

People Here and There

Matt Solo is spending a few days at Hot Lake.

John Bananister of Weston transacted business in Pendleton today.

Charlie Bartholemew, prominent rancher of Butter Creek, was here today.

To equip himself for a deer hunt was the purpose of A. B. Atchison, Umatilla man, who was here today.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Davis of Schenectady, N. Y., are registered at the Hotel Pendleton. They will be here until after the Round-Up.

William P. Leach, formerly a resident of Weston, now living in Portland is here as the guest of friends. He will remain over for the Round-Up.

G. M. Rice and R. D. Sayres were among the Pendleton people who motored to Walla Walla yesterday to see the opening of the Frontier Days show.

Conditions with sheep men in Wyoming are gradually improving in a statement of J. W. Thompson, an operator from Cokeville. He will be here until after the Round-Up.

For the past 10 years George Goodman, of Pasco, has been employed here as gatekeeper during the Pendleton Round-Up. He arrived here this morning and will remain until after the big show.

Boosting the Round-Up as a matter of habit and civic pride, W. E. Ferguson of Pendleton is at the Hotel Portland. This year the show, according to Mr. Ferguson, will be better than ever before. If such a thing is possible, and all the latest fashions in bull-dogging will be displayed. The talent for the coming Round-Up promises to be of highest order; the drivers and riders daring, the wild horses actually wild and several thrills a minute are guaranteed. Like everyone who comes from Pendleton, Mr. Ferguson is proud of this municipal show.—Oregonian.

$3000 TAKEN FROM BANK.
EAST STANWOGD, Wash., Sept. 15.—(U. P.)—Bank officials of the Stanwood State Bank announced $3000 loss in cash and negotiable securities when robbers broke into the vault recently.

Memories

"Gerald always thinks of the dearest things to do—and he remembered that Vogan's chocolates are my favorites—such thoughtfulness deserves a nice note of thanks."

"Someone with rare good taste selected these, for there are pecans, brazils, walnuts and hazelnuts—and peaches, cherries and pineapple, in this one box. They are delicious, with rich cream and chocolate."

Dealers throughout the West who carry quality stock, are featuring this distinctive assortment of Vogan's Fruits and Nuts, this month.

Principals To Meet
The principals of the various schools of the county will hold a meeting in the office of the county superintendent of school Saturday morning at 11 o'clock. The meeting has been called for the purpose of outlining the social activities of the schools during the year.

Sue On Notes
Notes said to be past due and unpaid are the basis of suits that have been brought by The Globe Grain and Milling Co. against John Endicott. Judgment to the amount of $1,168 is sought. John H. Brinker and Andy B. Johnson have sued Claude Markham asking $1,104.29. Peterson, Bishop and Clark represent the plaintiffs in both suits.

School Enrollment Heavy
Enrollment in the Milton-Precursor union high school is heavy this year, reports received at the office of the county superintendent show. There are 21 pupils enrolled now. The sessions are being held in the central building in Milton until the new $200,000 building is completed. Work is being rushed on the new high school building at Stanfield, and it will be ready for occupancy within a short time. Calls have been made constantly at the office of the county superintendent of schools for school registers. They can not be supplied yet, due to the fact that the registers have not yet been received from the state.

MANY WESTERN OREGON PEOPLE TO ATTEND SHOW

The opening of the Columbia highway from Portland to Pendleton; the Oregon Journal Special; and the way which Portland has received the Round-Up publicity campaign; all of these things mean a larger crowd of Multnomah folk at the big annual wild westerner than ever before, is the prediction of Arthur Rudd, who has spent the last few days in the Rose City in the interests of the Pendleton show.

Speaking at the Progressive Business Men's luncheon Thursday noon, the publicity worker told the members of that organization that Portland was recognized as a big factor in making the Round-Up a complete success and that Pendleton extended the heartiest invitation to the Portlanders to attend the world's greatest wild west exhibition.

