HERMISTON P. T. A. GIVE TEACHER'S RECEPTION

(East Oregonian Special.)

HERMISTON, Oct. 17.—The Parent Teachers Association gave a public reception to the teachers at the high school building Thursday evening. The public was invited and a large crowd was present. Refreshments were served.

The Hermiston lyceum course will open October 20 when the Freeman Lyceum company comes here for a number which will include music and impersonations. The Hammond company is recorded as one of the best on the platform.

A high school football team left yesterday for Heppner where they play the Heppner high school this afternoon. While there they will attend the older boys' conference. Coach Arnold Gralapp and Superintendent A. C. Voelker accompanied the boys who went on a motor truck.

The number of pupils in the high school has now increased to 110, the best enrollment in the history of the school. It has been found necessary to employ another teacher and Miss Lucile Redmond is expected here to begin work the first of the week. This will make six teachers. Last year there were only four and the enrollment was a little over 70.

The building of Wm. Schaar and W. J. Warner, recently damaged in the fire are being repaired by August Heise, a local contractor. They will be ready for occupancy again soon. The building of Sam Rodgers, a shoe dealer will be partly rebuilt and will be fire proof. It is understood that Dr. F. P. Adams will rebuild on the site of the Bakery building, though he has not announced definite plans as yet.

The English class of Mrs. Roberta Gunn visited the office of the Hermiston Herald during the class period Thursday, the object being to see how a newspaper is printed. The class has been studying journalism and was very much interested in the presses and linotype. About 15 are in the class and all were expected to be able to tell how it was done after they got back to school.

A. T. Brunner, late of Saskatchewan, Canada has bought the blacksmith business of E. L. Hickey and will begin work the first of the week. Mr. Brunner arrived in town with his family this week. The city council has gone on record as favoring purchase of the C. R. Hay property on Newport avenue for a tourist park. The property includes about an acre, has shade and is located close to the business part of town. It is felt that the location will be a very desirable one from all standpoints and will place Hermiston in the front rank for tourist facilities when the season opens next summer.

L. A. Hunt has spent most of this week in Portland on business for the Oregon Co-operative Hay Growers of which he is manager.

The commercial club will make its weekly luncheon next Tuesday the occasion for a thorough discussion of the proposed county bonding measure. The club has given its members plenty of time to consider this question before calling it up for discussion and next Tuesday will be the day. All who have opinions to present have been asked to do so at that time. The club meets at the lunch hour every Tuesday. The coming meeting will be at the Hotel Hermiston.

E. J. Kingsley has been in Portland several days this week.

QUALITY IN CARS; QUALITY IN SERVICE
Fine quality in any automobile remains a source of satisfaction to the car owner only as long as that factory-built quality is reflected in perfect performance.

Responsibility for this lies strictly with the local dealer. He is in business to see that the ideals of the manufacturer and the expectations of the owner are realized in actual every-day car performance.

Our customers are all satisfied customers.
