coyotes and a bear. Mr. Dobyns is considered one of the best hunters and trappers in the government service and in the west. He has been with the service for six years.

Gets Building Permit
 A permit to remodel his residence at 618 West Court was granted yesterday at the office of the city recorder to A. C. Koepfen. The estimated cost of the work will be $400, according to the application.

To Celebrate Day
 As a part of the festivities that accompany Labor Day, a dance will be given Monday evening at Liberty Hall. G. W. McMurphy is managing the dance and he has secured the services of the Portland "Melody Boys."

Edsel Says "Thank You."
 Robert Simpson received a letter this morning from Edsel B. Ford in which the younger auto magnate acknowledges receipt of a copy of the "Let 'er Buck" book which was sent him by Simpson. An expression of appreciation of the book itself and an interest in the Round-Up are expressed in the letter.

Fire in Gurdane Region.
 A forest fire is raging in the Gurdane region, according to word received by the local office of the Umatilla Forest Service. The fire covered 100 acres and is the largest this year on the forest. R. A. Botcher, deputy forest supervisor, left yesterday for the scene of the conflagration.

Outlines Course of Study
 The outlines for the courses of study to be followed by the schools of the county have been put on the press and will be ready for distribution to the various schools with the beginning of the year's work. These outlines are the work of the county superintendent of schools. Some of the high schools in the county will use them and all of the grade schools.

Return To School
 J. M. Corbellson accompanied his three children to Walla Walla today where they are returning to school and college after spending the vacation here with him and relatives. Miss Ruth Purdy also made the trip with them. Miss Esther Corbellson will enter Whitman as a freshman this year. Mary Jane is a senior in high school and Purdy is in the eighth grade.

To Stage Contest.
 In order to welcome back members who have been on vacations or have been out of town or who possibly may have been fishing on Sundays, beginning at the Christian church there will be special numbers by A. W. Lundell's orchestra of 28 pieces. The orchestra will play in front of the church before the services begin, and they will also have a part in the music program which will be a feature of the Bible school services. The event marks the beginning of a fall rally. The standard of attendance Sunday is 250.

Show Will Be Large.
 The Hermiston Dairy and Hog Show will be larger this year than ever before, says Bernard Mainwaring, editor of the Hermiston Herald, who is here today. The show, which will be held October 7 and 8, will include in addition to the usual features, horse races, dancing and other entertainment. This year the entire show will be on the grounds, says Mr. Mainwaring. A new feature this year will be prizes for horses in addition to prizes for dairy cattle and hogs. The prize fund totals $1500. Mr. Mainwaring is housing also for the Hermiston Field Day, to be held next Saturday, at the Hermiston experiment station. Baiting is to be stressed. There will be talks by C. L. Hawley, dairy and food commissioner, P. M. Brandt, of the O. A. C. dairy department, and by Senator Walter Pierce.

'RAMBLING JIM' IN FINE RAGE TO STAGE FIGHT AT NIGHT SHOW

Bellows of defiance and challenge have been issued by "Rambling Jim" and the management of Benny Campers. It is right now waiting for the bell to be answered by some fighting son of Oregon, or of any other state in the West for that matter.

"Rambling Jim" is a big red steer, and he is being "groomed" as one of the most promising attractions for the night show. Bert Whitman discovered "big 'Rambling'"; and the son of the wild is being carefully restrained in the corral of the Pendleton Meat Co.

The big boy weighs 1,450 and is a four-year-old lonchorn who escaped shipment last year on account of his wildness. He will be used for a steer-baiting act at the night show. His weight, coupled with a bad disposition, will make him a wicked opponent in the arena. Yesterday, when a red fox was flaunted before his eyes, he knocked impenetrable slivers from the heavy corral fence, threw dirt over his back and bellowed with rage. He is being baited every day. Jim Sturgis and Bob Simpson taking turns teasing the big brute from behind the fence, and by Round-up time, it is expected that he will be in fettle to give an exciting account of himself.

No Sale in the past five or six years is comparable—From the standpoint of price—with this event

Big Savings to You

It is hard to tell in simple facts the story of this sale without seeming to exaggerate. Fifty The and Dollars' Worth of furs placed on sale at prices that are lowest in years. Because one of the largest manufacturers of High Grade Furs consigned to us for a two days' sale Tuesday and Wednesday, "The Finest Furs Nature Produces," which means the best furs on today's market in America.

A special representative from the manufacturer accompanies this consignment. He will be with us for the two days, and it will be his pleasure to give his expert opinion on any piece of fur that you may be interested in.

If you've been waiting through the past seasons for lowered prices before investing in a new Fur—this is the time for your investment. Here are the loveliest and most luxurious pelts to be found, developed in the smartest fall and winter models. Every new and intriguing whim of fashion—the flaring coat, the Tuxedo front wrap, the Mandarin sleeve with new turn-back cuff or bell finish; some belted with fur; coats where lovely furs contrast, each making the other more beautiful, and lined with soft Jacquard crepe, lustrous satins, in new gorgeous weaves—all these and more you'll find in this marvelous collection.

Coats of Hudson Seal, Natural Squirrel, Scotch Mole, Raccoon, Natural Rat, Genuine and Jap Mink and Marmot in 36, 45 and 47 inch lengths, trimmed in Fox, Beaver, Kolinsky Skunk, Squirrel, Mink and self-trimmed.
