DEMOCRATS GAIN LOST PRESTIGE IN RECENT ELECTION

In New York Whole Tammany Ticket Returned Victor by Over 400,000 Plurality.

DEMOCRATS ALSO GAIN IN THE LEGISLATURE

Independents Are Victorious in Cleveland; Soldiers Bonus Bill Passed Three to One.

UNDATED, Nov. 9.—(U. P.)—Democrats appeared to have regained some of their lost prestige sacrificed when the republicans returned a landslide at the time of President Harding's election. In New York, Hyman, with the whole Tammany ticket, was returned victor by over 400,000 plurality. The democrats also gained in the legislature. Marion, Ohio, went democratic. Louisville, Ky., went republican in Kentucky's bloody election where 11 were killed and 14 wounded. The democrats lost the wet election in New Jersey, but won sweeping victories in Indiana and Virginia.

Virginia showed a staunch allegiance to the democratic ranks when the whole democratic ticket went in with approximately 60,000 majority for each candidate, Lee Trinkle winning the gubernatorial race over Henry Anderson and John Mitchell, the nominees of the white and black wings of the G. O. P. In Ohio, it appeared the democrats had elected 24 mayors and the republicans 37. Independents were victorious in Cleveland, and five other cities. The soldiers bonus passed three to one.

Give Salary to Charity. YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio, Nov. 9.—(A. P.)—George L. Oles, who came in from the country three months ago, establishing a residence in a hotel, was elected mayor yesterday after an eccentric advertising campaign, on a platform including the planks permitting 'spooning' in city parks, and a promise to turn over his salary to charity.

Democrats Make Clean Sweep. NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—(A. P.)—Kentucky passed from republican to democratic control as the result of yesterday's election. The democrats gained in the Maryland legislature. Democratic candidates headed by Mayor Hyman made a clean sweep in New York City.

Cleveland adopted the city manager form of government; Virginia clinches a democratic governor; the Indiana democrats captured three republican strongholds, electing 39 mayors, and the republicans 20; the Jersey wet democrats were defeated; Kentucky republicans apparently won Louisville city election, though the result is still doubtful; Philadelphia and Pittsburgh showed republican victories, though with diminished strength.

ELEPHANT TRAINER IS CHARGED WITH MURDER

EVERETT, Wash., Nov. 9.—(U. P.)—Mrs. Bertha Wilkes, an elephant trainer for the Selks, Floto Circus, faced the charges of first degree murder in connection with the death of Gus Danielson, a wealthy lumberman. Authorities claim Danielson was unable to shoot himself in the back with his own hand, the coroner having discovered a small powder rimmed puncture in the lumberman's back. Danielson was killed Sunday night in a scuffle with Mrs. Wilkes, whom he wished to marry, authorities claim. Mrs. Wilkes said Danielson was threatening her with a pistol and it accidentally went off, killing him.

BUDGET NEEDS VOTES ONLY FOR CITY TAXPAYERS GATHERING

If Streets are to be Clean and City Protected Funds Must be Voted by People.

The budget for 1922 which is being asked by the city for taking care of its expenses is approximately $15,000 in excess of the amount which was raised this year. Mayor George A. Hartman declared last night in his speech to members of the X Club and taxpayers when he gave an explanation of the various matters on which the club has been spending time and energy in study.

That the voting of this budget by the taxpayers is a part of good business was the statement of the mayor when he had finished an analysis of the expenditures which have been made during the past few years. He compared minutely the records of the first nine months of 1920 with the expenditures which have been made during the same period of 1921 and declared that lower expenses can be secured only by cutting out necessities.

"We can have one less man on our fire department than we had last year, we might cut off another man from the police department, and we might let our streets go with less cleaning than they are receiving now; but I doubt whether any of us would be willing to resort to such practices for the lowering in taxes which could be effected."

Heads Cunningham's Reports. The reports prepared by John W. Cunningham of the firm of consulting engineers of Baar and Cunningham were read by the mayor. One report covered the necessity and the estimated cost of a septic plant together with the recommendations of the firm, and the other was on the incinerator plant. The latter project was given up by the city council, Mayor Hartman declared, after the report of the engineers showed that it upkeep would be too high for a city of Pendleton's size.

