

People Here and There

J. W. Thompson of Cokeville, Wyo., a sheep buyer, is here on business.

F. B. Swanson, a member of the Hermiton school board, was a visitor in Pendleton today.

Buying sheep is the business of V. C. Porter, Ogden Man, who was in Pendleton Saturday en route to Ellensburg, Wash. He will look at a band consisting of several thousand head of Rambouillet ewes on his trip.

NEWS NOTES OF PENDLETON

Fire Season Almost Over
The 1921 fire season is practically over, says R. A. Bottcher, deputy forest supervisor. The heavy frosts will prevent future fires this year, Mr. Bottcher thinks. There is now six inches of snow at Toll Gate, the fall being unusually early this year.

Want Booster Day Visitors.

An invitation to Pendletonians to attend the state fair at Salem on Tuesday, September 27, has been received at the office of the Pendleton Commercial Association from the Salem Chamber. A special program is being prepared for visitors. Stunts will be performed for prizes, a big dinner and a dance are to be given, and there are other attractions on the program.

Mr. Cressy Ill.
G. T. Cressy of the Economy Drug Store, left yesterday for Portland where he will remain for time in the hope of recovering his health. Walter Johnson is taking Mr. Cressy's place at the local store.

Officials in City.
K. P. Cecil, forest examiner and C. M. Allen, telephone engineer, of the Portland Forestry Office, are here today en route home after a visit to Baker. They conferred this morning with J. C. Kuhns, Umatilla forest supervisor.

Jay Walker is Hurt.
The penalty of jay walking was paid by Dan Maxwell, middle aged local laborer today at the intersection of Alta and Main streets when the man was knocked unconscious by a Ford driven by Bernard Potts, tourist, of Waterville, Washington. Potts, coming down Main street and turning to the right on Alta, collided with Maxwell, who was crossing from Tallman's Drug store to the American National Bank corner. Witnesses say the accident was unavoidable. Maxwell was taken to the hospital by Lloyd McElae, who was standing nearby. The man recovered after a few moments and beyond a few bruises and bumps, was unhurt.

Building Underway
The structure which will house the Northwest Grain and Hay Show to be held here September 19 to 24, is now under way and will probably be finished by Thursday night. The sides and ends are of haled hay and the top of canvas, the dimensions being 200 by 70 feet. Sixteen thousand square feet of canvas will be used. Close to 500 exhibits will be shown. Nine entries arrived from the Gallatin Valley, Montana, today. Twenty-five are expected from Morrow county.

UNEMPLOYMENT RIOTS START LIVERPOOL, Sept. 12.—(L. N. R.)—Violent unemployment riots broke out here today. The police charged the rioters repeatedly before order was restored. About 100 arrests were made.

NEWS OF THE COUNTY OFFICES AND OFFICERS

New Teacher Signed
Miss Grace Richmond has been signed to teach in district No. 59, three miles west of Helix.

Two Get Fines.
In the court of Justice Joe H. Parkes this morning, James Brown and D. W. Stephens received fines of $5 each on charges of speeding.

Marriage Licenses.
Licenses to wed have been issued to Louis Francis Stewart, a farmer, and Hazel Bertaha Herr, both of Athena; and to Henry Clay Judd, a wool dealer of Portland, and Vera Violet Temple of Pendleton.

The board of equalization started its sessions this morning to adjust disputes of tax valuation. The board, which consists of the county clerk, county assessor and county judge, will continue in its sessions until all adjustments have been made.

Two Receive Sentences.
Fred Fiske received a sentence of three years in the state penitentiary Saturday. He was charged with larceny by Gallego. W. H. Young was sentenced to serve two years on a charge of securing money under false pretenses. He is alleged to have written a check for two dollars.

Fines Two Charges.
A. Hordt Jr. is facing two charges as a result of his arrest yesterday by deputy sheriffs when a search of his house disclosed the presence of five quarts of bonded whiskey. His trial this morning in the court of Justice Joe H. Parkes on a charge of speeding was continued until this afternoon.

