NAVY EXPECTS ITS STRONG BACKFIELD TO MAKE TEAM VULNERABLE AGAINST FOES

Prospects for Winning Eleven Best in Many Seasons; Team Has Veteran Backs at Work.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Sept. 21.—(I. N. S.)—Confidence in the strength of the naval academy football team for the coming season is based largely on the remarkable array of backfield talent which is available.

The outlook is for one of the most powerful lines of recent years, as there are several veterans and an abundance of powerful fellows from last year's second eleven and from the new class.

YALE DOES NOT EXPECT RECORD SEASON IN '21

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Sept. 21.—(U. P.)—Yale has hopes this fall to erase the painful memory of the 1920 football season when the Elis fell down before Boston College, Princeton and Harvard.

Tud Jones, who left his business interests in Seattle last year in the attempt to bring Yale out of the rut, is back again in charge of the squad.

Yale says openly that too much is not expected of the team this year, that Jones is laying the foundation of a system that may not begin to show results for another year or two.

Prospects are none too bright for a championship team or for one that will defeat Princeton or Harvard, as both rivals in the "Big Three" have a much brighter outlook.

If Jones is able to fill Captain Callahan's place on the line and discover some good material, the Blue ought to have a fairly successful season, as the schedule is none too hard.

The game with the military academy, which will mark the first trip of the cadets away from the Plains for a game other than the navy, is the old season-feature of the schedule which includes:

Bates, Sept. 24; Vermont, Oct. 1; North Carolina, Oct. 5; Williams, Oct. 15; Army, Oct. 22; Brown, Oct. 29; Maryland, Nov. 5; Princeton, Nov. 12; Harvard, Nov. 19.

Nick's New One

Nick Altrock, the "clown" of the Washington baseball club, has a new one. Late in the season though it is, he found it too good to keep. He plays he's a traffic policeman. The act requires special paraphernalia, as shown.

DECLARES CLARK WAS NOT IN MEXICAN'S HANDS

MEXICO CITY, Mex., Sept. 21.—(U. P.)—Assertions are made here that Henry Clark, who was supposed to have been captured by bandits and held for ransom in Chihuahua, has been playing a little comedy for some purpose and that he was never in the hands of bandits.

No effort is made to explain why Clark should have attempted a deception beyond a hint that he might have thought of collecting a ransom for himself.

Clark is said to be a British subject and not an American. He is employed by the International Land and Live Stock Co., a Chicago corporation which owns large tracts in Northern Mexico.

The assertion that Clark told of imaginary bandits is similar to the charge made against former Consul V. O. Jenkins, of Puebla, after he had figured in a sensational $150,000 ransom case.
