TWO BUILDING UNIONS PROTEST AGAINST CUT

Boiling engineers, steamfitters and plumbers quit in many places, stopping all work. Several other unions have accepted the cut.

UMATILLA COUNTY WILL HAVE 100 ENTRIES AT GRAIN AND HAY SHOW

Umatilla county will have 150 entries in the Northwest Grain and Hay Show here September 19 to 24, says Fred Bannion, secretary of the Grain and Hay Show association. One hundred thirty entries have been received and 20 remain in the warehouses.

Mr. Bannion says he has no doubt there are many more exhibits which would make a good showing and he is urging farmers who have not sent in samples to notify him at once. Cleaning and grading of the exhibits is now underway. All parts of the county are represented.

Over half of the exhibits are of Hybrid 128. This is Umatilla county's most popular wheat and many farmers hope to win prize money in this class. There are five Bluestem entries, one each of Red Russian, Quality, Galt, Coppel, Salt Lake Club, Red Five and Hybrid 145. There are two Hard Federation entries, 11 Turkey Red, Seven Jenkins, three Baart, 10 Red Chaff, and nine barley entries.

There are many entries from other Oregon counties, and from Montana, Washington, Idaho, etc., and Mr. Bannion wishes to arrange the county exhibits now so that it will be out of the way before outside entries arrive.

BOARDS STREET CAR AND SHOOT DIVORCED WIFE

DEHAM, Mass., Sept. 9.—(U. P.)—Charles A. Wells shot his wife, Mrs. Anna Wells, and her attorney, Louis Attmeyer, in a crowded street car today. Witnesses say the man boarded the car quietly, shoved through the crowd and commenced shooting. He escaped from the car but his pursuers overpowered him after a fierce fight. Mrs. Wells, divorced from her husband, was on her way with her attorney to make him pay alimony.

BEAUTIFUL DIVORCEE AND MINISTER'S SON SPLIT THEIR FORCES

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 9.—(U. P.)—Arthur Burch and Madalynn Obenchain, held for the murder of Belton Kennedy, apparently split forces. Mrs. Obenchain told the United Press today that Arthur "must paddle his own canoe."

ONE LITTLE WORD CABLED FROM CHINA BRINGS MUCH JOY WHEN IT SAYS BOY

CLEVELAND, O., Sept. 9.—(U. P.)—It was only a word of three letters, cabled from China, but it brought joy and pride to Joseph Schauweker, Cleveland Stock Exchange broker. Incidentally it cost $9, or $4 per letter. The message follows: "Tsin-Tsin, China, July 31, Schauweker-Schofield, Building, Cleveland, O., U. S. A.—Boy." There was no signature. "But I know who it's from—my son-in-law, Captain Thomas Arms, U. S. Infantry, stationed at Tsin-Tsin," Schauweker explained. "I'm a granddaddy."

The Key that Unlocks the Door to Long Living. The men of eighty-five and ninety years of age are not the rotund, well-fed, but thin, spare men, who live on a slender diet. Be as careful as he will, however, a man past middle age will occasionally eat too much or of some article, of food not suited to his constitution, causing indigestion or constipation and will need a dose of Chamberlain's Tablets to move his bowels and invigorate his stomach. When this is done, there is no reason why the average man should not live to a ripe old age.

No Substitute Offered. Say what you will about druggists offering something "just as good" because it pays a better profit, the fact still stands that ninety nine out of a hundred druggists recommend Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy, when the best medicine for diarrhoea is asked for, and do so because they know from what their customers say of it, that it can be depended upon.

A Pronounced Success. The uniform success that has attended the use of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy in the relief and cure of bowel complaints, both for children and adults, has brought it into almost universal use, so that it is practically without a rival and as everyone who has used it knows, it is without an equal.

The Ideal Purgative. As a purgative, Chamberlain's Tablets are the exact thing required. Strong enough for the most robust, mild enough for children. They cause an agreeable movement of the bowels without any of that terrible griping. They are easy and pleasant to take and agreeable in effect.

DEVELOP EMPIRE'S RICHES

and by domestic users, simply from the point of view of economy. "Westward Ho!" In giving consideration to the position of the Northwest in the place in America's present and future, it was predicted by the speaker that in time, the Northwest will be the center of population in the United States. The urge of mankind to emigrate to the west will be blocked by the Pacific, he said, and then, as the population continues to increase, necessity will compel the development of the unlimited resources to take care of the mass of humanity.

Directing his remarks by inference to the Japanese, Dana declared that this rich empire is the last place of expansion offered, and that the control of it will go to the strongest race. "If we don't occupy this land, others will," he said.

County's Position Strong. In commenting on the position of Umatilla county in the readjustment period, the 6,000,000 bushel grain crop is going to be sufficient to put the county back on a basis of normalcy within a short time, according to the speaker's prediction. The dollar received for this year's wheat crop is worth $1.40 of money last year's standard, according to his statement, and $1 before the war was worth $3.40 of last year's money.

