MIDDIES HOPE TO BEAT SOLDIERS AND BREAK TIE RECORD

Each Team Has 11 Victories With One Game Tied; Navy Has Strong Team This Year.

ANNAPOLIS, Sept. 28.—(U. P.)—After last year's success in athletics, the greatest in the history of the Naval Academy, the Midshipmen are expecting football to star an even greater sweep through the intercollegiate field.

Gridiron prospects are bright enough to justify the Middies in hoping for great things from their football team. The new "open policy" of athletics started by Secretary Denby will give the football team the greatest opportunity of history to go after a championship.

Three big games are on the 1921 schedule. Pinceton comes to Annapolis and the midshipmen make two important trips—to Philadelphia for a game with Penn State and to New York for the annual classic with the army.

The game with the soldiers, of course, is the feature of the schedule. The sailors are especially anxious to beat the soldiers and break the tie in games. Twenty-three games have been played by the two service academies, each having won eleven, and one resulting in a tie.

Capt. Bob Folwell has a big job to fill the two lines places vacated by Ed Eddie Wilkie and "Country" Moore, who graduated this year. Eddie Ewen's departure also will leave a hole at end. Backfield prospects are bright, as twelve good men are available, including Conroy, Noyes, Waters and McKee. The new plebe class is also expected to furnish some good material.

The schedule consists of: North Carolina State, Oct. 1; Western Reserve, Oct. 8; Princeton, Oct. 15; West Virginia, Wesleyan, Oct. 22; Bethany, Oct. 29; Bucknell, Nov. 5; Penn State, Nov. 12; Army, Nov. 26.

The middies won six out of their eight games last year, and beat the Army 7 to 0.

A large nest of wasps will account for 24,000 flies in a day.

Ladybirds are being imported into certain American States from China to fight a disease which is attacking fruit trees.

EGG HATCHES DIVORCE.
(By International News Service.)

CHICAGO, Sept. 28.—Mrs. Minnie Johntry, wife of a republican aide, failed to complain when her husband beat her, neglected her and refused to work, she testified in court. But when he argued over the ethics of breaking the breakfast egg, the "camel's back" broke.

Appearing before Judge Foeh Mrs. Johntry asked a divorce and $100 alimony, citing the egg incident, in which her husband had cursed her, as chief evidence. Judge Foeh indicated her cause was sufficient.

MISSOURI VALLEY TEAMS LOOK FOR GOOD WINNING

COLUMBIA, Mo., Sept. 28.—(U. P.)—Prospects for the biggest football season in the history of the Missouri Valley were never brighter, coaches agreed today.

Dedication of a new stadium at Kansas, Nebraska's return to the conference and a fuller schedule by Oklahoma loomed as highlights for the coming year. Nebraska, Missouri and Oklahoma are touted for the championship.

The Valley schedule follows:
Oct. 1.—Oklahoma A. & M. vs. Missouri at Columbia.
Oct. 8.—Washington University vs. Kansas A. & M. at Manhattan. Grinnell vs. Iowa State at Ames; Missouri vs. St. Louis University at St. Louis.

Oct. 15.—Ames vs. Missouri at Columbia; Grinnell vs. Washington at St. Louis; Drake vs. Kansas at Lawrence.
Oct. 22.—Missouri vs. Kansas A. & M. at Manhattan; Washington vs. Oklahoma at Norman; Kansas vs. Iowa State at Ames.

Oct. 29.—Drake vs. Missouri at Columbia; Kansas A. & M. vs. Kansas at Lawrence; Iowa State vs. Washington at St. Louis; Oklahoma vs. Nebraska at Lincoln.

Nov. 5.—Missouri vs. Washington at St. Louis; Grinnell vs. Kansas A. & M. at Manhattan; Kansas vs. Oklahoma at Norman; Iowa State vs. Drake at Des Moines.

Nov. 11.—Kansas A. & M. vs. Iowa State at Ames.
Nov. 12.—Oklahoma vs. Missouri at Columbia; Kansas vs. Nebraska at Lincoln.

Nov. 19.—Oklahoma vs. Kansas A. & M. at Manhattan; Nebraska vs. Iowa State at Ames.
Nov. 24.—Missouri vs. Kansas at Lawrence; Grinnell vs. Drake at Des Moines.

