IMMIGRANT BRIDE MAY BE DEPORTED TO TURKEY

WORCHESTER, Mass., Aug. 8.—(C. N. S.)—A conflict between love and his loyalty to America is taking place in the heart of Dickran Shoshian, Worcester ice cream dealer, whose bride, Felor, and her sister, Anosbig Nemanian, are facing deportation to Turkey on the ground that their passports were forged.

Dickran doesn't know just what to do, but he intends to do all in his power to keep his bride here. If the Washington authorities uphold the verdict of Immigration Commissioner Skeffington that the girls be deported, Dickran plans to have his wife come back to America with every legal requirement fulfilled on passports. Meanwhile his attorney has appealed from the decision of Mr. Skeffington. If worst comes to worst and the girls are forced to leave America, Dickran may turn over his business and make the trip with them.

PARENTS NAME THEIR CHILD 'PLEASANT NUT'

TOPEKA, Kan., Aug. 8.—What's in a name?

The department of Vital Statistics of the state of Kansas is commencing to think there is a great deal to interest the public in some names. Some of the names that are sent in to the department with the record of a birth are so "freakish" that it is hard to believe that fond parents actually have "named" their offspring with such queer names.

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—Well furnished apt. house—cheap—Phone 627-J.

Bruno sent in the name of their heir apparent as Noble—Noble Bruno. In another section of the state lived the Nut family. One of its progeny is called Pleasant Nut. Another tot who will have a mighty hard time learning to spell her own name is called Dolores Antoinette Gwendolyn Hippelshamer. The stark brought twins to a family by the name of Gid. The twins drew these names from the "lottery basket"—Adam and Eve. This youngster's "handle," Kiedstow Raengonk, has all of the clerks in the vital statistics department deeply worried. The spelling has stumped several, and the pronunciation—well, it could be more readily ascertained.
