CHICAGO WHEAT MARKET CONTINUES IN STRENGTH

With September wheat closing at the same figure as Saturday, December a cent higher and May a cent and a half higher than Saturday's market, the closing quotations in the Chicago grain market today are: September $1.26 1/2, December $1.29 1/2 and May $1.34.

Following are the quotations received by Overbeck & Cooke, local brokers:

	Open	High	Low	Close
Sept.	1.25	1.30	1.26 1/2	1.26 1/2
Dec.	1.30	1.31 1/2	1.29 1/2	1.29 1/2
May	1.34 1/2	1.36 1/2	1.34	1.34

	Open	High	Low	Close
Sept.	.54 1/2	.55	.53 1/2	.53 1/2
Dec.	.54 1/2	.55 1/2	.54	.54 1/2
May	.59	.60	.58 1/2	.59

Wheat—The advance scored early in the day apparently was very attractive to loans and the market thereafter was compelled to absorb a large amount of selling in the form of liquidation shortly before the posting of the visible supply figures showing an increase of over four million bushels precipitated a considerable selling, and a further decline. The news was somewhat mixed but that in favor of higher prices appeared to be of greater momentum. The most conspicuous news step being the announcement that the War Financial Corporation has virtually completed plans to advance one billion dollars to the agricultural and live stock interests. Strange enough the Chicago cash market reported easy with premiums from one to four cents lower, while Minneapolis where the receipts are now the heaviest of any position in the country, cash prices were strong and the basis about two cents better than Saturday's. This feature is significant in that it emphasizes that the big movement is being taken. The sensational rise in the cotton market recently has created a great deal more confidence in the country and as the wheat situation admittedly is bullish would not be surprised to see some occurrence in the wheat market.

Seattle cash—Hard white $1.12, Soft white $1.13, Club $1.13, Hard winter $1.13, Northern spring $1.12.

Portland cash—Hard white $1.12, Soft white $1.13, Club $1.13, Hard winter $1.13, Northern spring $1.12.

The following varieties of wheat are recommended by the O. A. C. Experiment Station because they have been found to yield well: Western Oregon—White winter, Pink, Poise or red chaff, and Kinney less highly; Eastern Oregon dry lands—Turkey red and hybrid 125; Eastern Oregon irrigated lands—Hybrid 125, forty fold, and on some rich soils where water conditions are very severe, Turkey red. These lots contain no seven-headed, wild goose, mummy, miracle, or wonder or super wheats, as these have failed in actual trial to yield well in Oregon.

ADDITIONAL EXHIBITS ARE ASSURED FOR THE HAY AND GRAIN SHOW

Dayton County Agent Asks for Reservation of 25 Feet of Space for Columbia County.

Today brought many assurances of additional exhibits for the Northwest Grain and Hay Show to be held here September 19 to 24.

J. M. Lewis of Dayton, county agent, asks that 25 feet of space be reserved for the Columbia county exhibit. The county makes a specialty of Triplet wheat and has arranged to have the Sperry Mills at Spokane grind the wheat and determine the different gluten contents. These will be demonstrated in loaves of bread at the show. Ten Triplet wheat out-yields the Hybrid 125 in most localities. F. S. Carl is the only Umatilla county farmer who grows the variety. It tested, on a small acreage, 62 pounds to the bushel, the average test being under 60.

Jenkins in Exhibit. Latah county, Idaho, will send an exhibit of Jenkins Club. Umatilla county first received the Jenkins Club seed from Latah county and the two will now compete for honors in this vicinity.

The Sherman county experiment station, under the direction of D. E. Stephens, will show mounded samples of the 288 commercially grown wheats of the United States. These samples will be shown also. The station, which is at Moro, grows every variety some of the new ones showing great rust resistance. An increase of seed permits demonstration, and some seed shown at the exhibit here will be available for Umatilla county growers.

Federation Wheat Interests. Of the newer varieties, Federation, an Australian wheat, will interest those who attend the show, says Fred Pennion, secretary of the show association. It is this variety that is grown by Otto Reiman and Ray Ward, county farmers, and is adapted to heavier lands.

Other interesting varieties include the Kanred, famous rust resistant wheat, and Black Chaff Turkey. There will also be showings of Abruzzi rye, which yields even better than Rosen rye, and Hanchon barley. All these will be in sufficient quantities for demonstration purposes.

FOREST FIRE SPREADS. McGRATH, Minn., Sept. 6.—(A. P.)—According to word received at military headquarters here at noon today the forest fire has reached the lumber yards at White Pine and is lapping over the stores, postoffice and residences.

FORCED FROM HOMES BY FIRE. SOLANA, Minn., Sept. 6.—(A. P.)—Villagers here were forced to flee from their homes when the forest fire reached the edge of the village. Ten firefighters were overcome.

CATTLE MARKET IS STEADY. PORTLAND, Sept. 6.—(A. P.)—Cattle are steady; hogs are 50 to 75 cents higher than yesterday, prime light $11.25 to $11.75, steady to day at yesterday's advance. Sheep are steady. Eggs and butter prices are steady.

TOOK PLUMBER LONG TIME TO GET DRINK

DENVER, Sept. 6.—(U. P.)—Henry Turner, a Denver plumber, left a repair job for 15 minutes to get a drink of water, and returned eight months and 19 days later.

Turner called at the home of Dr. Lillian Pollock, December 6, 1920, to fix a water pipe. At 7:45 o'clock that morning he left to get a drink of water, and told Dr. Pollock he would be back in 15 minutes. At 8 o'clock, the morning of August 16, 1921, Turner showed up at Dr. Pollock's residence and asked where his tools were, as he wanted to complete the job he had just left.

He refused to believe he had been gone eight months, and told physicians that he remembered of being struck on the head by something when he went out for 15 minutes, December 6. The next he remembered, he said, was being in a hospital at Syracuse, N. Y.

Physicians say Turner's case is one of amnesia, although they are puzzled as to how he should remember the repair job when he had forgotten practically everything else.

WOULD SUPPRESS BOOZLE

HONOLULU, Territory of Hawaii, Sept. 6.—(I. N. S.)—Because of the alarming increase of the illicit liquor traffic in Hawaii, particularly among men of the army and navy, and because of the poisonous nature of much of the liquor peddled, Governor Wallace R. Farrington has declared in favor of joining forces with the military authorities in an attempt to suppress the traffic. He favors an educational campaign to show the men how paralysis, blindness, insanity and even death result from the use of bootleg "oholehae," the native liquor.
