He has just appeared with his string t Bozeman, Mont., and he is coming o Walla Walla and from there to cendleton. He also closed a deal hereby the Happy Canyon managetent will receive a pair of fighting Brahma steers from his stables to ap ear in the night show.

Passion" Pleases Crowds.

The presentation of the film "Pas on," at the Arcade theatre is win ning favorable comment from Pendleton theatre goers. The play follows closely events in French history at the time of Louis the Fifteenth. Negri plays the role of Jeanne Barry, the French milliner who later became court favorite. The stage settings are very beautiful and show a fidelity to detail in depicting the cenes in the French capital.

Glee Club Wants Date.

According to a letter written by Maurice N. Eben, president of the club, the University of Oregon Glee Club wants a date during the Christmas holidays for a concert here. The club will make a tour to Boston durprobable that a concert will be given here. The Commercial Association has been asked to supply the names of any organizations that would spon sor the concert here. Fifteen concording to the president's letter.
