widely read story of that name, and its theme is based upon the heroic exploits of the early Californians who fought as gallantly as they love.

Jack Conway, selected by Universal to direct the production, was careful to stage the picture on the actual locale of the original story and for that purpose used many of the old haciendas which link to modern California to the romantic traditions of the past.

Enacting heroic roles in this picturesque romance will be seen such screen favorites as William E. Lawrence, the leading man, George Periolat, P. J. Lockney, J. J. Lane, Jean Acker, Harvey Clarke and Edward Brady.

ARCADE SUNDAY AND MONDAY WILD GEESSE FLY AS "THE WILD GOOSE" IS FILMED

Was it a good omen when, during the filming of "The Wild Goose" at the Cosmopolitan studio in New York, a flock of wild geese passed over the studio on their flight south, honking merrily. Albert Capellani, the director, says yes, and the result it seems, was the Paramount picture which will be shown at the Arcade theatre Sunday.

There is an old saying among ornithologists that a wild goose never was known to desert its mate and that their devotion endures until death. This theory has been made the basis of a powerful story by Gouverneur Morris, the author, which was further strengthened in the picturization. The theme deals with the marital troubles of a wealthy architect because of his romantic minded wife's infatuation for another man.

The development of the story is rapid and there are numerous dramatic moments that thrill the spectator. Mary MacLaren, is the wife and Holmes E. Herbert the husband. The cast is excellent and it includes such players as Dorothy Bernard, Joseph Smiley, Norman Kerry and Rita Rogan, the remarkable child actress.

ALTA SUNDAY AND MONDAY WANTS NO MORE CROWNS

The head that wears a crown may or may not lie uneasily at night, but

Miss Constance Binney, Reelart star, is willing to take oath that said head aches in the day-time.

In filming "Such a Little Queen," the screen adaptation of channing Pollock's delightful stage romance, Miss Binney was obliged to wear a jewel-encrusted crown which weighed nearly two pounds, in all the court scenes.

In addition to the crown, the diminutive star wore court gowns and regal robes heavier than a soldier's field pack. One of these gowns, also heavily weighed with jewels and tinsel embroidery, had a train more than seven feet long, and whenever Miss Binney moved it was necessary for two pages to accompany her, holding the train.

The end of each day's work in this part of the picture found the star as weary as though she had completed a day of hard physical labor—as indeed she had. She confessed that she was glad when the little queen was deposed and had to flee to America and take a job in a business office, where royal raiment was not needed.

"Such a Little Queen" comes to the Alta Theatre Sunday and Monday.

ARCADE TODAY

If you haven't seen Sydney Chaplin's fine comedy, "King, Queen, Joker," which has made so great a hit at the Arcade theatre this week, you may do so, for the last showings are to be made today. It's a corking comedy, finely produced and well acted.

FIVE THOUSAND INDIANS PLAN TO HOLD POW WOW

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 20.—(I. N. S.)

The marked advance of the Indian in progress and civilization will be illustrated during the four days, August 19 to 22, when several thousand Indians will assemble in convocation at Oak Creek, South Dakota, under the leadership of the Right Rev. Hugh Latimer Burleson, D. D. Episcopal bishop of the district. The Indians will come from points within a radius of several hundred miles, in all sorts of conveyances, making a picturesque procession across the prairie, bearing aloft the banners and crosses of the church of which they are communicants. On the banks of Oak Creek they will erect a city of tepees, in the center of which will be reared an open-air tabernacle for the devotional features of the convocation, which will also include a business meeting, at which they will be addressed by the new federal commissioner of Indian affairs.

The convocation will be wholly religious in character, as distinguished from Frontier Day celebrations and county fair attractions, and is designed to bring together in close communion the Sioux and other tribesmen from the Rosebud and surrounding agencies, who, under the administrations of Bishop Burleson and his predecessors, have made remarkable progress in the ways of Christian civilization. Its special significance at this time lies in the fact that the Centenary of the Missionary Society of the Episcopal church is being celebrated this year; and the meeting will serve to illustrate the advance of the Indian under the contributing influence of the missionary movement during the past hundred years. On August 22 the convocation will terminate, tepees will be struck, and the Indians will follow the trail across the prairie to their peaceful occupations on the farm and in store and shop.

STRIKE THREE!

POPLAR BLUFF, Mo., Aug. 20.—(I. N. S.)—The ball teams are still pulling that Joe Miller joke. A lively game was on here between the "Blues" and "Reds." Members of both teams were black.

"What's the score?" queried a passerby.

"Twenty-three to nothing," replied one of the negroes, "in favor of the other side."

"Getting beat badly, aren't you?" asked the passerby.

"Don't know as how we is," scoffed the negro. "We ain't battad yet."

For Your Abbi Ele,

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 19.—(I. N. S.)—Out of a crowd of 162 motorists alleged traffic violators, only one offered an original excuse for his actions when he appeared in Judge Edward Fleming's court here.

F. C. Mueller, a municipal park golfer, offered the original abbi which "scored" with the court.

"I had one light on my car," Mueller told the court, "because some punk golfer hit my headlight with a mis-directed shot."

"That's good enough to win your discharge," Judge Fleming announced.

Rich penguin and seal colonies have been discovered on Graham Island in the North Pacific.