The following figures were quoted by the mayor as what will be needed:

1921 CROPS ESTIMATED LESS THAN LAST YEAR

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—(U. P.)—The department of agriculture announced the value of all American crops on November 1st was 23 percent lower than a year ago, and over 45 percent lower than the five year average from 1915 to 1920. The corn crop will be one of the largest in history, but the low prices cause its value to shrink below war time yields to the farmers.

CORN CROP ESTIMATED

The department estimated the white potato crop at over 250,000,000 bushels, as against over 425,000,000 last year. The yield per acre this year is estimated 59 8-10 bushels. Sweet potatoes yielded 195,000,000 bushels, 7,000,000 less than last year, with a yield per acre of 39 2-10 bushels. Tobacco yielded 1,020,000,000 pounds, nearly half a billion pounds less than last year, with 744 pounds per acre yield.

HEALTH BOARD INSISTS UPON SEPTIC TANK

Unless Pendleton Complies With State Law Regarding Sewage Injunction Coming.

DR. McNARY GIVES FRANK ADVICE TO TAXPAYERS

State Officials Have Given Due Warning and Are Now Impatient Over Delays.

Failure on the part of the taxpayers of Pendleton to authorize construction of a septic plant at the coming election on November 21 to take care of the sewage of the city will undoubtedly result in action being taken by the state board of health to secure an injunction against the city to restrain it from dumping waste into the Umatilla river. This statement was made last night by Dr. W. D. McNary, superintendent of the Eastern Oregon Hospital for the Insane and vice president of the city planning commission, in a speech which he made before about 30 men who met in the courtroom on invitation of members of the X Club.

That he personally had done everything in his power to stall off such action by the state during the past 19 years was a statement of Dr. McNary, who is a member of the state board of health. He declared that the board has remonstrated time after time against the illegal method of the municipality of disposing of its sewage and that he had used his influence to defer any action by the board on the promise that the municipality would take action to improve conditions "within the coming year."

"The patience of the board is about exhausted and that fathers of the taxpayers to show their good faith in wanting to observe the state law by their votes in this election will be a signal for the board of health to seek an injunction against the municipality was another statement made by the speaker.

Puts Issue. Replying to criticisms of previous speakers who had declared that a bond issue of $125,000 was excessive for purchase of a site and for the construction thereon of a septic plant, Dr. McNary declared that the whole issue could be put into one proposition:

"The question is whether you are willing to trust your mayor and council, your representatives in the management of municipal business, with $25,000 more than they may need to carry this project through to completion," he declared, a trace of sarcasm being discernible in his tones. "It is always safe to assume that an engineer's or an architect's estimate will run from 25 to 50 per cent lower than the actual cost. Will you trust your council with enough above the initial estimate so they may be able to finish the plant if, as is to be expected, the estimate proves so low that the completion will be impossible if the bond issue is cut lower than it is now?"

Promises State Aid. Replying to other criticisms that the septic plant estimates are too high, Dr. McNary recited his experiences as superintendent of the state institution.

One of his first tasks there was the building of a septic plant, the speaker declared. He explained that conditions made it unnecessary for the state hospital to have a complete plant as will be needed by the city.

"For our hospital we needed a plant which would serve the needs of 500 people. It was built 10 years ago when costs were very favorable, and we furnished our own labor. Counting costs of materials and the labor which we furnished, the cost of that plant on the basis of the low prices of 10 years ago was $10,000. In the light of my experience with that plant, it seems to me that the city is very fortunate in the price that it will have to pay for its plant."

That the city might have the aid of the state in free labor was another promise of Dr. McNary. He declared that many of the patients at the hospital are better off for some physical labor and indicated that the city might have the use of some of this labor.

Land a Good Buy. Several men present had interrupted during the course of the evening to ask if there is need of the city purchasing the tract of about 30 acres as a site for the plant. In reply, the speaker declared that a better buy probably never could be made. He related his experiences in having land condemned during the purchase of some of the holdings of the state hospital, and he said it usually costs as much to bring condemnation proceedings as to buy outright.

The speaker declared that he was opposed to the heating of the water of the city natatorium and was not in favor of this bond issue of $20,000 being passed. Speaking of the other
