SWEATERS of Unusual Warmth and Style

When a mere coat is not sufficient protection against the cold and piercing winds, a sweater worn beneath it gives the additional warmth necessary to comfort. Then, too, on days when a heavy coat is burdensome a sweater is just the wrap needed.
 Here are good sweaters in all styles and sizes, knit of fine woolen yarns in every wanted color. They're well worth these prices, $5.95, $6.95.
 Children's Ripple Sweater Coats, all colors and sizes $5.95.

Fur Trimmed Coats

These recent arrivals display numerous unique style ideas not seen in the coats which we have heretofore received for wear during the season at hand.

They are as rich looking as it is possible for garments to be. And women who love coats possessing this distinguishable quality will not rest easy until they have taken one or two of them into custody for present and future wear. These prices make them splendid values:

Priced from $19.95 to $90.00
 Last year these coats would have cost $40.00 to $175.00.

WASHINGTON DRUBBED BY STRONG CALIFORNIA AGGREGATION 72 TO 3

Northern Team Powerless in Face of Attack by Bawks of Southern Outfit.

BERKELEY, Cal., Nov. 14.—California overwhelmed Washington, 72 to 3, in a Pacific coast conference game here Saturday almost squaring up a 72 to 0 defeat the northerners gave the Bears here in 1915. Today's total was the largest the undefeated California machine has made this season.

Washington's team, only a shadow of the great northern eleven of six years ago, was helpless before the charging California backs, and the defensive was almost at the mercy of the Bear line-men, who broke through and smothered nearly every Sun Dodger attempt. Only one play, a delayed quarterback run, was able to gain anything against California. Washington made no attempts at forward passing.

Nisbet made the only California touchdown scored in the first quarter, and Barnes added two to the total by tackling Hall behind the Washington line for a safety. In the second period the Bear offensive started, and three touchdowns were made, two by Nichols and one by Dunn. In this period the lone northern tally was made, when Wilson sent over a drop kick after Washington had intercepted a punt.

In the third period Morrison went over for the only touchdown, but in the last quarter he went across four times and Bell once. The last touchdown, which made the score 72, was made on a play which started just before the game ended and was finished after the gun sounded.

Morrison and Toomey were the only regulars in the California lineup on the last period. In all, California used 17 substitutes.
 For Washington, "Ham" Greene, negro half back, played one of the best defensive games ever seen on California field. Captain Eckman, Washington's sensational open field runner, was unable to get away for any gains.

WANT 5 CENT LOAF.
 SEATTLE, Nov. 14.—The 5-cent loaf, declared last week to be as extinct as the dodo, is apparently to be restored in Seattle. Following the announcement of a company here of a drastic cut in its bread prices, W. C. Hutchinson, secretary-treasurer of the National Baking company and president of the State Bakers' association, declared that this action would force market bakeries to sell 5-cent loaves—something not seen in Seattle since "before the war."

ALTA SUNDAY AND MONDAY THIS STAR UNPAID OF TALENTED SUPPORT
 The old days when stars sometimes used to hire incompetent support in order that their own cleverness might shine more brightly, have passed to the realm of forgotten things in photodrama.

Or at least so says May McAvoy, star of "Everything for Sale," which opens at the Alta Theatre for two days beginning Sunday.
 "It is hard to understand how leading players could ever have wished to be surrounded by poor support, in order to give further emphasis to their own ability," said the charming little person who made "Grizel" of "Sentimental Tommy" so justly famous.

"Acting is so greatly a matter of co-operation, of response of the interlocking characters of the story, that a proper dramatic interpretation can never be made by one or two persons alone. It must be a composite of several individuals all of whom have something real to contribute."
 "Everything for Sale" is by the author of "The Cheat," one of the most successful photoplays ever written and the first original screen story ever made into a grand opera. It was directed by Frank O'Connor under the personal supervision of the author.

ARCADE SUNDAY AND MONDAY CHARMING STAR FEATURED IN PLAY DIRECTED BY OLD CHUM
 Edith Roberts, the star of "Lascia," "The Fire Cat," "Thunder Island" and many other well known successes, will be seen at the Arcade Theatre on Sunday in her latest Universal Production "Luring Lips." In this drama of love, action, and adventure the youthful star of the screen rises to the dramatic heights of her career. It is a delightful reward of personal ambition to Miss Roberts.
 As a little girl of ten, Miss Roberts lived next door in New York City to the favorite leading man of the screen. It was King Baggot, who was then being starred by Universal and working in the New York studio. Miss Roberts worshipped him at her favorite cinema shrine. She was known and revered at school as "the girl who lives next door to King Baggot."

 That little girl of ten, and now the famous dramatic star of twenty, is exceedingly happy. Her work in "Luring Lips" is the crowning achievement of a brilliant career.

RIVOLI SUNDAY AND MONDAY MARY PICKFORD AFFORDED UNIVERSAL OPPORTUNITIES
 In "Through the Back Door," Mary Pickford's forthcoming United Artists release, this clever little artist will be afforded an opportunity for the display of talent equalled only in such previous productions as "Pollyanna" and "Daddy Long Legs." Arrangements were recently completed by Manager Matlock of the Rivoli Theatre to show this production beginning Sunday.

It is the first picture in which Little Mary ever worked under the guidance of two directors. Alfred E. Green and Mary's brother Jack sponsored this production, and the result of their combined efforts is said to prove further the truth of the old adage, "Two heads are better than one."
 The outstanding feature of "Through the Back Door" is the delightful comedy sequences scattered throughout the picture. In a little girl role Miss Pickford has a chance to become involved in innumerable complications.

COLDS

"Pape's Cold Compound" is Quickest Relief Known
 Don't stay stuffed-up! Quit blowing and sniffling! A dose of "Pape's Cold Compound" taken every two hours until three doses are taken usually breaks any cold right up.
 The very first dose opens clogged nostrils and the air passages of the head; stops nose running; relieves the headache, dizziness, feverishness.
 "Pape's Cold Compound" costs only a few cents at drug stores. It acts without assistance, tastes nice, contains no quinine—Insist upon Pape's!

all provocative of mirth, yet touched with that pathos which stamps this greatest of all ingenious as mistress of her art.

To Cure a Cold in One Day
 Take Laxative BROMO QUININE tablets. The genuine bears the signature of E. W. Grove. (Be sure you get BROMO.) 10c.

Ford
 THE UNIVERSAL CAR

The Ford Sedan, with electric self-starting and lighting system and demountable rims with 3 1/2-inch tires front and rear, is a family car of class and comfort, both in summer and in winter. For touring it is a most comfortable car. The large plate glass windows make it an open car when desired, while in case of rain and all inclement weather, it can be made a most delightful closed car in a few minutes. Rain-proof, dust-proof, fine upholstery, broad, roomy seats. Simple in operation. Anybody can safely drive it. While it has all the distinctive and economical merits of the Ford car in operation and maintenance, Won't you come in and look it over?
