TO TH B BOY

When you've fought and lost the bat- |Don't come back with lame excuses

Boy o' mine, Don't come in with childish prattle, Boy o'mine, Come in head erect and grinning, Fit to make a fresh beginning, Victory isn't all in winning, Boy o' mine. What if luck has broken badly?

Boy o' mine Don't tell others of it sadly, Boy o' mine

Though it's bitter fruit you've eaten, That your manly ways can sweeten, Say "I tried, but I was beaten." Boy o' mine.

 Boy o' mine;
Do no fretting or repining, Boy o' mine; Here's the one way, don't mistake it To your glory you can make it, If you'll play the man and take it,

Boy o' mine;

Learn the lesson sport produces,

Boy o' mine.

Boy o' mine.

Never mind the breaks which cost it

Or the carelessness which tossed it, "Tis enough to say: "I lost it,"

Take the failure without whinning,

Boy o' mine. (Copyright, 1921, by Edgar A. Guest.)

NE of the serious measures to be considered by congress at the session just starting is the tax bill. The principal field of action on this measure will be in the senate.

Although it sustained the house bill provision to make these Although it sustained the house bill provision to make these actness. Then she calls your atten-taxes payable this year, the senate committee made many important changes in redrafting the bill, the most important of which are as follows:

Increasing the corporation tax from 12 1-2 per cent, as provided in the house bill, to 15 per cent.

Repealing the capital stock tax effective July 1, 1923.

Eliminating the house provision exempting the salaries of the president and judiciary from income tax.

Eliminating the house provision exempting expenses of traveling salesmen from income tax.

Eliminating the house exemption of $500 on income received from building and loan associations.

Eliminating the house provision allowing corporations to deduct from taxable incomes and contributions made to charity. Restoration of the transportation taxes (repealed by the house bill) at one-half the present rate.

Although it was not decided at this writing, it is reported that the senate committee is virtually agreed on restoring the tax on express packages and the duty of five per cent on candy which had been lowered by the house to three per cent.

With the exception of sustaining the house in making the repeal of excess profits and higher surtaxes effective January 1, 1922, the tax bill which will be reported by the senate finance committee will differ in many particulars from the house bill, but promises to be no more satisfactory to the general public.

THE "SOFT TIMES" GONE

E'RE a little bit like spoiled children today. It isn't so much the stringency of the present that we detest; it's rather that yesterday's easy times are gone! We found it so delightful to travel ahead at first, second and third that it's both disconcerting and provoking to find out that life has a reverse speed as well, says the Danville Commercial-News,

The slopes of life are always with us. Very seldom indeed do we climb to a summit to remain there. After enjoying the view and congratulating ourselves on the success of the climb we're quite sure to take the descent, are we not? A hilltop is a place for inspiration, for refreshing, but seldom a place for continued staying. We could never progress did we stay-we are already at the top.

Even descent may mean progress if we go down rightly. Dig-ging our heels into the earth, protesting and scolding at every step, we shall find the going down doubly difficult. Accepting the situation, going down as easily as may be, with our eyes fixed on other hilltops, we shall not so much mind the road. There are pleasures in the valleys also.

We've only just so much nerve force and strength at our command. That which we spend in worry and rebellion, and nothing takes more out of us than do these, we shall not have for living. What we cannot help, why worry about? That which we can change, why not use the force and effort for changing?

Foolish optimism? Impossible vaporing? By no means. Merely plain logic and common sense. Try it and see!

Times may be good or bad, the weather fair or threatening, other exhibitions may succeed or fail but the Round-Up goes on as usual, drawing capacity crowds and providing abundant thrills for those who see it; this was the lesson of the opening performance yesterday. If there was anything wrong with that show or with the size of the crowd such things were not visible to the naked eye.
