The intersection of Jefferson and Jackson streets was the scene of an auto collision Monday afternoon about 5:30 o'clock when a Ford car driven by a man named Hudson ran into a car driven by George D. ## MURDERER CORNERED TURNS GUN ON HIMSELF

CLEVELAND, Aug. 23.—(I. N. S.)—Sylvester Lukarnek, 25 years of age, shot and instantly killed himself in a farmhouse near here when cornered by a squad of police. Lukarnek was wanted for the murder of his wife and the probable fatal wounding of a roomer, John Lenz, at the Lukarnek home on Sunday night.

For half an hour previous to his suicide, Lukarnek held the police at bay and then used the last bullet to end his life.

PICKNICKERS MAKE BOOZE

WESTFIELD, Mass., Aug. 23.—Picnickers here do not carry their home brew with them. They make it on the picnic grounds while you wait. Police officials have discovered that some of the picnickers carried boilers, coils and all the equipment necessary for the manufacture of "home brew" to the picnic grounds, and that the "home-made stuff" was made right on the grounds during the course of the picnic.

HAY FROM NORTHWEST WILL BE SHIPPED TO EASTERN MARKETS

In Selling Hay to Eastern Buyers it is Necessary to Have Supply of First Class Hay.

Hay from the northwest is to be shipped to the eastern seaboard in the near future to take advantage of the higher prices there, according to a recent decision of the trustees of the Northwestern Hay Growers Association who met at Hermiston in the offices of the Oregon Co-operative Hay Growers Association in Hermiston. J. N. Price, who for the past year has been in charge of the Washington Hay Growers Association, has been employed to manage the selling campaign. The development of a heavy shortage of hay upon the eastern seaboard makes it possible for Northwestern hay to be shipped to that market at a very material advance over present local prices. There is felt to be a surplus of hay in the Northwest, although this surplus is by no means considerable.

Buy In Large Lots

L. A. Hunt, manager of the Oregon Association which is composed of Unatilla and Morrow county growers, says that in selling the hay in the east it is necessary to have a large supply of first class hay available. It must be baled in a particular manner says Mr. Hunt and deliveries must be made in large quantities. These factors are combined under the marketing plan of the Northwestern Hay Growers.

Record Is Good

"During the past season," says Mr. Hunt, "the Washington association marketed $200,000.00 worth of hay with a loss of only $500.00. We doubt if any merchant can show a better sales sheet. Present quotations on alfalfa are, choice hay, $14.00 and standard $12.00, f. o. b. shipping point.

"Three thousand tons have already been sold on this basis. A large amount of this will go to British Columbia. The quarantine on hay in Malheur County and in Idaho due to the alfalfa weevil and the heavy crop in Klamath County has made hay prices in these sections very attractive to feeders, and will undoubtedly reduce the amount of feeding in the Butter creek, Stanfield, districts. This with the present Williams Valley hay crop, creates a surplus that can only be relieved by shipment outside the Northwest. The local market seems to be considerably stabilized by the quotations by many local dealers of Association prices."

DIRIGIBLE MAKES TRIAL FLIGHT.

HOWDEN, Eng., Aug. 23.—(A. P.)—The giant dirigible ZR-2, purchased by the United States from Great Britain, is making a trial flight preparatory to its flight across the Atlantic.

WITNESSES SAY

Victim Stopping When Shot.

That Ragains was stooping over slightly at the time he was shot, lifting his shotgun from its resting place outside of the window, is the story concurred in by both Shields and Runyan. They declare that two or three times, Ragains took the shotgun and put it outside of the window and then called on Brunn to fight it out. It was while he was reaching for the gun and pulling it in through the window that he was shot.

"What did Brunn do after he fired the shot?" the witnesses were asked by District Attorney R. I. Keator.

Shields in his reply said: "Joe jumped over the bed and landed on the floor near Louis. First he yelled at me to get the gun, meaning the shotgun Louis had. I heaved it, then put it back when I saw he was dead.

"Louis, old boy, I hated to do it. I wonder when I will ever see you again," is the melodramatic message Brunn is said to have delivered as he stood over the corpse of his former friend.

Autopsy Is Held.

Preceding the inquest yesterday afternoon, an autopsy was conducted by Drs. Frank Hayden and W. D. McNary. The examination was for the purpose of getting a clear definition of the course taken by the bullet which ended Ragains' life. A chemical analysis of the contents of the stomach will be made. No statement of the result of the autopsy was made.

