Steady Tone Maintained
At Portland Yards

(From the Oregon Journal.)
There was a total supply of 22 cars of livestock reported in the North Portland alleys Tuesday, as compared with 9 cars a week ago and 7 cars a year ago. All lines showed a steady tone.

Hogs were in very nominal supply at North Portland Tuesday. Only 79 head were available and those sold within the former range, $12.50 still being the extreme top.

General hog market range:

What Comes After the Purchase Price.

Sir—We know of a place where they sell IT for 25 cents a drink but instead of selling it over the bar the bartender takes you to a little room in the rear. All the furniture I saw in that room was a slab and an instrument in one corner that looked like a pulmometer.

AIRPLANE WRECK DUE TO HIGH HEEL OF SHOES

LONDON, Sept. 14.—(I. N. S.)—How a girl's high-heeled shoe, jamming between the rudder-bar and the wooden guard, caused an aeroplane to crash, with the loss of three lives, was disclosed at the inquest on the pilot of an airplane and a man and a girl passenger who were killed when the machine fell into a yard near the beach of Port Melbourne.

The Superintendent of Airdromes for the Civil Aviation Department stated that his opinion was that the accident was caused by the girl's shoe rendering the rudder useless, thus sending the machine down in a tailspin.
