BIG TEAMS OF SOUTH IN GOOD FETTLE FOR FOOTBALL THIS YEAR.

Centre and Georgia Tech Will Be Strongest Teams From Present Dope Available.

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 22.—(U. P.)— With schedules spiced up by numerous star intersectional battles, 1921 football in the south promises to live up to year's standard which established the gridiron sport on a high plane.

Georgia Tech, with most of last Year's stars available, is considered the favorite for the championship. Centre, however, will have to be considered, regardless of Tech's victory over the Colonels last year when Moran's team was caught in bad con-dition after the Harvard game and was

The big intersectional battles are Centre and Harvard, George Tech and Penn State, Georgia Tech and Rutgers, Georgia and Harvard, Tulane and Detroit, and Tennessee and Dartmouth.

"They're off!" cried the crowd at the fair at Rhinecliff, N Y Mrs Theodore Rousevelt touched her white mule with the lash and Mrs J. Griswold Webb, New York society matron, urged her black mule forward. Down the stretch they "thundered" and the judge declared the race a dead heat, each driver having used the whip the same number or times, each mule having wiggled his ears in equal rhythm. The race is an angual festure of the fate.

BOARDMAN SERVICE MEN

BOARDMAN, Ore., Sept. 29.-The two games. have taken post for this district. eting was held last night in the school house and a lemporary organ- game, Vernon two games. ization was effected with Hatch as temporary commander, and games, Salt Lake no games, W. A. Price as temporary secretary. A rigorous campaign will be carried on the districts from Arlington to NEW DEPARTMENT STORE Umatilla for the organization of a strong post. Plans are already on foot for the proper observance of Armistic: Day November 11th. This date is loubly suggestive this year as it also marks the beginning of the d'sarma-ment conference at Washington and at noon a nation-wide pause of two minites is called in observance of memorial to the unknown soldier dead. CADETS WANT TO GET MIDDIES IN FOOTBALL

Army Team of Last Year Held Practically Intact Stiff Playing This Year.

WEST POINT, N. Y., Sept. 29. Broad grins wrinkle the faces of the Cadets every time they think of the 1921 season. Last year's reverses are forgotten by the bright prospects of success on the gridiron this fall.

The navy is already marked down as a victim of the 1921 Army machine, and the game with the sailors is the Head Coach Daley has intact the team of last year. That means that runmentary football will not be nec-essary in the early stages of training and that team work can be accom-plished to the maximum.

The brilliant French is expected to be the greatest star of the year. He scored 93 points in seven games last year, and with a better running machine this season he is almost sure to do at least as well.

The backfield is expected to be one of the best and fastest on the eastern Sec. 1, Tp. 3, N. R. 34, N 1-2 Sec. 20, Marion Jack, $240.00, NE 1-4 NE is gridiron, and the whole team, with Tp. 4 N.
