LONDON AGAIN PACKED WITH YANKEE VISITORS

BY EARLE C. REEVES (International News Service Staff Correspondent.)

LONDON, Oct. 12.—Despite the gloomy picture of London which was painted in American minds by the coal strike and by travelers who roported on the dullness of London summer life, the American tourist is 381-R, 515 Jane St. not giving England the go-by, after but go to bed after one has done a And as for midnight excursions, with a hope of a "bite" or two before going to bed—it isn't done. It can't be done, except by having your driver take you to a cabstand, curbstone lunch-wagon. A well-known American actress gave a most miraculous dance to a score of friends recently in a big ho tel. She managed it by having them sit still after the lights went out at midnight in the regular ballroom. Afparty to leave the light came on again, conderful supper was set out, and dancing continued until four in morning. It probably was illegal. It certainly was irregular. And, anyway, everybody from the States who is tripping in England just now, with money to spend and an inclination for parties, dosen't know a well-
