A Stern Teacher

There's a teacher shortage in Singapore. So the older boys are pressed into service. Notice the stick in the young teacher's hand. He sees that his pupils escape nothing that he experienced in his younger days. No. No! These aren't pajamas the little shavers are wearing. They just dress that way.

CHILD TRAINING AT HOME

This is No. 43 of the fourth series of articles issued by the National Kindergarten Association, 8 West 46th Street, New York City. They are appearing weekly in these columns.

POSITIVE VERSUS NEGATIVE

By Henrietta W. Brown

We all recall the old alleged incident of the mother who told the child not to put beans up his nose during her absence—how the child received the suggestion as a new play and how the mother, upon her return, found that "the worst had happened." This illustrated the negative mother.

The positive mother employs a different method. In leading her child over a muddy street, she says, "Let us step on all the high places," and they both reach the other side dry-shod.

The negative mother or teacher is so full of "don'ts" that she herself and the little ones under her become mystified and discouraged. It is like constantly knocking down blocks before anything has been built.

The positive educator constructs. A bit of honest praise for something well done builds up within the heart of a little child love for the one who praises, discernment and love of the right, confidence in the good that he can do and a great desire to do another good thing. Such moments of recognition cheer even the grown-ups, and how much more are children helped! The mother says, "My child was generous today in sharing his toys with his visiting cousin," and the child glows with joy at the words, pondering over them. Thus his character is being formed and on the side of good.

Why should mothers and teachers ever fall into the fruitless, negative way when the good fruit is all on the positive side of the fence?

If we are tired or worried, we cannot inspire our children. We ourselves must first seek inspiration and the calm and peace which it brings.

Fruel says: "If you would bind your little one to you, find your own soul to all that is high and true, and let its light shine clear through all you do."

Some people always meet us with a tale of woe and continue to talk news lives. We come away fagged, children talk about the beautiful, exciting part of all about us. We are then able to give something constructive to those we meet, especially to the children, who will surely grow through out a condition and nurture of every little impulse of good springing up within them.

ROGER W. BARSON BY CHARACTER TRAINING. Roger W. Barson, the famous statistician, author of the widely read book, "Conditions of Prosperity," has said: "The great need at the present time is not for more railroads, or for more steamships or more factories or more cities, but for more character. To develop the character, we must start in the home, school and church when the children are young. If there is no kindergarten in your community, the National Kindergarten Association, 8 West 46th Street, N. Y. City, will gladly co-operate with you in an effort to secure one."

SUES FOR LEARNING HE NEVER RECEIVED

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Aug. 6.—(U. N. S.)—The Kentucky Military Institute has filed suit in circuit court here to recover $602 as the balance due on tuition of Robert H. Smith, sixteen, son of Ector H. Smith, Louisville, Ky., broker. Young Smith was expelled from the military school at mid-term. His father declared he will resist payment for schooling which his son did not receive.

WOULD REDUCE ARMY. WASHINGTON, Aug. 6.—(U. P.)—Senator Borah has introduced a resolution providing for the reduction of the army to 200,000.

BOY SCOUTS SEND OUT INVITATION FOR COMPANY

(East Oregonian Special.)

THE THREE LODGE SCOUT CAMP. Aug. 4.—Why not come to Immigrant Springs and put in Sunday with the Boy Scouts? That is the question that two scoutmasters and 22 scouts are asking. The facilities for swimming could not be better, both in the lake and in a fine hole near Meacham, rockberies are to be had, when you find the... But listen, fond parents, big brotins, and sisters! Please don't come empty handed. This is a hungry bunch. We do not need pies and cakes but some substantial food like a slab of breakfast bacon, brined, pork and beans, canned corn or peas. It takes eight cans for a mass of any of these commodities or of fruit. Our food is well prepared and we have had plenty of it so far; that is why we are getting low on some things. And we wish to keep our expenses down to $5.00 per person for the ten days if possible, hence we ask you to visit us but not empty handed.

We are already extending thanks to George D. Peeler of 193 Lincoln, who came this way yesterday and he was not empty handed. He brought the boys a box of apples, enough canned soup for a meal and crackers for the same. Thank you for what you too, are going to bring us, and enjoy us as well as the mountains.

HAYNES CHARACTER CARS

One thousand dollars underpriced! A bold statement, this, yet it is simply the repetition of what thousands of Haynes purchasers have said of the model 47 Haynes seven-passenger touring car. It is an offering that will successfully undergo comparison with car after car costing at least a thousand dollars more.

Look at its full aluminum body—an item of excellence more than worth realizing. Note the famous and powerful Haynes-built motor. Appreciate the advantage of owning a car which is 95 per cent built in the great Haynes factories at Kokomo, under the constant supervision of the Haynes engineers, who possess the accumulated experience of more than a quarter of a century.

Look at the roomy fountain—the wide, deep-upholstered seats, the thoughtful fittings and conveniences. Look at the style of the car itself—the sweeping lines and graceful appearance over all. Then you will understand why there is and has been such a continuing demand for the Haynes—you will not wonder at the fact that the Haynes factories are now running 133 per cent capacity compared with production of previous years.

With all this increased production it is hard for us to keep up with the orders, and we urgently recommend that you inspect the model 47 Haynes touring car at once and make your reservation to be sure of prompt delivery.