The jurors who heard the testimony included A. H. Cox, S. P. Bowman, Ed Ayvirl, J. P. Murphy, Will Hanson and Charles Bloom.

Runyan, Shields, Roach, Ragains and Brunn were all at the Wright cabin Saturday afternoon, and Shields testified that when he awoke from a sleep he heard the two principals quarrelling, but he declares he was unable to learn the cause of the trouble. Shortly after he was approached by Brunn who wanted to borrow enough money to pay off Ragains, and Shields testified that he made a loan to Brunn of $50 which was then given to Ragains by Brunn.

Returned After Midnight.

Ragains and Roach then left the cabin together, and nothing more was seen of him until after midnight when Shields was awakened by the noise made by the horse. The door was pushed open shortly afterward and in the moonlight, Shields said he saw the barrel of the shotgun thrust into the room. Then followed the arguments that resulted in the tragedy.

Shields rode to the Westgate ranch and notified the sheriff's office of the shooting. It was 2:20 o'clock when he arrived at the ranch, and he said it took him between an hour and one-quarter and an hour and one-half to cover the 11 miles between the Wright cabin and the Westgate ranch. That would make the approximate time of the shooting about 2 o'clock.

He Lost 65 Pounds—She Got Thinner; Both Look Much Better!

It is decidedly beneficial to reduce weight when one is overweight. The decrease is usually followed by great benefit to vital organs, health and often produces a remarkable improvement in appearance, especially when Korein Tablets are taken according to the simple directions.

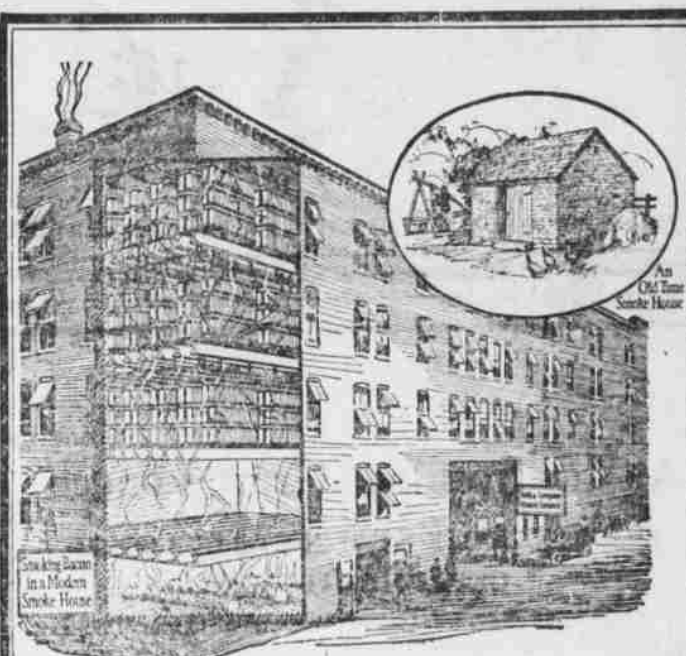

Geo. C. Reynolds, President of the Royal Fellowship, said he reduced 64 pounds this way in four months! Mrs. M. Lamer stated she reduced 60 pounds and that she looks and feels much younger. Alice B. Canale also used Korein and lost what she wished—20 pounds—in less than three weeks.

And so the story goes from one to another about Korein and the easy direction—a seemingly endless chain of reported reductions in weight with wonderful improvement in health, figure and alertness of body and mind. It's the absolutely safe, easy, scientific method of self treatment. The pictures give ideas.

In Earlier Days

In former times, when the town butcher or farmer himself dressed and cured the meat for the community, he could not always tell how it would turn out.

His methods were crude; partly traditional, partly guesswork. His tests were few and inconclusive.

Meat packing of today, as carried on by Swift & Company, has changed all that. It is scientific. Nothing is left to chance; nothing taken for granted.

The most painstaking care and attention are given to every step. Processes are worked out on a large scale with minute exactness. Methods are continually revised and improved. Cleanliness is insisted upon. Drastic, incessant inspections are the order of the day.

Swift products are uniform, graded according to quality.

Take bacon, for instance.

Swift & Company set out years ago to make a delicious, savory bacon which should be uniformly excellent.

The result is Swift's Premium Bacon, always the same, always famously good. Today this bacon, wrapped, sealed and branded, has circled the world.

Swift & Company's system of distribution carries it to places which the "town butcher" or the farmer could not reach.
