SPECIAL ELECTION TO BE HELD IN PENDLETON MONDAY, NOVEMBER 21

Milk Ordinance is Killed When SISTER TESTIFIES IN Dairymen Express Opposition; Dance Inspection Up.

The passage of an ordinance authorizing a special election in Pendleton Monday, November 21, and refus-al to pass another one adopting the recently proposed milk ordinance were two important actions of the by the council as an emergency measure in anticipation of the presentation of initiative petitions which are expected to be made soon. The proposal to increase the tax levy to provide for improvements which can not be made under the present income is one of the most important matters to be referred to the voters.

part. Opposition to the measure as framed was voiced by the dairymen on the grounds that in some respects it would be practically impossible for them to comply with all of the pro-visions. They declared that they faevered inspection, that they wanted their cows given tuberculosis exami-nations, and that the public had a cordial invitation at any time to look over their barns and milk houses.

One of the dairymen declared that last week he talked with a state inspector who was here last spring. He took samples of milk produced here when he was a visitor at the Round-Up and declared that the samples show that Pendleton's milk supply will compare favorably with the supply of any in any other city of the