Portland is expected to have 24,000 unemployed men in her midst this winter, according to Dana, and plans are being made now to take care of them.

Support For Exposition. The support of the Pendleton Commercial Association for the Atlantic-Pacific Exposition was pledged by unanimous vote on a motion made by Pat Lonergan following Dana's address, and the following telegram was sent to the delegates of the state in conference at Portland by Secretary C. I. Barr:

Pendleton, Ore., Sept. 8. Julius L. Meier, President 1925 Exposition, Municipal Auditorium, Portland.

Following talk by Marshall N. Dana members Pendleton Commercial Club at forum dinner tonight passed unanimous vote endorsing exposition. We appreciate widespread advantages that will result from this enterprise. Put it over and do it right. Pendleton will do its share. Let'er buck. C. I. BARR, Secretary.

Over-Organization Danger. A warning that over-organization is a real danger in the life of a city was voiced by Dana who related something of the experience of Portland in this respect in which the Chamber of Commerce neglected to secure its young men as members with the result that other organizations in great numbers were formed, which eventually threatened the usefulness of the commercial body. He suggested that programs of the organizations be coordinated as carefully as possible, and that not too many things be attempted.

Preliminary to the dinner and the speeches which followed, several selections by a local orchestra were given, and Mrs. Lillian Culey sang a solo and responded with an encore. The three big tables in the room were appropriately decorated with flowers donated by S. H. Forshaw, local florist. President James H. Sturgis presided.

Bannion, county agent. The opportunity to do Umatilla county, as well as the other sections of the Northwest a real service in exploiting its possibilities and agricultural resources can hardly be overestimated, according to Bannion.

Approximately $3,000 of the capital stock needed to make the show possible remains to be subscribed, and a request that Pendleton men get busy and send in their checks for a share or two of stock was urged by President Sturgis in his remarks following Bannion's talk.

"We're mighty busy to have to solicit you men individually," the president said. "Just make that unnecessary by sending your checks to L. C. Scharpf, or to Secretary Barr."

Governor Ben W. Olcott, Mayor Baker struck the keynote of the conference in his welcome to the delegates when he stated that it is only by "enthusiastic cooperation in lofty effort" that states and communities attain prosperity and greatness. The 1925 exposition, he said would do more for the progress of Oregon in the next four years than could be accomplished in 30 years of marking time. The applause which greeted Baker's address left no room for doubt as to the temper of the delegates.

Edward Cookingham, president of the Ladd & Tilton bank, reviewed the history of the world's fair move in Oregon, and lent his hearty endorsement to the project. He was followed by Meier, who presented to the delegates the preliminary work accomplished by the volunteer committee of Portland business men. The committee had succeeded in securing the endorsement of 38 state legislatures for the Oregon exposition, besides the sanction of congress and federal authorization for the invitation of foreign countries to the fair.

Senator McNary Speaks. The forenoon session closed with an address by Senator McNary, who told of the work of the Oregon delegation at Washington in securing congressional endorsement of the 1925 exposition. There was no doubt, McNary stated, that congress would grant a liberal appropriation to the exposition, but the amount granted would depend on the enthusiasm shown for the enterprise by the people of the state.

The conference adjourned at noon for luncheon in the dining room of the Multnomah hotel. Taken For Drive. The room was elaborately decorated under the direction of City Superintendent of Parks, Kiser, and jazz music was furnished by Olsen's orchestra. The afternoon session adjourned at 4:30 and visiting delegates were taken for a drive over the Columbia river highway, and dinner at Crown Point, returning in time for the meeting at the auditorium Thursday night. The auditorium meeting was public and was largely attended. Speeches were made by exposition officials and

WAS BIG SURPRISE TO PORTLAND MAN

After Suffering from Rheumatism Sixteen Years He Gets Rid of It in Six Weeks.

"The way Tanlac fixed me up was about the biggest surprise of my life," said J. N. Edwards, 598 Alvin Ave., Portland, Ore.

"I only took Tanlac six weeks to get the best of rheumatism that had bothered me for sixteen years. The fact of the matter is I had given up hope of ever getting relief and only took Tanlac thinking it might do me some temporary good."

"Actually, it's hard for me to realize that I'm the same man I was a short time ago. Tanlac put my stomach in first class shape, too. I have the appetite of a bear now and never feel the slightest discomfort after eating. I have even been able to stop the use of laxatives that I had been in the habit of taking for years, and I feel good all over. My advice to people with stomach trouble and rheumatism is to take Tanlac and get well."

Tanlac is sold in Pendleton by Thompson's Drug Store and by all leading drug stores everywhere.

a film history of the preliminary work accomplished toward the exposition, prepared by Fred H. Keyser, was shown for the first time. The film recorded the first meeting of the Portland men with whom the dream of the 1925 fair originated, the endorsement of the project by the Oregon state legislature, its endorsement by congress and the signing of the congressional resolution by President Harding.
