

People Here and There

Donald Ross of Pilot Rock was a business visitor here yesterday.

Lawrence Warner is preparing to go to Corvallis where he will enter O. A. C. as a freshman.

Anton J. Vey, one of Umatilla county's prominent sheep growers, accompanied by Mrs. Vey is at the Oregon for a few days, having come from Pendleton on Thursday. — Oregon Journal.

A big crop of apples was found by B. C. Lloyd and Felix Le Marinel, Spokane men, who are at Pendleton after a return from a business trip to Ontario, Idaho. They are here looking after some land interests. — Le Marinel is an old friend of George W. Coutra and family.

Bart Spellman, recently chosen assistant coach for the University of Oregon football team, is in the city today. He is a candy salesman and this is his last trip before taking up his duties at U. of O.

J. P. Walker, clerk of the Woodmen of the World lodge, will leave tonight for a two weeks visit in Portland and nearby towns. Mr. Walker has been in poor health for some time and hopes that the trip will benefit him.

PORTLAND WHEAT PRICES.

NEWS OF THE COUNTY OFFICES AND OFFICERS

Get Marriage License

A license to wed has been issued at the office of the county clerk to Howard Coe, laborer, and Ora Wilson, both of Milton.

Asks Judgment On Loan

A loan of $100 claimed to have been given two years ago is the basis of a suit that has been brought by John Rukvina against John Erickson who seeks judgment for that amount. The plaintiff is represented by Peterson, Bishop and Clark.

No County Fair

A report made by the fair board to the county court yesterday is that a decision has been reached by the board to hold no county fair this year. This action on the part of the board puts the responsibility of spending the fair funds up to the county court, and Judge Schanapp said this afternoon that the funds probably will be distributed to various fairs.

Stole Honey Is Charge

On a charge of stealing a can of honey, Albert Watson and Charles L. Hastings were arraigned in the court of Justice Joe H. Parkes this morning. They entered pleas of not guilty and their trials were set for this afternoon at 3 o'clock. The complainant charges that when he left a bucket of honey on a doorstep to call on another customer the honey was taken. Later a search made by a deputy sheriff disclosed the place where the stolen sweets had been hidden.

a scuffle in the room. They pounded on the door. Arbuckle finally admitted them, they said, and they saw Miss Rappe on the bed, practically nude and partially conscious. They said her clothing was torn, even to her stockings. She was placed in a cold bath, but this did not revive her. She was taken to another room, put in bed and a physician called. She later was taken to a sanitarium where she died. Arbuckle in a telephone conversation with the police last night, denied these statements, saying he was not alone with Miss Rappe at any time, and that his conduct was not objectionable. Arbuckle started by auto early today from Los Angeles to explain. The autopsy revealed Miss Rappe died from congested lungs superinduced by peritonitis. Her stomach is to be analyzed.

"Fatty" Held in Custody.
SA FRANCISCO, Sept. 19.—(A. P.)—Fatty Arbuckle is to be "held in custody" but will not be arrested pending the outcome of the investigation into the death of Miss Rappe, the police announce.

HISTORIC WESTON

Business Is Good.
The Farmers' Bank of Weston has resources of $275,939.81, according to the statement issued at the end of business June 30. Its capital stock is $30,000 with a surplus of $15,000 and net undivided profits of more than $11,000. The officers are J. H. Price, president; G. W. Staggs, vice president; E. M. Smith, cashier; and C. L. Pinkerton, assistant cashier.
Farmers in this vicinity will liquidate their debts in a fair degree, Mr.

Smith told us. Conditions are a good deal as in former years, according to his statement. Some have paid their debts, and some have not. Crops have been good, prices fairly remunerative and conditions for harvesting have been excellent. A majority of farmers have either sold their wheat or are planning to sell soon.

The Weston Commercial Club has a membership of 78 members, but all of them are not active, Mr. Smith declared. The organization as a whole is not functioning, he said, but the best interests of the town are looked after in the nucleus of the club. Frank Price is Weston's representative in the county federation.

Take Pride In Memorial Hall.

Weston has an advantage that is not found in many towns in the county in the big Memorial Hall, built at a cost of $7000 in 1919 and dedicated to her pioneers, soldiers and sailors. The building is used as a community center, and expenses are paid by the picture show which operates one night a week in the summer, and twice a week in winter. A. Hines, one of the six directors in whom management of the hall is vested, has charge of the show end of the hall. A machine that cost $600 is a part of the equipment. Proceeds from the shows pay the expenses of maintenance of the hall.

There is a small tourist park, and it is probable that it will be enlarged before next season to take care of the increasing number of auto visitors.

Much Wheat Shipped.

The annual volume of wheat handled out of Weston every year will average about 350,000 bushels, according to the figures supplied by Frank Price of the Weston Warehouse Co. Other places of business include a brick yard owned by P. T. Harbour and C. F. Nelson; a flour and feed mill, J. K. Lumsden; Weston Mercantile Co., J. H. Williams; H. A. Brandt's general store, and two garages.

Jones and Jones have a hardware and implement store which carries a big stock. In addition to these lines they also do plumbing and tin work, sell fuel and have a small lumber yard.
Weston is in the heart of a farming community, and that means that there are a host of farmers who claim this as a trading center. Some of the men who operate on a large scale are John Bauster, George W. Staggs, S. J. Culley and Joe Key.

On Weston Mountain, besides the culture of potatoes, for which the section is becoming noted all over the west, cattle breeding is also an important industry. Growers cooperate in running their stock on the range under the charge of one ranger. An organization known as the Weston Stock Growers' association takes care of the interests of the individual breeders. J. P. Liguallen is president of the association.

Want Mountain Roads

When the subject of roads is mentioned in Weston, a lot of interest will be manifested immediately. This community is particularly interested in securing good market roads on Reed and Hawley Mountain and also over Weston Mountain. The former road has definitely been included on the program of building for 1922. Grading has already been done over some of the road, and it will be graveled next year.

The Weston Mountain road is considered of even greater importance by Weston than the Reed and Hawley road, because it taps a larger territory, and it will connect with the old Toll-Gate road back to Elgin, Enterprise, Wallowa and other Union county points. A determined effort to secure this much-needed road will be made by Weston.

Children's EYES

Nothing retards the mental growth of a boy or girl more than weak and defective eye-sight.

It is your duty as parents to see that the children's eyes are carefully examined by a competent and reliable specialist, and if there is any defect have glasses made immediately so the child can get the full advantage of this necessary art.
