Harry Leedy, formerly in business here, has leased a building in La-

Grande and will soon be ready to open a store in the neighboring city. He will have a cigar and tobacco store, and a billiard room and a fountain will be run in conjunction with the tobacco business.

Youths round Gully.

Mora Johnson, Herman Lewis and Glen Stout were found guilty on a charge of gambling this morning in police court, and they received fines of $25 or 15 days in jail. J. R. Mason and Lynn Kallit were found not guilty. The men were arrested by the police last night. Fred Gebhart received a $10 or five days sentence, and he is in jail. He had on a happy drunk, according to the charges.

Quintan Receives Ticket Orders.

Secretary Frank Quintan of Pendleton's chapter of the Elks lodge, has received a number of requests from out-of-town people who are planning to attend the Round-Up. Twenty tickets have been requested and sent for a party at Colton, Wash. The Washingtonians will be here all three days for the Round-Up and they also have reservations made for Happy Canyon. Another party, all of whom are "Ellie" will come from Eureka lodge near Crescent, Calif. There are eight reservations made for this party.

Called by Illness.

Mrs. Corn Sevy left today for Seattle, where she was called by the illness of her father, Charles Niles.

Lawrence Woodworth left today for Eugene where he will resume his studies at University of Oregon. He will be a senior this year.

They are: "Under the Double Eagle," march; "Waltz," "A Little Melody," Henri C. Lebel; "Wang Wang Blues," arranged by Lebel, and "Light Cavalry Overture," by Suppe.

To Remain in Retail Business.

The sale of Ross Carney's interest in the Pendleton Meat Company to Charles Greulich does not mean that Mr. Carney is out of the meat business in Pendleton, a statement from him today indicates. He still retains his interest in the Pendleton Trading Co. where he will be in the retail end of the game. The company will be in the market for livestock, he states.

Coming from New Zealand.

Even from far away New Zealand people will come this year to see the best show that has ever been staged by the Pendleton Round-Up. A request for reservation for all three days and for Happy Canyon was received in a telegram at the Commercial Association office this morning from F. J. White, Spokane hotel man. The New Zealanders, on a tour of the Northwest, expressed interest in the show with the result that they were directed here. They will arrive Tuesday.

Land Is Sold.

Reservation land which a year ago sold for $250 an acre—high payment, now finds few buyers at $175 an acre, three year payments, says Major E. L. Swartzlander, superintendent of the Umatilla Indian Agency. An indication of the decrease in demand is shown in the Indian land sales yesterday, but four of the 15 tracts being sold. Those who purchased were Mrs. John Hendrickson, of McKay, 80 acres at $2300; Peter Hong, of Cabage Hill, 40 acres for $1600; M. S. Umbarger, 80 acres near the Presbyterian church, $1,767; Judge James A. Fee of Pendleton, 40 acres for $4,500, about a mile beyond the Presbyterian church.
