CLOUDBUR T WIPES OUT TOWN OF BRITANNIA ON BRITISH COLUMBIA COAST; DEATH RATE ESTIMATED AT TWENTY

INDEPENDENTS ARE LEADING IN RECALL UP TO NOON TODAY

Practically All Independent Sections Have Been Tabulated Show 83,000 Votes.

INDEPENDENTS NOW CLAIM VICTORY BY 5000 MAJORITY

Non-partisan Headquarters are Equally Insistent That Their Majority Reaches 7000.

FARGO, Oct. 29.—(U. P.)—Unless a much heavier vote is returned than the indications now make probable, the independents will win the election by approximately 25,000. Huge non-partisan gains will be needed to overcome the lead, with the returns from the non-partisan districts falling to show the percentages of leads which would result in a Frazier victory.

FARGO, Oct. 29.—(U. P.)—With 1058 precincts tabulated at noon, a vote for Frazier, the incumbent non-partisan, showed 55,000 and Nestes, the Independent, 83,000. Practically all the independent sections have been tabulated. The non-partisan results are just beginning to come in.

The gains showed by the independents in eastern counties, compared with last year's election, showed almost a tie vote. The independents are claiming a recall victory by 5,000 majority. The non-partisan headquarters are equally insistent that their majority reaches 7,000.

Rural Votes Coming Fargo N. D., Oct. 29.—(U. P.)—The rural vote, following in today, materially cut down the majority the independents had accumulated in the state recall election. Independent candidates for state offices made slight gains in the cities as compared with a year ago, but with half the vote still uncounted the result is yet in doubt.

The independents initiated the recall election in an effort to unseat high state officials owning allegiance to the non-partisan party, in control of the state politics for the last five years. The independents claim the final vote will give them a majority of 5,000 to 10,000, while the non-partisans claimed the present office incumbents would be re-elected by a 6,000 majority. Early returns showed the independents leading by 27,000, with the opposition strongholds still unheard from.
