

People Here and There

High praise for the Pacific International Livestock show is given by Chauncey Bishop, Henry W. Collins and James Sturges who returned this morning from Portland. They declare that the livestock entries are excellent and that the night horse show is excellent.

NEWS OF THE COUNTY OFFICES AND OFFICERS

Sheriff To Portland
Sheriff Zorth Houser will go to Portland tonight where on Saturday he will attend the state convention of county sheriffs.

Marriage Licenses Issued

Two licenses to wed were issued today at the office of R. T. Brown, county clerk, to Perry C. Herden, a laborer, and Hazel G. Smith, both of Pendleton; and to Arthur R. Kirk, a farmer, of Milton, and Esther S. Darlin, of Freewater.

Plenty of Smiths

Work of collecting information about the rolls of the secretary of state in the office of the county clerk shows that there are 193 Smiths in Umatilla county. The number of people named Brown has not been determined, but it is thought that Browns and Smiths are of about the same number.

O. W. OFFICIALS

"In this respect, the railroads are not initiating any new conditions, but are simply asking for permission to make rates somewhat higher than the rates carried by the steamship lines through the canal that will enable the trans-continental lines to participate in the haul of some of this traffic, which can only be had by meeting this competition. For example, the rate on iron and steel articles such as structural iron, bolts, nuts, etc., by rail from New York to coast terminals is $1.83 1/2, which rate also applies to Pendleton. The water rate from New York to Portland is 55 cents. The rail lines propose a rate from New York and points on the Missouri river and east of $1.00 to apply to coast terminals. It will be seen that the rate of $1.00 will not, in any sense of the word, take the business from the Atlantic coast to the Pacific coast terminals away from water lines, but it is hoped that from interior points west of New York and east of the Missouri river, it will hold to rail lines shipments that are now moving from interior eastern rail points to the coast for re-shipment by water. For example, from Pittsburg to New York the local rate, as I recall it, on iron and steel is 36 cents, which plus the water rate of 55 cents New York to Pacific coast terminals makes 91 cents, to which is added insurance, warpage and handling charges at Pacific coast terminals. It is felt that the quicker time and straight delivery by rail will enable the rail lines to participate in this traffic from Pittsburg, and manufacturing districts such as Chicago, Birmingham, Cleveland, Detroit, etc.

"As a business proposition, it is not to the interest of Pendleton and other interior cities similarly situated for trans-continental freight, as represented by heavy articles, to be shipped from coast to coast via the Panama canal and distributed from the coast to the interior. On the other hand, as the carriers prosper, so will the communities and cities which they serve by reason of the distribution of money through the railroad payroll. It is a well known fact that at least 60 per cent of the rail revenues are paid out in labor and in the past a considerable portion of the rail traffic has been transcontinental freight. To the extent that this is reduced, interior communities will share with the railroad in a corresponding loss in payroll to employees by reason of fewer trains, etc."

COUNTY TAXPAYERS

financial problems of the club were made or included in the conditions of organization.

A motion was made by Joseph N. Scott that letters be written to Senator Robert Stanfield and Representative N. J. Sinnott requesting them to do everything in their power to make the disarmament conference which meets tomorrow a success. It carried.

"We are talking about the expenses of good roads and high taxes," the speaker said, "but as a matter of fact, our other expenses are as nothing when compared with the sums we are paying for armament. If the money which has been set aside for the coming year for our army and navy could all be applied to good roads we could build 10 transcontinental roads and hard surface them every foot of the way." Mr. Scott said.

Dwelling on the increase in taxes which Dr. Kern had called attention to in his own property, the speaker, while expressing his own appreciation of Kern's speech, said that we are living in a new world now and that the increase in taxes do not amount to enough money to buy a set of tires for an automobile.

Resentment of the attitude of the county court toward Sheriff Houser, as reported in the East Oregonian, was voiced by J. T. Hinkle who submitted a resolution in which the demand was expressed that the East Oregonian and the county court be asked for an explanation of the statement.

The resolution was recalled by Hinkle. "There are not very many of us left here now, and this matter can be postponed until another meeting. It will be brought up again when more people are present," he said.

JAP DECLARES THE NEW SHIPPING LAWS UNFAIR

By DUKE N. PARRY.

International News Service Staff Correspondent.

TOKIO, Nov. 10.—Discriminatory shipping laws passed by Great Britain and the United States are criticized by Mr. Y. Ito, president of the Nippon Yusen Kaisha (Japan Mail Steamship Company) in a recent discussion of the forthcoming armament conference in Washington. In the opinion of Mr. Ito, the discriminatory laws, notably the preferential freight rates in the United States for goods shipped from the Orient in American bottoms, are worthy of consideration at the Pacific armament conference.

The countries are Australia, whose 25-centwise shipping laws he feels are unjust; the United States, Great Britain and the British Colonies. He makes the claim that the United States while claiming a desire for "open door" policy, and the members of the League of Nations, while apparently approving anti-trade barriers, proceed to pass laws which are nothing but the creation of the strictest sort of trade barriers against Japan and other nations.

Japan, according to Mr. Ito, is vitally concerned in keeping her present Pacific shipping up to the standard it has reached. To this end she must watch carefully all discriminatory laws and all attempts by other nations to unjustly harm Japanese shipping. Mr. Ito has recently been called to the presidency of Japan's greatest steamship line, from London, and for that reason he claims to know something of what is going on.

