physician immediately and the fracture was reduced. He is getting along very nicely.

Helix Men to Feast.
 The subject of good roads will be the paramount issue of importance Wednesday night when a community feed will be given at Helix under the auspices of the Commercial Club. Pheasants will be provided for the dinner, and farmers and business men will get together to discuss the advisability of backing or refusing to back a bond issue to secure more roads. A program is being arranged for the meeting which will include a number of speakers.

To Stock Wallowa Lake.
 Chris Schmidt, a prominent salmon packer of Astoria, and a member of the fish commission, arrived last night from Astoria and left this morning with H. E. Clanton, master fish warden. They will meet Chairman Kendall on Tuesday at noon when the regular weekly luncheon is held. Some of the sacrificing members of the organization have agreed to furnish the fowls.

Falls and Breaks Arm.
 Raymond Pinson, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Pinson suffered a fracture of his left arm Saturday while watching Pendleton and Kennewick play football. He was seated on the low fence enclosing the arena when he lost his balance and fell backward. When his face showed that he was hurt, and his parents asked him what injury he had sustained, he replied in a matter-of-fact tone that he had broken his arm. He was taken to a

Portland Man Here.
 Business, and incidentally, the hunting of China pheasants, are responsible for the presence here of Blue Godell and B. W. Jones of Godell, Aiken and Jones Co. of Dave Atkinson of the Norwich Union Insurance Co., and Franklin Bangs of the Fidelity Phenix Co. All of the men are from Portland and they enjoyed hunting yesterday.

A. H. Cox in Hospital.
 A. H. Cox is a patient in St. Anthony's hospital where he underwent an operation this morning.

To Have Pheasant Banquet.
 Members of Damon lodge No. 4 Knights of Pythias will conclude a large initiation ceremony tonight with a 'China pheasant banquet' following the lodge work.

Legion to Meet.
 The first meeting of the fall season of Pendleton Post No. 25, American Legion, will be held this evening at 8 o'clock at the clubrooms of the county library. Matters that are expected to be up for consideration during the winter months will be discussed.

Seaside Man Here.
 Besides being a city councilman at Seaside, M. F. Hardesty is one of the proprietors of the Bungalow Pavilion, which is reputed to be one of the best managed dance places in the Northwest. He will spend the week here visiting friends.

Traffic Violators Fined.
 For incorrect parking of cars M. V. Leader and William Cale were fined $5 this morning in police court. John Snyder, an Indian, was fined $10 for being drunk. John Doe Scott, in whose home 10 quarts of liquor were found Saturday night in a raid conducted by the police will be tried this afternoon.

Mrs. Bruce at St. Anthony's.
 Mrs. Bruce Bruce, of Enterprise, is a patient in St. Anthony's hospital where she underwent an operation for appendicitis today. Mrs. Bruce will be remembered in Pendleton as Miss Vivian Gibbs, of Pilot Rock. She attended the local high school, from which she was graduated a few years ago.

Sets Owl Catch Trap.
 An incident of extraordinary interest to fishermen was witnessed yesterday by Chris Stangler when this veteran angler, while out fishing, saw an owl catch a trout in the stream and devour it. The incident is said by local authorities on the art of angling to be very unusual. Chris is one of the old timers in Pendleton. He has been employed by members of the Sturgis family during the past 25 years or more.

Fire Chiefs Here.
 To see Pendleton's new Stutz fire truck perform in an exhibition was the purpose of a visit here today by A. B. Cantfield, chief of the fire department at Pocatello, Idaho, and C. W. Hays, fire chief at Logan, Utah. H. H. Bond, of the Campbell Fire Apparatus Co. of Portland, was also another visitor. The visiting chieftains were among those who were in attendance at the convention of fire chiefs which has just been concluded at Vancouver, B. C.

To Meet October 15.
 The annual meeting of the Pacific Northwest Tourist association will be held this year in Portland on October 15, according to an announcement that has been received at the office of the Commercial Association. H. W. Collins of Pendleton and George W. Hyatt of Enterprise are the Eastern Oregon representatives of the association which includes British Columbia, Washington and Oregon in its territory. The various benefits and problems which occur as a result of tourist traffic will be taken up at the meeting.

How Did It End?
 Two days of the Pendleton Round-Up is just a good starter, according to Charles E. Mungen, who is now at Hamilton, Montana. A letter from Mungen has been received at the office of the Commercial Association in which he asks for a record of the finals in the big show. He was here Thursday and Friday, but business engagements made the finals, and he wants to know how the contestants finished. Newspapers containing the desired information will be mailed to the visitor by the association.

Seven Pythians Will Attend.
 When the fortieth annual session of the grand lodge of the Knights of Pythias of the Domain of Oregon convenes at Portland October 11 there will be seven Pythians of Pendleton in attendance. Two of these, Judge James W. Maloney, master of exchequer, and J. H. Gwinn, will attend as officers, and there will be five delegates. These men are J. H. Morris, D. P. Snyder, William Purchase, Charles Howell and J. M. Williams. A record for time of holding office in the grand lodge has been established by Judge Maloney who has been master of exchequer since 1904. He and Mr. Gwinn are both past grand chancellors, and the latter is now supreme master-at-arms. The other lodges in the county will have delegates in attendance.

LAND OFFICE BUSINESS NETS MAMMOTH PROFITS FOR OHIO BOOTLEGGERS

$11,000,000 Toll is Taken by Twelve Manufacturers Plying the Rum Trade.

BY WILLIAM J. HUSKE
 (International News Service Staff Correspondent)

CLEVELAND, Oct. 3.—Twelve Cleveland manufacturing concerns have been practically put out of business recently by Federal officials charged with enforcement of the Volstead act, but before it was done they made profits of more than $11,000,000 in the bootlegging trade of Northern Ohio, according to a statement by W. A. Weygand, Federal prohibition agent in charge of inspection among manufacturing concerns, bootlegging and distilleries.

The twelve concerns, according to Weygand, did a business but would make a Western load (beer) in the days of the "dirt" case convulsions, and the profit they earned on their stuff would make Captain Kidd or any of the pirates of an older and more moderate day turn in their graves.
