LECTURE IS TOMORROW NIGHT

"Brazil, the Land of the Southern Cross," is the theme for a lecture which will be given tomorrow night in the county library auditorium by Colonel Charles Wellington Furlong, P. R. O. S., for the benefit of the Pendleton Women's Club.

The lecture, to be illustrated with stereopticon slides, is based upon Colonel Furlong's personal observations and experiences. Colonel Furlong, who has visited four continents and who has spent years in travel and research, is an explorer, soldier, writer and painter who has lived among the peoples he describes and studied both lands and people from the viewpoint of the scientist, artist and humanist.

His lectures not only include remarkable revelations of the great focal points of world interest, but also reveal the fascinating mysteries of little known and hidden corners of the globe. The material is distinctly new and original.

Some of the points of interest in the lecture will be scenes in the vast rubber country of the Amazonas and the great rubber port of the Amazon, Delia Para. Visits to the color-tinted, red-roofed cities of the Brazilian coast, the Brazilian Venise, Bahia during carnival; Santos, the world's greatest coffee port; Sao Paulo with its classic opera house, the largest municipal opera house in the world; Rio de Janeiro, the most beautiful city in the world; that wonderful land of mountain and valley behind Rio and the unequalled Tijuca Drive.
