RECEPTION MUCH ENJOYED

Pendleton teachers were honored last evening at an enjoyable reception at the library club room, for which members of the Pendleton Women's Club were hostesses.

In the receiving line were a number of the new teachers in the local schools, with Mrs. E. T. Wade, Mrs. Fred Zimmerman, Mrs. James Johns, Sr., Mrs. J. R. McCook, Mrs. A. J. Owen, and Mrs. J. F. Robinson, all prominent in club work in Pendleton.

For the program, Mr. and Mrs. Bert McDonald played two charming vi-lin and piano numbers. Mrs. S. H. Forshaw sang pleasingly Caedman's "Land of the Sky Blue Water," and also "Rolling Down the Rio." Rev. George L. Clark, pastor of the Presbyterian church, extended a welcome to the teachers and Miss Edith Isley, a new member of the Pendleton high school faculty, responded. H. E. Inlow, city school superintendent, was another speaker during the evening.

Flows of marigolds and goldenglow made a lovely decoration for the rooms. French marigolds centered the tables at which Mrs. John Halley, Mrs. Gertrude Nash, Miss Della Bush, Mrs. Arthur Frankham, Miss Anna Brown and Mrs. W. R. Wyrick poured. The loaves were cut by Mrs. Willard Bond, Mrs. Casper Woodward, Mrs. L. D. Idleman, Miss Flora Shaw, Miss Eva Hansen and Miss Luella Salling. Assisting in serving were Mrs. William Dale, Mrs. Thomas Hampton, Miss Mary Johns, Mrs. D. L. Johnson, and Mrs. William Wright.

SURPRISE IS GIVEN.

Mrs. Frank Bowman was honored on Thursday afternoon when a group of friends motored to her home at Mission. The affair was in the nature of a surprise and the visitors brought with them asters with which they decorated the house, and also a birthday cake which was served later in the afternoon. Mrs. Bowman was given a handkerchief "shower," music, games and needlework were enjoyed.

The guests, who motored to Mission, were:

Mrs. P. C. Peterson, Mrs. Ella Ross, Mrs. Frank King, Mrs. Lee Brown, Mrs. Otto Nelson, Mrs. E. T. Brown, Mrs. William Anderson, Mrs. Charles Williamson, Mrs. L. E. Twitchel, Mrs. May Powers, Mrs. Jesse McGee, Mrs. Myrtle Farley, Mrs. Dan Bowman, Mrs. Walter Jones and Miss Lizzie Peterson.

IDEAS FOR HOUSEWIVES HOME DEMONSTRATION

- * The child that is 10 per cent below average weight for his height needs a physical examination by a competent physician.
- * Very often a nervous, over active child is improved by longer rest periods and a nourishing diet.
- * Underweight children have not stored material for growth or to withstand disease.
- * A child whose mother excuses underweight with the statement "that it is growing fast" or "that thinness runs in the family," has not so good a chance to improve as the child whose mother set to work to build the little body up to normal.—K. V. L.
