

People Here and There

Mr. Elliott rode his fine saddle down from Adams yesterday and will remain until after the Round-Up.

J. C. Lonergan, a veteran buyer who has bought cattle in Umatilla county for many years, was a visitor here today.

F. W. Falconer has returned from Portland where he went recently on a business trip. A more optimistic feeling among business men is easily discernible there, he reports.

"Towns certainly have to get up and go some if they expect to compete with Pendleton," is what John Mc-Nerney of Walla Walla, has to say. He is here on a business trip and is looking after some property which he owns in Pendleton.

Happiness was the lot of Jimmie Chardson, manager of athletics of A. C. who was here yesterday. Accompanied by his wife he has just returned from a successful fishing trip to the mountains.

Charles Playle of La Grande and guest, F. L. Garland of Texas, are business visitors in Pendleton this week.

V. H. Bishop of the Indian agency, today for Portland where he will visit his son, Perno Bishop and family who are coming from their home in California for a visit.

HERMISTON REBEKAHS CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY

(East Oregonian Special.)

HERMISTON, Sept. 17.—The Rebekahs celebrated the 70th anniversary of the founding of their order Friday evening. The guests included members of the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs and their families. Refreshments followed the program.

A music festival was given at the Baptist church Thursday evening. Those appearing upon the program were Misses Helen and Pauline Pelouider, Mrs. E. V. Ashmun, Miss Emilie Shotwell, A. C. Vetter, Otto Sappier, Henry Sheldedy, and Mrs. W. A. Correll.

Episcopal services were held here by Dr. Van Waters Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sullivan and daughter Maxine and Mrs. A. D. Jones and daughter Shirley, all of Portland are visiting at the P. P. Sullivan home.

George Wagner is the proprietor of a new cleaning and pressing shop which opened for business here this week. He has leased the building which was until a few weeks ago occupied by the Ogden Jewelry Store.

R. Alexander of Pendleton was in town this week visiting his daughter and attending the meeting of the board of directors of the First National bank.

J. A. Reeves and Merrill Potter are among the lucky hunters who have bagged deer since the season opened.

Miss Emilie Shotwell is leaving next Wednesday for Walla Walla where she will resume her work at Whitman college.

C. E. Baker, a former Pendleton man, is furnishing a carload of the hay which will be used in erecting the hay and grain show building.

Miss Laura Phipps will leave here soon to enter Whitman.

Hermiston high school will again have a football team this year, and is trying to arrange games with neighboring towns. It is hoped that a game may be arranged to be played during the Dairy and Hog Show October 7 and 8. Arnold Graylapp is coaching the team.

Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Agnew are planning to leave here in a few weeks. They will locate in Seattle. Mr. and Mrs. Agnew have lived on the project 16 years.

Many people from here attended the Boardman fair this week and all spoke highly of the exhibits.

The premium list of the Hermiston Dairy and Hog show will be ready for distribution within the next few days.

Work is progressing rapidly on the telephone building which the company is remodeling to permit moving its office from the second floor to the first floor. The entire front end will be rebuilt and will be equipped with modern show windows. The effect will be to improve greatly the appearance of the building as well as to make the office more accessible to the public.

Commission Sues Contractors.

A suit with the State Industrial Accident Commission as plaintiff has been filed in circuit court against Ed. E. Geist and Walter Geist, doing business as Geist Bros. It is charged in the complaint that the construction company employed a force of men to lay pipes during the summer of 1920 and the winter of 1920-21 and that the three per cent of the amount paid in wages as well as one cent a day for each sired man which goes to the commission has not been paid. Judgment to the extent of $188.19 is sought.

Alleges Cruel Treatment.

A suit for divorce has been instituted in circuit court by Dora Strelesky against Albert Strelesky. Charges of cruel and inhuman treatment is given as the reason for the complaint. The plaintiff alleges that the defendant, who is an inspector for the O. W. R. & N., drinks and that he has on several occasions beaten her. She also charges that the defendant while drunk drove his car off of a grade near Athena and that she was severely injured as a result of the accident. Gross alimony of $2500 and alimony of $50 a month and custody of a minor child are sought by the plaintiff. Fees and fees represent the plaintiff.

AERIAL FOREST PATROL IS BEING DISBANDED

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—(I. N. S.)—The Secretary of War, because of lack of funds, has announced that the Aerial Forest Patrol will be discontinued at the close of the present season.

The Aerial Forest Patrol was established in 1919. In 1921 twenty-nine planes were lent by the Army Air Service to the Forestry Service for duty in the Pacific Coast States.

These few planes, the operating of which was regarded by Air Service officers as part of the necessary expense of keeping units in training, in two and a half months in 1920 saved from destruction by fire standing timber valued in excess of $35,000,000, or considerably more than the entire appropriation that year for the air defenses of the United States.

The work of the Aerial Forest Patrol has been one of the most distinctively constructive achievements growing out of the post-war adaptation of aircraft to peace-time uses according to the Aircraft Year Book for 1921. In 1920 the twenty-nine planes in the service patrolled more than six and one-quarter million square miles of national and private forests on the Pacific Coast. They discovered and accurately located between 500 and 1,000 fires, and through this remarkable performance attracted the attention of conservationists in all parts of the country and led the Canadian government and timber corporations to establish the foundation for similar services.

The Department of Agriculture, which has no specific appropriation covering the aerial patrol, reports that the entire forest area in the United States covers 463,000,000 acres, and that this region is being burned over at the rate of 10,000,000 acres yearly. Reforestation requires a minimum of twenty years.

HIGH COST OF LIVING CONTINUES TO INCREASE

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—(U. P.)—An upward movement in food prices is under way, according to figures of the department of labor. Retail costs increased 4 3-10 percent in August, compared with July, the department announced. The cost is still under 1920.

IDEAS FOR HOUSEWIVES

H O M E DEMONSTRATION

By the use of the oven and the fireless cooker, delicious meals of moderate or low price may be prepared. The fireless cooker is the ideal means of preparing cereal and vegetable foods and cooking lower-priced cuts of meat. Many people think they are indispensable. In families where there are small children the people are busy and cannot give much attention and time to the cooking of the meals. After the food has been put into the fireless cooker, it demands little or no attention until ready to serve, because it will not stick or burn, no matter how long it remains in the cooker. This makes it possible for one to prepare the major part of the dinner in the morning and go away and leave it cooking all day and have merely the finishing touches to do before serving.

Many foods, as scalloped vegetables, meat, fish, baked cereal, puddings, etc., may be first cooked in the fireless cooker and finished as a scalloped or baked dish in the oven. Many of the stoves have not only an insulated fireless cooker oven, but also have a fireless cooker attachment on top of the stove.—E. V. D.

UMATILLA RAPIDS EXECUTIVE BOARD TO MEET FRIDAY

Directors Will Consider Report of John H. Lewis Which Will be Submitted.

The executive committee of the Umatilla rapids powerite association will meet here next Friday forenoon to consider the engineering report prepared by John H. Lewis in co-operation with the state engineers of Oregon and Washington. Mr. Lewis is to be here himself at that time to explain the report and Whitney L. Bolse will also be in attendance from Portland. It is believed nearly the entire membership of the executive committee will come as the members expressed a desire to get together here during the Round-Up. Judge Phelps, chairman of the association had offered to call the meeting either for Portland or Pendleton and the committee favored a session here.
