Other members of last year's Pendleton high school graduating class who are reported as intending to enter O. A. C. this fall are John Matheson, Gilbert Struve, Blaine Kennedy and Leo Temple.

Chief Says to Clean Up.
 William Ringold, chief of the Pendleton fire department, is now launching a fall clean-up crusade with the primary purpose of getting rid of all rubbish and dry grass that contains fire menace. The chief does not want to have any fires during the Round-Up if fires may be avoided and accordingly is asking cooperating along the clean up line. He takes the position that to clean away all rubbish at this time will not merely safeguard the city from sporadic fires but will also add much to the appearance of the city while the throng of visitors are here.

Mr. Kirkpatrick has been with the store for a number of years and has considerable experience in this line of work. He will supervise the merchandise displays of the store as well as handling the advertising.

Miss Youell In Office
 Miss Miriam Youell, of Portland, is a new addition to the local office of the Umatilla county Red Cross. Miss Youell, who is a University of Washington girl, is associated with the North-west Red Cross division. In Seattle she did work for the Social Welfare League, the Orthopedic Hospital and the Juvenile Court. She will remain here for two months.

Work Is Finished
 Twenty-three miles of new telephone construction has been completed in the extreme south end of the Wenaha division of the Umatilla national forest, says J. C. Kuhns, supervisor who has just returned after directing the work. The line is from Corporation ranger station to the summit of Mt. Emily, and also the Summit ranger station. It connects with the line extending to Weston.

Will Serve Meals
 The ladies of the First Christian church will serve meals this year, as usual, in the church basement, during the Round-Up. Dinner and supper will be served on each of the three days. Their reputation for quality and high standard as formerly. The women under the leadership of Mrs. Lester Boyd, who is general chairman, have already held a number of meetings and have their arrangements nearly complete. Mrs. S. G. Reetz will have charge of the dining room. A competent committee has charge of the kitchen.

Decorations Put Up.
 Round-Up decorations are fluttering in the breeze today in preparation for the 1931 show. The banners were placed on Court street this morning by Sam Wright, who is in charge and decorations will be placed on other streets during the remainder of the week. The national colors, and Round-Up banners are being used with good effect. The first of the many lunch counters is going up today on Webb street near the Masonic building and is being built by Elliott-Miller. Included in other preparations for the big three day drama is the getting in shape of the stage coaches which will be used for parades and races.

'LENIENCY' TO 'MURDER QUEEN' CHARGED TO JURIST IN KABER CASE BY DAILY LETTER BRIGADE

BY WILLIAM O. HUSKE
 International News Service Staff Maurice Bernon, Judge of the Court of Common Pleas, who presided at the trial of Mrs. Katherine Eva Kaber, beer and skittles—this thing of being "murder queen," now spending her life in a Judge. In fact, it isn't half or even at the Reformatory in the Marysville,

Jap Cops Use Jiu Jitsu

It took several cops to arrest this radical at Uyeno Park Tokyo. But when they clamped the Jiu Jitsu hold on him he went along.

Ohio, for having been the head of a conspiracy which resulted in the death of her husband, Daniel F. Kaber, wealthy publisher, at his suburban home two years ago.

Judge Bernon, who delayed his vacation three weeks to hasten the trial of the "murder queen," has been attempting to rest up for the duties of the fall term at his home on Cleveland Heights, but persons dissatisfied with the verdict rendered and the punishment imposed have been telling the Judge, by letter and telephone, just what they think of him for sending such a person to a "pleasure resort," as the Reformatory has been called, instead of incarcerating her in the Ohio Penitentiary.

"Don't blame me," Talk to the Ohio Legislature," the Judge tells those—and their name is legion—who call him over the telephone.

When a representative of the International News Service called the other day he found the Judge immersed in reading a tremendous pile of mail.

"Look at this stuff," said His Honor. "This is a fair day's sample of what I get, although I believe, as the days pass and distant letter writers are heard from, there is a slight increase," and the judicial hand waved toward a pile of perhaps two hundred letters postmarked from nearly every State in the Union. Yes, and even Canada and Mexico.

"And that's not all. The telephone!"

His Honor was called away by the insistent ringing of the bell of his phone even as he spoke.

"My dear madam," he explained, through Mr. Bell's invention. "No strings were pulled to permit Mrs. Kaber to go to the Reformatory. The State Legislature passed a law in 1915 ordering all female offenders confined in the Marysville Reformatory.

"Yes, they're all sent there. "No, I do not know that it is a "pleasure resort." I have never been there. What's that? A shame? Perhaps it is, but get after the legislators. I can only enforce the laws they write."

The Judge came back to the porch, and continued:

"It's surprising how people blame me for what they call a "misdealing of justice." Mrs. Bernon and I thought to spend a quiet vacation here, but I wish we had gone to the wilds, far away from the telephone and farther away from the mails.

"I do not attempt to answer the letters. There are too many. A few express sympathy for the woman, but the majority feel that undue leniency was shown."

Here the telephone rang once more.
