CENTENARIAN AND THEN SOME GIVES THREE RULES TO ASSURE LONGEVITY

DEFIANCE, Ohio, Sept. 24.—(I. N. S.)—Living a hundred years or more is a simple matter if you take the word of Francis Ferdinand Mekus, who a few days ago celebrated his 110th birthday.

When asked his recipe for a long life he said:
 "Quit eating 'nick-nacks.' Eat only solid, substantial food.
 "Walk when you have to go anywhere. Forget the flivver. Use your legs, and, finally—
 "Eat lots of pinochle."
 Sounds simple, but the Defiance centenarian says that observance of these three rules has seen him safely to a life span far beyond that enjoyed by the average man and from all appearances he is good for many a year more.

So far as food goes he is a lover of plane and simple fare. Pie and cake he long ago marked off his menu as being neither wholesome nor satisfying, but as for meat, vegetables and bread—hot and cold—he eats as substantial a meal as a busy workman.

Long walks and cards are his diversion. On his one hundredth birthday he walked six miles and then sat down to a hearty noon-day meal.

Although a resident of the United States for more than fifty years he speaks no English. His formula for a long and happy life was translated from his native German by a daughter.

"What does he think of prohibition?" the interviewer asked.
 "It wouldn't be safe to ask him," the daughter said, and refused to translate the query.

On the tobacco question Mr. Mekus is a distinct liberal. When not eating, during walking hours, he always has a pipe in his mouth.

SERBIANS PLOTTED LENINE'S DEATH IN 1918, VIENNA LEARNS

LONDON, Sept. 24.—(I. N. S.)—High emissaries of the Serbian Government organized a plot to assassinate Lenin and Trotsky in 1918, according to the Vienna correspondent of the Daily Herald, who reports that details have been published by Stanislav Vinavar, former Serbian Military Attaché at Moscow.

M. Spalajkovic, Serbian Ambassador to Moscow, picked several Serbian soldiers to kill the two Soviet leaders, according to this account. He led them to believe that Lenin and Trotsky were German agents and told them they would be doing a patriotic act. The soldiers, however, overheard a conversation which led them to believe otherwise, and they refused to have anything to do with the plot.

Several days later, reports the Herald's correspondent, Serbian officers who were implicated were arrested in Moscow and sentenced to death. Lenin himself intervened in their behalf, saved their lives and then had them deported.

BELFAST IS SCENE OF NIGHT OF RIOTING

BELFAST, Sept. 24.—(U. P.)—Corps of armored cars patrolled the Belfast streets following a wild night of rioting. Fighting breaking out shortly after midnight terrorized the whole city. Quiet was un-restored until the military swept through the city with hotchkiss guns. The number of dead, wounded and injured are undetermined.

A detonation of hurled bomb was the signal for the rioting. The entire east side district was seething with rifle and revolver fire. As the bombs died away, hundreds of gunmen poured leaden fire along the main thoroughfares, stopping all car service. Stations were seized. The bridges are under guard by rioting gunmen.
