ENGLAND HIT BY MOTOR FEVER, FAVOR FLIVVER

BY EARLE C. REEVES

(International News Service Staff Correspondent.)

LONDON, Sept. 19 .- Despite the high price of motor cars and the comparatively higher price of "petrol," England is motoring.

Henry Ford has something to do with it. Sundry long-headed manufacturers who have tried to compete with Ford have evolved little twocylinder, air-cooled engines, which they have built what looks more or less like an automobile. The slump in trade, hard times ocked the bottom from the automo bile business. The showrooms of large cars are not crowded and have no been all summer.

Cars of standard five-passenger size, or bigger, are not for ordinary individuals in this country. The cheapest sell for prices seldem under $2,500. The cheapest two-scaters of what might be termed standard size what might be terriced standard and construction, cose $2,400.

England Motor-Mad Father prefers the motor-cycle-sidecare combination, because, with it, he gets about sixty miles to his sixty-fivecent gallon of "gas." It isn't the cost, it's the upkeep that causes many a family, which in the states would own a good car, to stick to the "squab

The makers of cheap cars have improved on their models in the last year. At home the cheap car means Henry, naturally. But the Ford is a lord of the road compared with Britain's cheap car.

Here the phrase may mean four bicycle wheels, set parrow guage, covered by a tub like body, under which chugs a very cheap motor-cycle engine—price $400. It seats one person, or, a rare exception two one behind the other. Or it may be a three wheeler, two seats and a drivers seat behind. Prices vary, but are usually around $1,000. They are diminulines, with bodies built on racing lines, with a long and impressive hood, which houses merely the passenger's feet, the motive power coming from a motor-cycle engine at the Others, some having excellent bodywork, glistening bonnets and looking altogether like aristocrata are pro-pelled by a good two-cylinder motorcycle engine, which occupies a small portion of the space estensibly reserved for engine power. These will set you back about $1,400.

Like the American flivver, however, these near-cars all go. All English roads are built for light cars, being for the most part better than we can display at home. The roads are full of them. They solve the problem of comparatively cheap initial outlay and chean operation.
