LEAGUE OF NATIONS ASSEMBLY MEETING WILL FACE MANY IMPORTANT PROBLEMS

46 FLOATS IN PARADE TODAY AT LA GRANDE

Pendleton Band Led Section Representing Fraternal Orders; 3 Bands Present.

SPORTS AND SPEAKING FEATURE THE AFTERNOON

Ball Game Between Cove and La Grande Scheduled for Afternoon; Fight Tonight.

LA GRANDE, Sept. 5.—(East Oregonian Staff Correspondence.)—The chief feature of the big joint Labor Day celebration during the forenoon was a combined industrial, fraternal and commercial parade, starting at 10 o'clock.

Immediately following the parade John Spallard of Oklahoma made an address which was followed by an address by Miss Freeman on the subject of cooperative stores.

The Pendleton delegation during the forenoon was not as large as anticipated but more people are arriving. Baker has a larger delegation in attendance than has Pendleton.

The Pendleton family of Labor Day parade is every day today, and dressed in holiday attire, joined in the observance of Labor Day, held at La Grande where Baker, La Grande and Pendleton cooperated in the staging of a monster celebration.

By motor and train the crowds of men and women made their way to the neighboring city, the exodus starting Sunday afternoon when the Pendleton band and Miss Gertrude Jones, "Labor's Queen," left.

About 30 carloads of people left early this morning, and on the O. W. R. & N. was also well crowded both with representatives of labor and with townpeople bent on having a part in the good time.

Business was almost totally suspended in Pendleton in honor of the holiday, and merchants and their employees took advantage of the rest to take trips into the hills where hunting was enjoyed by many.

MILDRED ROGERS WINS CRAWFORD LAMP DRAW

So big a crowd that the city streets were too narrow to hold it congregated Saturday afternoon in front of the Crawford Furniture store for the drawing for the floor lamp and to see the contests which were staged for boys.

The floor lamp, valued at $75, was won by Miss Mildred Rogers, her number being the fourth one called.

Others in line and who will make their beds on Alta tonight are John Bowman and Allen Carden. More will probably join the ranks today.
