Mrs. WAGNER of PALM BEACH

Tells Girls How She Found Relief From Pain

West Palm Beach, Fla.—"When I was 19 years old I was irregular and I suffered from some terrible cramps it felt like a knife going through me. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I was cured. After I was married I had the same trouble caused by the added work of farming and heavy washings so I told my husband to get six bottles of the Vegetable Compound and by taking it regularly my troubles ceased and now I never have a pain or ache, and am regular. I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and think every young girl should take it. You can publish this letter and it may be the means of helping some other girl or woman."

—Mrs. MARY M. WAGNER, Box 769, West Palm Beach, Florida.

While no woman is entirely free from periodic suffering it does not seem to be the sign of nature that woman should suffer so severely and when pain exists something is wrong which should be set right. Every girl who suffers from monthly cramps should give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial.

BOARDMAN COMMUNITY CHURCH STAGE PLAY

(East Oregonian Special.) BOARDMAN, Sept. 15.—The ladies of the Community Church staged a very popular entertainment in the school auditorium on Friday night offering "The Spinsters' Convention."

The chairman of the convention was Josephine Jane Green, president of the Young Ladies' Society of Singular Blessedness—Mrs. Wicklander. Priscilla Abigail Hodge, secretary—Mrs. Boardman. Calamity Jane Higgins, treasurer—Mrs. Margaret Cramer. Rebecca Rachel Sharpe, an artistic dresser—Mrs. Heriott. Tiny Short, (very tall)—Mrs. Stewart.

Mary Ann Fradler—Mrs. Dewees. Jerusha Matilda Spriggins—Mrs. Finell. Patience Desire Mann—Mrs. Crawford. Sophie Stuck-up—Mrs. Klitz. Juliet Long, (short lady)—Eithor Chase.

Violet Ann Ruggles—Mrs. Dempsey. Belinda Bluegrass, advocating dress reform—Mrs. Rand. Frances Touchstone, candidate for initiation—Mrs. Balydem.

Hannah Biggsstaff, candidate for initiation—Mrs. Roof. After due deliberation the convention members decided to take up their quarters at The Highway Inn because the following rules were there in force:

1. Board—fifty cents per square foot.
2. Breakfast at 8:00, dinner at 6:00 supper at 7:00.
3. Guests are requested not to speak to the dum-waiter.
4. Guests willing to get up without being called can have self-raising flour for supper.
5. If room gets too warm, open the window and see the fire escape.
6. If thirsty find the spring in the bed.
7. If you have nightmare find a halter on the bedpost.
8. Don't worry about paying your bills for this hotel is supported by its foundation.

The motto of the convention was, "Maid, Man and Matrimony" and all sorts of plans, even to the petitioning of congress for assistance were discussed.

One of the most entertaining reports was that of the committee on investigation of matrimonial possibilities of Boardman. Without doubt each individual had been carefully "sized up" as the report which follows shows:

C. H. Dillabaugh—fluctuating. Chas. Earnes—rarely steady. Col. Callahan—immovable. Opal Wagner, H. H. Crawford, Chas. Goodwin—cornered.

W. A. Price—out of the market. Harry Murchie—nothing doing. Edgar Smith—in demand.

The Summit of Excellence

Every possible method is being used in an endeavor to prepare effective remedies which are pleasing to the palate and pleasant in effect. People now know that it is not necessary for a medicine to be disagreeable or nauseous to the taste or harsh in its action in order to produce the best results. The modern remedy must be easy to take and gentle in action; it must soothe instead of irritate. The point of perfection has almost been reached in the preparation of Chamberlain's Tablets. They have superseded the old-time harsh cathartic in many homes and for constipation, biliousness and stomach troubles are excellent.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is Pleasant to Take

The finest quality of granulated loaf sugar is used in the manufacture of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and the roots used in its preparation give it a flavor similar to maple syrup, making it quite pleasant to take. It is of much importance when a medicine must be given to young children. It is famous for its cures.

Good Advice

When you do not relish your food and feel dull and stupid after eating, take a dose of Chamberlain's Tablets. They will cleanse and invigorate your stomach and bowels, make you feel like a new man and give you an appetite like a twelve year old boy.

Prompt Cure for Diarrhoea

"I have used Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy a number of times during the past ten years and am pleased to say that it has never failed to affect a prompt cure," writes B. T. Biddleman, Macedon, N. Y. "Try it when in need of such a remedy. You are sure to get good results."

Stanley Hatch—fairly active. Adolph Skoube—foreign market quiet. Geo. Mitchell—slow. Lyle Blayden—regular. Ben Atterberry—going to the highest bidder. Jess Lower—very uncertain. Al Macomber—undecided. H. Wasmer and Frank Otto—to be had for the asking. Vaughan Keyes—ready. F. Emberger—willing. Lauren Cumins—spoken for. A. W. Cobb—in need of encouragement. With an eye to business Prof. Makeover, (S. H. Boardman) appeared before the convention with his wonderful invention, the Remodelscope, guaranteed to make old maids into whatever they wished to be provided only that they tell their correct age and were not too old. The demonstration passed along with splendid success until one insisted on taking had dog with her into the makeover machine. She came out rejuvenated but the dog came out, woiners. Disaster was finally spelled when "Tribby" gave her age incorrectly and the air was soon full of shoes, clothing and unmentionables, breaking up the show. It is not possible to mention all the special features but the singing of "Patience Desire Mann" both before and after rejuvenation, the original "pompe" of Betsy Bobbett and the presiding of Josephine Jane Green drew strongly in applause. The latter showed the instincts of a true politician. Every vote was unanimously carried no matter how many voted "No." Then, too, the "revelations" when a mouse was discovered in the convention hall were especially striking.

Loss of Appetite is commonly gradual; one dish after another is set aside. It is one of the first indications that the system is running down, and there is nothing else so good for it as Hood's Sarsaparilla—the best of all tonics.