POLO AMBITIONS HELD BY LATIN-AMERICANS

BUEENOS AIRES. (By Mail to the United Press.)—Mildly objecting because sports publications in the United States call attention to the fact that the Argentinians and Filipinos did not compete for the Davis Cup, a writer in Nacion, declares that this country will soon be able to show the world that it has not tennis champions, it can produce polo players without superiors.

He predicts that within three years the Latin-American country will be able to figure brilliantly in the game. He describes the natural ability of the Argentinian as a horseman. They have quick vision and are rapid in their movements. Furthermore, the game here is not indulged in exclusively by men of wealth, as in the United States and Great Britain. Anyone who lives near a polo club can play.

The present drawback is lack of funds with which to encourage the game and provide maintenance for 50 ponies. It is estimated that 500,000 pesos, which might be raised by subscription, would be needed to cover all expenses from beginning to end before a team would be ready to meet in international competition. The writer predicts that once a team has gone north with its excellent ponies and riders it would make a sufficiently good appearance to induce the Americans to bring players to South America for a return match.

LANDLORDS COMBINE AGAINST RENT CUTS

CLEVELAND, Sept. 28.—(U. P.)—Eight reductions in rentals here are being reported in a few cases, but in most instances the rates charged by landlords are at the highest point ever known.

There are 10,000 vacant houses and apartments within the limits of Greater Cleveland, but landlords generally are standing together in opposition to any lowering of rates charged.

The Cleveland News, an afternoon newspaper, has been conducting an editorial campaign against present rates, which, it declares, are clearly excessive. T. A. Robertson, the managing editor, states that slight results are noticeable and that some further readjustment is probable before fall.

CHANGES MADE THIS IN SYSTEM FOR PENN

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 28.—(U. P.)—"What will Penn do under her second year of Heisman's rule?" is causing speculation on the Pennsylvania campus.

If any kind of luck is experienced in the development of the new material, Penn ought to have a successful season, as the schedule, the easiest in years, seems to have been drawn for that purpose.

Drastic changes were made in the coaching personnel. Heisman still remains as the chief, but "Buck" Wharlow, line coach since 1919, has been dropped, Gus Wisler taking his place. The backfield coaches are Hollenbeck and Bell with Levine in charge of the ends.

As a foundation for the team, Heisman has left from last year, Capt. Wray, Day, Frank, Caldwell, Thurman, Denham, Cochrane, Graves, Whitell and Farrell. Thirty substitutes from the 1920 squad also are available.

The schedule:
Delaware, Sept. 24; Franklin and Marshall, Oct. 1; Gettysburg, Oct. 8; Swarthmore, Oct. 15; Virginia Military Institute, Oct. 22; Pittsburgh, Oct. 29; Lafayette, Nov. 5; Dartmouth, Nov. 12; Cornell, Nov. 24.

"THE WOMAN GOD CHANGED" SCREENED IN BAHAMA ISLANDS

Inasmuch as much of the story of "The Woman God Changed" has to do with a tropical island, the company playing the various roles in this splendid Paramount-Cosmopolitan picture which will be displayed at the ALTA today was carried to the Mahama Islands, of the coast of Florida on a specially chartered steamer where for two weeks, Seena Owen and E. K. Lincoln, who are seen as castaways on an island were kept busy by Director Robert G. Vignola, his cameraman and assistants. The burning and sinking of a steamship following an explosion of ammunition, was faithfully pictured and the casualty (in the picture only) proved quite exciting. Other scenes, notably a remarkable cloud effect, were "shot" with excellent results. "The Woman God Changed" is a beautiful photoplay and fully up to the high standard set by Paramount.

A romance of Broadway and Southern Seas—Of a hectic race for pleasure, still in the peace of a lonely life. Of a life unworthy, cleansed by trial and wreck that taught how to live—and love!

First Pictures of the Russian Famine

These pictures are the first to reach America from the "death belt" of Russia into which the vanguard of Hoover relief workers are now taking American aid. The pictures were rushed out of Russia in an airplane by Major Blake, an English aviator, and brought across the Atlantic by special courier. Above, a starved baby lying asleep along the roadside, its wasted body sheltered from the sun's rays by the wagon in which the family is moving in a frantic attempt to reach the edges of the famine belt. Below, the great trek of Russian famine belt sufferers encamped along the roadside in their march to more prosperous land.