Boundary Board to Meet.
Notices have been sent out of a meeting of the district boundary board meeting which will be held October 5 to consider the enlargement of Union high school district No. 4 at Hermiton. At the same meeting the enlargement of district No. 61 at Stanfield so as to include a part of district No. 5 will also be considered.

School Enrollments Large
Reports received from some of the schools of Umatilla county indicate that the enrollment for this year will exceed last year's by a good margin. At Athena where Miss O. C. Hurdley is superintendent the enrollment exceeds that of last year by a large margin, 171 being in attendance. Stanfield has an enrollment of 291, the report of Supt. Raymond Orth indicates. The Union high school at Pilot Rock has started with 48 pupils enrolled.

Get Still in Mountains
A trip of 75 miles from Pendleton was taken by Deputy Sheriff E. B. F. Ridgway Sunday morning which resulted in the arrest of Jack Hatcher on a charge of operating a still. It was necessary to wade through six inches of snow to get the still and the man. About 200 gallons of mash, hidden in a cave, was found. Hatcher was brought back to Pendleton and lodged in jail. His seat of operations was far back in the wilds on Mill Creek.

Grand Jury Reports.
Indictments were brought in by the grand jury in several cases Saturday. W. H. Young has been indicted on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. A true bill charging larceny was brought in against P. P. Malone, Russell C. Murphy is charged with larceny. It is charged that he stole money and goods from C. P. Peterson. Fred Klohn, George Brandt and Walter Fisher are charged with burglary not in a building, it being alleged that they broke into a box car at Helix. J. B. Edgar and Earl J. Clark are charged with larceny of goods from a store. Other true bills were brought against men who are not in custody, and several not true bills were returned.

We're Ready With the Most Complete and Attractive Stocks of Men's and Young Men's All Wool Fall Suits

We Have Shown in Many Seasons
—and We Invite Your Early Selection!

THE sluice-gates of the purchasing power of the J. C. Penney Company Nationwide chain of 312 department stores have been thrown wide open and men's and young men's clothing values such as have not been presented in a number of years have flooded this popular section of our store.

The newest Fall styles—from the conservatives for men to the fancy models for the young men—are shown in attractive assortments. There is such a diversity of single and double breasted, two and three-button styles as to provide a satisfying selection in every instance.

You will find "just what you want"—both in style and price—if you select your Fall Suit here early. Your pleasure in your purchases from us will be our pleasure in serving you.

Men's Serviceable Suits of Cassimere and Worsted
$24.75 $27.50 $34.75

The values are particularly pronounced because of the superior quality fabrics.

THE unusual worth of the splendid all-wool cassimere and worsted fabrics in our men's suits particularly recommend them to those who demand the greatest wearing service. At the same time, styles are thoroughly in keeping with good taste.

To men who want "the most for their money," our suits abundantly fulfill their requirements. A snappy style for business men is cut conservatively with semi-fitted back. A three-button, single-breasted model with peak lapels, plain pockets with flaps, center vent and full or half mohair lined. Warm and serviceable.

Such popular colors as Oxford gray, dark gray and self stripes, gray Herringbones, plain brown and brown with black stripes, Oxford gray checks, Oxford gray with white stripes, blue serge, etc.

Young Men's Stylish Suits of Cassimere and Unfinished Worsted
$17.50, $24.75, $27.50

Single and double breasted models in smart colors and neat patterns.

THE ESSEX—Swagger single-breasted, two-button model for young men. Cut semi-conservatively, center vent, peak lapels and plain pockets with flaps. One-half mohair lined.

THE BUDD—Same as the ESSEX, except double-breasted.

Cassimere and unfinished worsted are ideal fabrics for young men's suits, as there is a smartness to the textures which admirably lends itself to "appearance" so much sought. The cloth and the workmanship in the suits at the above three popular prices are eminently high standard which always characterizes our clothing.

Choice in gray, brown and green Herringbones, black, green and brown with fancy checks, green with red stripes, brown and green mixtures, blue fancy Herringbone, brown Herringbone with blue stripes, Oxford gray, black or blue with white pla stripes.