While in Portland Rudd conferred with Dorsey E. Smith, who has charge of the Journal Special train and also a group of newspaper men of that city. As a result the Round-Up has received wide publicity in all four of the Portland papers. Mr. Smith reports that people are a little slow in making reservations this year but that he expects a big last minute rush.

The campaign in Portland will practically close the field work of the publicity man for the summer. He will return to Pendleton to work during the Round-Up.

TO SOUND OUT

The state has agreed to assist in finishing the graveling.

"We have had to use the market road money and some money from the general fund in order to get the work done," the commissioner explained, "but we have succeeded. The trouble was that our money proved to be insufficient for the high costs which we encountered."

Keen interest was disclosed in the McKay Creek project in a discussion which drew comment from practically every representative present. E. P. Dodd, Hermiston representative, declared that A. P. Davis, head of the Reclamation Service, during his recent visit to the west end of the county said that he thought the site for the dam could be purchased this fall, and that construction could be started next year some time. Criticisms of the failure of Oregon's delegation at Washington to secure an appropriation for the project was voiced freely.

An invitation to Senators McNary and Stanfield and to Representative McArthur to come to Pendleton within the next few days to meet with the county federation to discuss the McKay Creek project was authorized last night. An effort to get the members of the delegation now at home together with county representatives will be made. The time of holding the meeting will depend on the convenience of the senators and Representative McArthur.

A report by Secretary C. I. Barr on the progress that has been made in the preliminary work on the county booklet was given, and a decision to have each organization fill out a questionnaire in regard to the chief advertising features of its community was accepted. Photographs of scenes of interest will be taken the week following the Round-Up.

The homeseekers from the Middle West will arrive Monday, Sept. 26, and arrangements were made last night to have accommodations for these men.

DYED HER DRAPERIES AND A FADED SKIRT

"Diamond Dyes" add years of wear to worn, faded skirts, waists, sweaters, sweaters, coverings, hangings, draperies, everything. Every package contains directions so simple any woman can put new, rich, fadeless color into her worn garments or draperies even if she has never dyed before. Just buy Diamond Dyes—no other kind—then your material will come out right, because Diamond Dyes are guaranteed not to streak, spot, fade, or run. Tell your druggist whether the material you wish to dye is wool or silk, or whether it is linen, cotton, or mixed goods.

Every commercial organization in the federation with the exception of Athena was represented in the meeting last night. President Zuercher will call another meeting as soon as the various organizations are ready to report the attitude of their communities on the road program.

Those in attendance were Fred George, Echo; J. H. Price, Weston; W. O. Staver, Pilot Rock; C. S. Chesire, Milton; R. B. Bean, Freewater; E. P. Dodd, Hermiston; F. M. Gast, Umatilla; A. C. McIntyre, Helix; J. D. Zuercher, Stanfield; and E. B. Aldrich, substituting for L. C. Scharpf, Pendleton. Others not official delegates who attended were S. J. Culley and S. A. Barnes, Weston, and David H. Nelson.

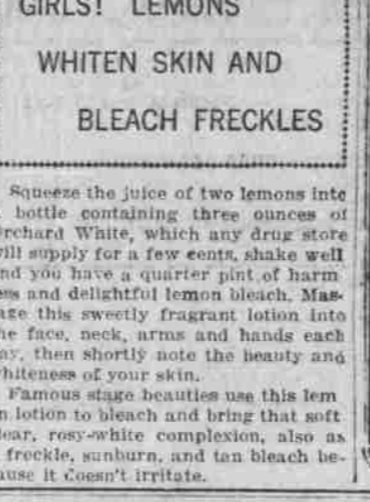

GIRLS! LEMONS WHITEN SKIN AND BLEACH FRECKLES

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Grechard White, which any drug store will supply for a few cents, shake well and you have a quarter pint of harmless and delightful lemon bleach. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day, then shortly note the beauty and whiteness of your skin.

Famous stage beauties use this lemon lotion to bleach and bring that soft clear, rosy-white complexion, also as a freckle, sunburn, and tan bleach because it doesn't irritate.
