CANNOT AFFORD BOOKS SAYS GERMAN PROFESSOR

BY FRANK E. MASON
(International News Service Staff Correspondent.)
BERLIN, Oct. 21.—"Berlin University theological students in many cases cannot afford to buy even a Greek and Hebrew testament," said Professor Adolph von Harnack, noted theological leader, formerly advisor of the Kaiser and head of the Berlin University. He is the celebrated author of the "History of Dogma."

"A Greek testament costs about thirty-five cents in American money at the present time, and it may seem strange to you that students cannot afford to make this small outlay of money. Theological students can manage to get their food and lodging, but books are more difficult. The American Quakers are feeding a great many of our students."
"Many can buy their Bibles, but we need about one hundred Greek and one hundred Hebrew testaments for the poorer students. Poverty in Germany today is not to be found in the so-called shums or tenements, but in the homes which before the war were called comfortable middle-class. For instance, a school teacher in the graded schools is paid in American money, at the present time about $200 a year. A high school teacher or college professor gets no more than $200.

"You ask how they live? There are never any new clothes; food is of the simplest—bread, soups of a thin sort and occasionally sausage as a delicacy. As far as music, opera and theatre are concerned, they have long since been forgotten."

JAPS ARE URGED TO SETTLE IN HAWAII

HONOLULU, T. H., Oct. 21.—Vice-Admiral Saito, of the Imperial Japanese Navy, commanding the training cruiser Izumo and Yukimo, in an address before several hundred of his countrymen here urged them to give up thoughts of returning to Japan and to strive instead to make themselves a permanent part of Hawaii. He said that only by taking this attitude and working with the Americans for the betterment of the community could the Japanese show their gratitude toward America for giving them homes in this Paradise of the Pacific.

WINTER UNIFORMS FOR COPS
COLUMBUS, Oct. 21.—(I. N. S.)—It was during the cold snap recently, Chief of Police French sat in his office. He was shivering. Soon afterwards he issued an order for policemen—machine crews and foot patrolmen on late duty—to put on winter uniforms. The chief made it plain that daylight officers do not have to take off their summer apparel until colder weather sets in.

NOT ENOUGH POTATERS
COLUMBUS, Oct. 21.—(I. N. S.)—The reason only a few potatoes are being shipped out of Ohio is because Buckeye State raisers have not produced enough for consumption within the state, according to George U. Marvin, Chief of the State Bureau of Markets. Marvin's assertion was in response to the statement that the Federal Bureau of Markets recently reported 1,751 carloads of potatoes in transit, but that no Ohio potatoes were included.

CHINESE BANDITS HOLD OLD 'HOP ALLEY' OWNER

DENVER, Oct. 21.—(I. N. S.)—Word has been received in Denver's Chinatown district that Yee Dun, owner of much property in the local "Hop Alley," has been captured by Chinese bandits and is being held for ransom. Yee Dun left Denver for his native land three months ago after acquiring what his fellow countrymen here estimate as a fortune of $100,000.
