ARCADIE SUNDAY AND MONDAY GILL, LOVE FAT MAN? SURE THING! ASK (FATTY) ARBUCKLE.

Roscoe (Fatty) Arbuckle smashes the old saying that "nobody loves a fat man," in his new Paramount starring vehicle, "The Traveling Salesman," which comes to the Arcadie Theatre Sunday.

In this picture, which is adapted from James Fenimore Cooper's novel, the famous cowboy is the central figure of a love romance and weds the girl in the story, after he had saved her property from the schemes of the unscrupulous villains.

It is interesting to note that in "The Round-Up" the first Paramount picture in which the comedian starred, he played the part of the fat sheriff. In that picture, the object of his affection refused to take his love-making seriously and Fatty ends the picture with the statement: "Oh, what's the use? Nobody loves a fat man!"

Betty Ross Clark is the girl in the new picture and Frank Holland, Wilton Taylor, Lucille Ward, Jim Blackwell, Richard Wayne and other favorites are also in the cast. Joseph Henabry handled the megaphone and Karl Brown was the cameraman.

PASTIME SUNDAY AND MONDAY

How could she love big Victor Haoul a magnificent brute, but nevertheless an untutored son of the great north woods, as silent and as furious as the storm lashed trees in whose shelter he made his home?

Yvonne Fontaine, daughter of the fur exporter and the actor partner of Victor, returned from Paris with this in her mind. She had studied at the best continental schools and was a prize to which the gazes of three continents aspired. He realized this when he came into St. Ignace to see her.

With a strange fury he rushed out into the night with murder in his heart. He returned an hour later to find Fontaine near death. Someone attacked Fontaine and Victor's mighty fists were streaked with blood.

Was he guilty? Then why did the girl go alone into the forest to head off the posse that pursued him and why did she risk her life to save him?

Those questions are to be answered here Sunday when "The Magnificent Brute" is shown with Frank Mayo in the role of Victor Haoul.

The production is a Universal screen offering. It was written by Malcolm Stuart Boylan. Robert Thornby directed it in the north woods and at Universal City. An excellent cast supports Mayo.

ALTA SUNDAY AND MONDAY WANDA HAWLEY PLEASES IN CLEAN COMEDY HIT

A situation that has occurred to thousands of married couples is unfolded in "The House That Jazz Built," the new Reelart picture which opens at the Alta Theatre Sunday. This comedy treats of domestic discord in a clever, entertaining manner that carries unusual appeal—and accomplishes the showman's desire of "sending 'em away with a laugh."

We see a young couple starting out on their married life, poor, hustling, and thoroughly happy. The wife is a splendid little home-maker and a real help-mate. Then the husband gets a fine position with a huge salary, and then move from their modest suburban bungalow to a luxurious city apartment.

The husband lavishes money upon his wife, insists on servants, and asks only that the wife shall live up to his new position. The result of her enforced idleness and his petting is that in a few years the wife has grown indolent, stout, dull and quite unattractive. The husband begins to awake to the fact that his wife is no longer the ideal.

WILL SEND NO MORE LEPERS TO MOLOKAI

HONOLULU, Hawaii, Aug. 6.—(U. N. S.)—Complete abandonment of the famous Kalaupapa Settlement, Island of Molokai as a leprosy hospital may be effected within the next few years in view of the remarkable results that are being obtained from the use of a new chaulmoogra oil specific, created by Dr. Arthur L. Dean, president of the University of Hawaii, in the treatment of leprosy.

No more patients are being sent to the Kalaupapa Settlement because of the success of the specific, all new cases being treated at the Kalaupapa Hospital, Honolulu, from which patients are often released as cured in less than a year. It has been estimated that within two years from 65 to 75 per cent of the patients at Kalaupapa will have been released as cured. As a number of patients will undoubtedly not desire to leave Molokai, they may be allowed to take up homesteads there.

If present plans materialize, the 450 or 500 newspapermen from forty countries who are coming to Honolulu in October to attend the sessions of the Press Congress of the World, will be taken on a tour of inspection of the settlement and given an opportunity to see what a really modern and efficient institution it is. So impressed were members of the 1921 Hawaiian legislature with the settlement that they granted substantial additional appropriations for it and increased the allowance to and gave other commissions to the patients.

Instead of being benevolent as they once were, when hope for relief seemed unthinkable, the Kalaupapa patients have taken a new lease on life and have the utmost faith in the new specific, looking forward to the day when they will be cured and allowed to return to their homes.

NEW NATIONS SPRING UP ON BALTIC COAST

BY NEWTON C. PARKE (International News Service Staff Correspondent.)

LONDON, Aug. 6.—Come opera states have sprung up along the Baltic shores, the result of the partitioning of the old Russian Empire, according to a special correspondent of the London Observer.

Each of the three baby nations—Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania—is swelling with national pride. Having gained recognition from several big powers they are putting on all the airs of big nations, much after the manner of some Central American republics. All three are spending large sums of money developing "national" operas, because France supports one. Jeweller designers have been called in to design decorations for various military orders suddenly springing up.

Rarely a dozen trains are operated daily in the three states, over a few hundred miles of track. Yet each of the new-born nations has its "Railway Minister," with scores of subordinates. All three have Cabinets modeled along the lines of those administering the affairs of the biggest European powers, with hosts of functionaries.

Every other person traveling the railways is a "diplomat." Even the "White Russian" Government, representing Russian refugees scattered all over Europe, has its staff of diplomats, press bureaus and employes of all sorts. Their expenses are paid by contributions from wealthy adherents of the former Czar, who escaped to the Bolsheviks, and by the issue of memorable varieties of postage stamps.

Some of these stamps would carry a letter or postcard a mile in any country in the world, but they are highly sought after by stamp collectors, hence the governmental revenues. One specimen alone is now quoted at five dollars apiece by London stamp collectors.

An American business man traveling the Baltic nations must suffer endless inconveniences from customs and passport officials at every frontier. Not so with the "diplomats." Equipped with papers from the Lithuanian, Latvian, Estonian, or White Russian Government, they pass customs officials without any question, and it is generally understood that much of the smuggling along the Baltic goes on in this manner.

SOVIET OFFICIAL SAYS SITUATION IS IN HAND

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6.—(U. N. S.)—The state department has received a communication from Soviet Foreign Minister Tchicherin, denying reports of widespread riot and revolts throughout Russia. He stated while the famine in many parts of Russia is serious, the Moscow government has the situation well in hand.

U. S. HAITIAN RULE IS UNDER ATTACK

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6.—(U. P.)—Oswald Villard, a publisher and Horace Knowles, former minister to Santo Domingo, charge that Haitian occupation by the American troops is a "blot on the navy" appeared before the special senate committee investigating the American occupation of Haiti and Santo Domingo. Villard and Knowles charge there was no Haitian trouble before the United States went in, but afterwards the American troops committed inexcusable murders. Naval officers have been called to defend their administration.

PAIGE

The Most Beautiful Car in America

It is Changing Buying Habits

The Paige 6-66 model is a truly great motor car because it represents a great economic achievement. It means maximum motoring qualities at minimum cost.

It means sane, sensible investment value instead of extravagance. Therefore it has changed, and will continue to change, buying habits in the fine car field of America.

You have but to look about you for the evidence. The boulevards tell the story. For more than 25% of our total sales have replaced cars costing from one to three thousand dollars more than the Paige.

In short, the fine car buyer has grown weary of paying "excess fare." He now cuts his investment in half—and gives the undisputed champion of road and track. Think it over.