In addition to the claims he presents against England, for her discriminatory acts in connection with shipping to her colonies, he alleges that the United States, by making preferential rates for passengers and freight carried from the Orient in American ships, violates one of President Woodrow Wilson's points advanced at Paris in which the American president declared against the erection of commercial barriers.

While there has been expressed no intention to bring this subject up at Washington, it is not improbable that the delegates may decide to do so.

MOTION PICTURE NEWS

RIVOLI TODAY

REAL MAIN STREET
"THE CONQUEST OF CANAAN"
There's a "Main Street," that runs through "Canaan," the mythical city which Booth Tarkington wrote about in "The Conquest of Canaan." In Canaan were some who were respectable and others who were not. Once you were placed in the latter class, it was next to impossible to live down the disgrace.

Here, the respectables looked up to Judge Pike as their leader. His word was law. The unrespectable accorded him because they knew that he owned their homes, their saloons and had their lives in the hollow of his hand.

As the title suggests, Main Street in Canaan was conquered and by two of the unrespectables, Joe Loudon and Ariel Tabor. Ariel was fortunate enough to inherit money which took her to Paris. Joe could not bring himself to conform with the Main Street conventions which aroused such prejudice within him that he was forced to leave town to carve out a better career.

The development of this interesting plot, which brings out the bigness as well as the pettiness of a middle-size town, is illustrated in the Paramount pictureization of "The Conquest of Canaan," which will be shown at the Rivoli theatre today. Thomas Meighan as Joe Loudon, stars in the picture and Doris Kenyon in the role of Ariel Tabor plays the leading feminine part.

ARCADE TODAY

TEX O'REILLY STORY
FEATURED IN STORY

Manager Matlock of the Arcade theatre has secured the first run, for Pendleton of "Honeymoon Ranch," a western romance adapted for the screen from Tex O'Reilly's great novel of the same name. The opening showing will be today. Allene Ray and Harry McLaughlin are featured in this thrilling western photodrama. Bob Townley directed the picture. O'Reilly, himself, appears in the picture in the role of "Wild Bill" Devlin, on whose lawlessness the plot hinges.

The stories of Tex O'Reilly, who wrote the scenario for "Honeymoon Ranch," have been featured in the leading magazines for several years. His book "Roving and Fighting" a tale of his personal experiences as a soldier of fortune under four flags, was published by the Century Company last year.

Mr. O'Reilly knows the country of which he writes. Born in the cattle country of west Texas, he has worked as a cowboy and served in the famous Texas Rangers. As a soldier he served in the Spanish war in Cuba, the Philippines, as drill instructor of the Chinese army and as an officer in the Venezuelan and Mexican armies. In recent years he has worked as a newspaperman and Associated Press war correspondent.

As a story writer Mr. O'Reilly was naturally attracted to the motion pic-

QUIT TOBACCO

So easy to drop Cigarette, Cigar, or Chewing habit

No-To-Bac has helped thousands to break the costly, nerve-shattering tobacco habit. Whenever you have a longing for a smoke or chew, just place a harmless No-To-Bac tablet in your mouth instead. All desire stops. Shortly the habit is completely broken, and you are better off mentally, physically, financially. It's so easy, so simple. Get a box of No-To-Bac and if it doesn't release you from all craving for tobacco in any form, your druggist will refund your money without question.

His first photoplay was sold to J. Warren Kerrigan, and others were accepted by the Paramount Company. Fred Stone and House Peters.

His first venture as a producer was made last year in San Antonio, Texas, where he filmed six two reel western pictures based on his own stories.

"Honeymoon Ranch" is his most ambitious effort. The story is based on the fight waged by the old school cattlemen against the invasion of the barbed wire fence. A young society dier from the east is drawn into the feud against his will, and finds love and a real man's fight awaiting him in the border town of Catamount.

All the romance and adventure of the sweeping plains are reflected in this photoplay. It is a five reel western picture which will thrill the most blasé movie fans and its keynote of chivalry will make a lasting impression on all who see it. "Honeymoon Ranch" will remain at the Arcade theatre for two days.

MOTHER! OPEN CHILD'S BOWELS WITH CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP

Your little one will love the "fruity" taste of "California Fig Syrup" even if constipated, bilious, irritable, feverish or full of cold. A teaspoonful never fails to cleanse the liver and bowels. In a few hours you can see for yourself how thoroughly it works all the sour bile, and undigested food out of the bowels and you have a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers keep "California Fig Syrup" handy. They know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has directions for babies and children of all ages printed on bottle. Mother! You must say "California" or you may get an imitation fig syrup.

THE PHEASANT
A Pattern in China

The Pheasant pattern in dinner ware is one of the best in English semi-porcelain.

Despite the fact that the decoration has a wide border, brightened by the delicately colored pheasant, yet the scroll work is so delicate that it gives a "lightness" to the pattern that is delightful and never escapes the eye of the observing woman of taste.

Make sure your china is right for the Thanksgiving table.

THOMAS MEIGHAN in 'The Conquest of Canaan'

He came from that part of town that wasn't "respectable"—seething Beaver Beach, with its scandals and shady politics.

Besides, he aspired to a certain girl and knew too much about the town's respectable leaders. Including the great Judge Pike!

So, when they wouldn't let him make good, he went away and studied law. And when he came back—

Come and see Joe Loudon conquer Canaan! In a story of the best that the screen and American life can offer.

Directed by Roy W. Neill. Scenario by Frank Tuttle
From the Famous Novel by Booth Tarkington.
