Teachers Getting Back.
 Teachers who will teach in the Pendleton schools during this year are beginning to drift back to the city in preparation for their work. Principal A. Lundreth of the high school returned yesterday from Leland Stanford where he studied for 12 weeks during vacation. L. B. Travers, who will be in charge of vocational work arrived yesterday from Portland. He has been director of vocational work at Everett, Wash., for two years. Another arrival is Miss Lloy Norton who will teach the second grade at the Hawthorne school. Many more instructors are expected to arrive today and tomorrow in preparation for the opening day which will be Tuesday, September 6.

Called to La Grande.
 Wesley McCray is in La Grande where he was called by the death of his cousin, Albert McCrary.

Gets Sidewalk Permit.
 An application to construct a cement sidewalk has been made at the office of the city recorder by Kim Morton for property owned by him on Court street.

Reflect Round-Up Spirit
 Additional advertising and publicity for the Round-Up is being given these days by the pictures of the "hook 'em steer" in the windows of the Crawford Furniture Co. J. F. Callahan is responsible for the decorations in the window which add the Round-Up color.

Jack Stanfield Hurt.
 Jack Stanfield, of Echo, who is well known here and who has visited here as the guest of Dr. and Mrs. David H. Hill, sustained injuries recently while swimming at Umatilla. His head was out and his back injured in a dive from the springboard.

Will Sell Ice Cream.
 For the benefit of local relief work, the Salvation Army will sell ice cream and cake tomorrow from 1:30 to 7:30 p. m. at the Salvation Army hall.

Books Are Received.
 Books for the local school districts have been received from the state library at the office of the county superintendent of schools. Distribution of the volumes will be made to the districts either in September or October, according to an announcement today.

Certified Wheat Sold.
 Walter Crosswell, who farms northwest of Pendleton, has some fine pure seed this year. Seventy-five sacks were sold recently to Fred Krausow, of Grass Valley, six sacks to A. H. Guttridge, of Payette, Idaho, and four parcel post sacks of 50 pounds each to W. L. Teusch, of Lake View.

Secretary Fall Expected.
 Albert Fall, secretary of the interior is thought to have passed through Pendleton this morning on his way from Yakima, Washington to Baker. Information received by C. E. Schilling, in charge of the government project at Hermiston was to the effect that the secretary was due in Baker this evening. His presence was unknown to local men.

For Carrying Gun.
 James Done, local man, was arraigned in the court of Justice Joe H. Parkes this afternoon on a charge of carrying without a license a weapon, the size of which would permit it to be concealed. The weapon was a .44 Colts. The gun was secured by Deputy Sheriff E. B. F. Hildgway several days since when he was watching a still to identify the operator. He stopped Done and took the gun from him.

Oil Well Brings Results.
 The Oregon-Montana Oil Co., in which local men have invested a total of $30,000, and which operates five miles southwest of Winnett, Montana, recently touched the cap rock of the first quadrant sands at 2,025 feet and bailed out immense quantities of heavy oil. The well was capped and preparations made to underream. The well will be drilled in two days. Some of the local stock owners are Michael Howland, B. F. DuPuis, James Laing and Dr. J. A. Best.

Plumbing Business Sold.
 The plumbing business of Darr D. Phelps has been sold to Robert L. Jones and Roger Kay, brothers-in-law, who will take over management of the concern October 1. Kay has been in the employ of Phelps for the past nine years and is intimately informed of the business policy on which the success of the present owner has been built. The same policy will be continued by the new owners. Jones is a retired farmer and is well acquainted with Pendleton people. As for the retiring owner, well, he expects to look after his real estate interests. "It will require a lot more golf balls and shotgun shells next year," Darr said today with a smile.

Miss Cowgill Here
 Miss Helen Cowgill, of O. A. C., is here to assist Mrs. Edith G. Van Deusen to make arrangements for the boys and girls' club work contest to be held here during the Northwest Grain and Hay Show. One of the contests is in breadbaking for girls between the ages of 9 and 18. The prizes are to be given for the best loaf of bread baked by the individual and exhibited the morning of September 22 at the high school in Pendleton. All of the bread that is sent in to be judged will be exhibited at the Northwest Grain and Hay Show tent from September 22 to 24. The first prize is $10, the second prize $7.50, the third prize $5.00 and the fourth prize $2.50. The girls are not required to be club members in order to compete in this contest.

Exhibits for Show.
 Today brought promise of a number of exhibits for the Northwest Grain and Hay show to be held here September 19 to 24. F. H. Zentner, county agent, writes from Waterville that his county will make a special exhibit of Rosen rye, a variety developed in Michigan which shows higher yields than other kinds and which in the Big Bend country yielded 29 to 25 bushels more than other varieties. Kharkov wheat, Mr. Zentner says will be shown also. L. R. Bheithaupt, county agent of Malheur county, asks for 25 more premium lists and for more shipping tags. The Gallatin Valley, Montana, growers, will enter three exhibits of wheat and three of oats from the same lots as will be shown at the Montana State Fair. J. J. Willey of Grass Valley, will show a sack of Turkey Red.

GIRLS! LEMONS
 BLEACH SKIN WHITE

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, which any drug store will supply for a few cents, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of harmless and delightful lemon bleach. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day, then shortly note the beauty and whiteness of your skin.

Famous stage beauties use this lemon lotion to bleach and bring that soft clear, rosy-white complexion, also as a freckle, sunburn, and tan bleach because it doesn't irritate.
