BEDTIME PENCIL PICTURES

I am an animal, though you may not have thought of me in that way. I consider myself the greatest of the animals. I live in every country in the world, however, in lots of them I'm a different color. I try to do all I can to make life a pleasure for good girls and boys. No, wait a minute, I'm not a pony, monkey or a chicken—take another guess! I like all things good to eat, the same as you do and in fact—well, I mustn't tell, it's up to you to find out. Just take a pencil and starting at number 1 draw a line to 2, 3, 4 and so on, to number 33, until you see who I am. Then you'll know me mighty well. Come on let's hurry and find me.

PAST AND PRESENT

Conjunctant. Lady (to applicant for situation as cook)—Have you been accustomed to have a kitchen-maid under you? Cook—In these days we never speak of having people "under us." But I have had colleagues.

PAST AND PRESENT

Sare. Ella—What is that vulgar-looking woman all covered in frills and ruffles? Bella—Oh, some nouveau ruffie!

PAST AND PRESENT

THE DAYS ARE LONGER BUT STILL THEY ARE SHORTER.

Nobody's Safe. The most dangerous thing about a Mrs. Newlywed — And — and some widow is her predilection for marry- ing the innocent bystander. Save a Lot of Us From It. Another sure cure for senileness (butcher over phone) — Please send me has been discovered. Current steam- ship rates are an excellent preventive.
