

THE BIG STORE THAT OFFERS THE BEST FOR THE PRICE, NO MATTER WHAT THE PRICE.

PRICES HAVE COME DOWN

They are far below those of last year... thus making your dollar go a long way farther.

Another New Arrival of Beautiful

Fur Trimmed Coats

These recent arrivals display numerous unique style ideas not seen in the coats which we have heretofore received for wear during the season at hand.

They are as rich looking as it is possible for garments to be. And women who love coats possessing this distinguishable quality will not rest easy until they have taken one or two of them into custody for present and future wear. These prices make them splendid values:

Priced from $19.95 to $90.00

Last year these coats would have cost $40.00 to $175.00.

THE NEWS REACHES THE ELYSIAN FIELDS

HERMISTON LEGION BOYS TO GIVE DANCING PARTY

(East Oregonian Special.) HERMISTON, Nov. 8.—Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Mosaic of Elkhart were down Sunday visiting the family of their brother, Elmer D. They were accompanied from Stanfield by Louis Mosaic, another brother.

Officially, Friday was a rather busy day in Hermiston with centers of weights and measures, national bank examiners and scales adjusters for the Howe company.

Charles Hyatt and family are back from Idaho after an absence of more than four years. Mr. Hyatt is now one of the foremen on the road construction crew of the Newport Land & Construction Co. working on the Cold Springs road.

Leonard Crossland is now a full-fledged truck driver, having bought the 2-ton Denby truck formerly owned by Mr. Percy.

Mrs. R. A. Bronson is on the sick list owing to a bad cold, but Mr. Bronson is well again and will soon be in the lumber office taking his usual exercise, rest and recreation.

H. L. Straw of the Inland Lumber Co. has erected a retaining wall of concrete along the south side of the company's yard. He is also erecting concrete posts and large corner pillars to attach the fence to, thus making a permanent job as well as an artistic one. Part of the foundation is also laid for a new office building.

The Swope construction company of Portland is erecting a brick building with concrete basement for Sam Rodgers on the site of the one he lost by fire a few weeks ago.

The American Legion boys are to have a dance, speaking program and other amusements on Friday night, Armistice day.

Owing to a break in the ditch, extending about 25 feet long, on Wednesday night, light and power were shut off from Hermiston till about 4 p. m. Thursday so the sorting machine and apple packers were compelled to take a day off from labor.

Work on the Shotwell home is nearly complete and this makes J. K. one of the best residences in this neck-of-the-woods.

The city of Hermiston and all of her suburbs, including Westland, Echo, Stanfield, Irrigon and Boardman, celebrated the Halloween festivities with great pomp and glory, extending from Friday to the wee sma' hours of Tuesday morning.

Better English week is being observed here this week, according to announcements made from the churches and schools. In the future we should hear less slang through it now seems as though one can hardly get vent to his feelings with pure old-fashioned English. It does not seem to be expressive enough for the fast life we live nowadays.

B. P. Newcomer, father of Mrs. William Felthouse, died at the Felthouse home on Thursday after a brief illness, at the age of 73. Mr. Newcomer had been staying up town at the Oregon hotel and went home just previous to his demise and while sitting in a rocking chair peacefully breathed his last. No one knew he was dead for a few moments. The funeral took place Saturday and his remains were laid to rest in the Hermiston cemetery.

If the weather keeps on without heavy frost the cement lining on the "A" canal will be finished to this year's destination, making an exceptionally good ditch all the way from the government reservoir to the "I" line, or about six miles of concrete.

A brother-in-law of J. L. Hartle, with his wife and family, arrived from Idaho last week and will make their home here, if they can find anything to suit them.

Miss Nida Patrick came down from Walla Walla Monday to visit the family of her sister, Mrs. Frank Ralph. Miss Nida works in the land office with her brother and on Sunday he came overland and together they drove to Portland for a few days' outing.

Ed Thrasher, a rancher living nine miles west of Pilot Rock, drove down Saturday on business. A brother of Ted Parks arrived Thursday from St. Louis, Mo., and will make his home with "Ted" and family this season while he attends high school as a junior.

An infant girl belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Hoffman, living five miles northeast of town, died of droupy Thursday and was buried Saturday in the Hermiston cemetery.

Dairy cows in milk at this season should be fed liberally and protected from the cold rains. Cows exposed to the weather use considerable amounts of feed for body maintenance that otherwise would go into milk production.—O. A. C. Experiment station.

A Corset for Every Occasion

It's the wisest man today who has corsets for all occasions. There is the all-rubber, flexible corset for sports, the elastic hip corset for dancing, the gorgeous braided for evening, the white satin bridal corsets. Evening corsets run from pink and orchid through various tints to black. Yes, the black corset is the smart thing to wear with thin black gowns.

IS A MERRY WIDOW

Soon after my husband's death 9 years ago I was taken with typhoid fever. Since then have suffered from stomach and liver trouble and constipation. I have doctor'd a great deal without benefit. Since taking Max's Wonderful Remedy three months ago my bowels have moved regularly and I am feeling well again. I am now a happy widow. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the essential mucus from the intestinal tract and stops the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.—AT DRUGGISTS EVERYWHERE.
