HOME DEMONSTRATION IDEAS FOR HOUSEWIVES

- * A minute or two spent before milking in wiping the loose dirt thoroughly off the cow's bag and flanks with a damp cloth has more to do with the production of sweet milk and cream than any equipment that has ever been invented.
- * A dairymaid in this country who did not have a concrete barn or enamelled dairy but who paid particular attention to cleaning the cow's bag before milking, obtained one of the lowest scores in bacteria in this state, thus proving that expensive equipment is not needed to produce clean milk.
- * Would you like to drink water that had to be strained before drinking?
- * How very necessary then is the cleaning of the cow's bag before milking to keep the dirt from ever getting into the milk.
- * What a satisfaction it will be to know we are producing a wholesome and nourishing food for the children.
- * Let us make Umatilla County famous for the cleanliness and quality of its dairy products.

'THE PILGRIM SPIRIT' TO MARK TRICENTENARY

PLYMOUTH, Mass., July 30.—(U. S. N. S.)—Practically all the principals and 1,026 other actors have been named for the cast of "The Pilgrim Spirit," the pageant by Professor George P. Baker, of Harvard, to be given here this summer as the climax to the celebrations commemorating the landing of the Pilgrims. The Rev. Ernest Pugh, rector of the Christ Church, Episcopal, was selected for "The Voice of the Rock," the lead in the pageant. John Delano (De La Noix), of Kingston, a direct descendant of Philippe De La Noix, who arrived here about 1766, will be Thervald the Norseman.

OBAMA GOES TO PEKIN TO OPEN NEGOTIATIONS

HONOLULU, July 30.—(U. P.)—Count Obama left Tokio for Peking where he will open negotiations for the return of Shantung to China according to a Tokio dispatch to Jiji, the Japanese language newspaper. Obama has been attending the Tokio conference of Japanese ministers and colonial officials, for the last month. The dispatch expressed the belief that the withdrawal of the Japanese troops from Siberia would be postponed owing to the anti-Japanese demonstration there.

HINDUS AND CHINAMEN BATTLE AT FRISCO

SAN FRANCISCO, July 30.—(A. P.)—A pitched battle between 43 Hindu deportees and 300 Chinamen promised much bloodshed until it was stopped by a force of inspectors at the Angel Island immigration station. Knives flashed and several of the outlaws were wounded. The Hindus came from New York. The Hindus are seeking admission.

LEADERS FACE TASK OF REVISING FORDNEY BILL

WASHINGTON, July 30.—(U. P.)—Republican leaders are facing the task of rewriting the Fordney tariff bill. The bill framed with the American valuation plan as a basis, it is feared is facing the discard. They must reframe the bill on the basis of foreign valuation, which is lower than the American plan. Practically every tariff rate faces an increase if the foreign valuation is made the base.

AERIAL PATROL DISCONTINUED. PORTLAND, July 30.—(A. P.)—The forest officials say the discontinuance of the aerial patrol owing to gasoline shortage is only temporary but they are unable to tell how long it will continue.

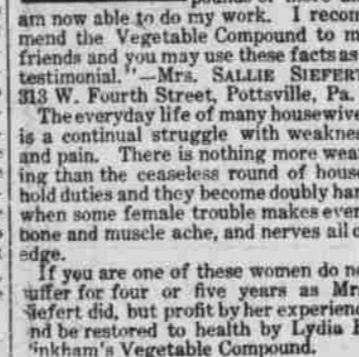

BUILDING TRADES MEN HAVE WAGES SLASHED

SACRAMENTO, July 30.—(U. P.)—The building trade's workmen will have their wages cut seven and a half percent, effective August 8, according to an agreement between the builders exchange and building trades council. This is a compromise offered by the workers from the dollar a day cut as was first proposed by the builders.

ABLE TO DO HER WORK

After Long Suffering Mrs. Siefert Was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Pottsville, Pa.—"I suffered with female trouble for four or five years and was very irregular. I was not fit to do my work at times and took medicine from a doctor and got no benefit. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised in the newspapers and took it and got all right. I gained twenty pounds or more and am now able to do my work. I recommend the Vegetable Compound to my friends and you may use these facts as a testimonial."—Mrs. SALLIE SIEFERT, 313 W. Fourth Street, Pottsville, Pa.

If you are one of these women do not suffer for four or five years as Mrs. Siefert did, but profit by her experience and be restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.
