reputation for himself as a daring horseman. The story of "Sunset Sprague" gives him an opportunity to display his best horsemanship—and in the midst of a pretty romance.

Sunset Sprague is a happy-go-lucky cowboy looking for a job on the range when he meets a man who draws him into the quest for a stolen mine which belongs to a plucky girl. This girl is defying the bandits who killed her father and took possession of the mine. Sunset starts after the band, and when he finishes with them they are glad to disappear and leave the mine to the girl and the girl to Sunset.

HARD TO PORTRAY BAD MAN WHO LOOKS GOOD

The hardest of all screen villains to play, according to actors who have undertaken such parts, is the bad man who, the audience is supposed to believe, is good. This sort of part is most capably handled by Arthur Nelson Millett, in "Drag Harlan," William Fox's latest starring vehicle for Wil-

Under Thirty!

S. Parker Gilbert has been made under-secretary of the treasury, ranking next to Secretary Mellon. And he is not yet 30. It's a newly created job. Gilbert was graduated from Rutgers in 1912 and Harvard Law School in 1915. He served on the War Loan Board during the war.

"Little Pals" embody a number of distinctive features. They are shaped as Nature intended, have splendid fitting qualities, plenty of toe room and the maximum of flexibility. Strictly bend soles and solid leather insoles are used. In fact, only genuine leather is used. "Little Pals" are made on the last through and are guaranteed to hold their shape.

Little Pals according to persons who have seen the picture. Millett is seen in the role of a rancher who champions the cause of a helpless girl under the guise of friendship, when in reality he is one of the most despicable villains imaginable, even in motion pictures. Naturally his portrayal is unusually interesting to the spectator.

"Drag Harlan" is the announced attraction at the Arcade Theatre today, and is said to give Farnum, the popular Fox star, one of the most magnetic parts he had had in pictures. The story was written by Charles Alden Seltzer and directed by J. Gordon Edwards.

Crow's Feet, Wrinkles, Enlarged Pores

The first application of Howard's Butter Milk Cream will astonish you. The dullest, most lifeless complexion is turned to radiant beauty and red or rough hands or arms made smooth, white yet there is not the slightest sign of its use. U. S. SHIPPING BOARD DELIVERED ULTIMATUM TO BRITISH COMPANIES

Unless Fair Treatment is Accorded U. S. Board Will Declare Open Market and Haul

LONDON, July 28.—(A. P.)—The United States shipping board has delivered an ultimatum to the British shipping lines that unless its ships are accorded fair treatment in contracts for transport of cotton from Alexandria, Egypt, to Britain and the United States the board will declare an open market and haul anything anywhere at any rate.

SOCIALIST SPEAKER IS 'RUN OUT OF TOWN'

NEWTON, Iowa, July 28.—(U. P.)—Mrs. Ida Crouch Hazlett, a New York socialist speaker, was virtually "run from town." Yells, jeers, tin pans and other disturbances greeted her court house yard talk. Several fights occurred. Mrs. Hazlett was forced to kiss the American flag and say she liked it. Before her talk was half over a mob took her to her hotel and told her to leave town.

MEETING WILL BE HELD WITHIN NEXT 6 WEEKS

LONDON, July 28.—(A. P.)—It was stated in official circles today that a meeting preliminary to the Washington disarmament conference would be held within six weeks at some Canadian city or city in the United States other than Washington was virtually certain although Washington's attitude on such an arrangement is not known.
